Messre, Cutting and Breckridge. DUEL EXPECTED.

A debate of a personal character took place in the House of Representives last Monday, between Mr. Cutting of New York and Breckenridge, of Kentucky, in which many hard words were used by the latter gentlemou. Soon after the adjournment of way. the House, Mr. Cutting challenged Mr. Breckenridge. The affair has caused considerable excitement in Springfield-J H Turner, H H Bo- the future. Washington, and it is to be hoped that dine the difficulty will be settled without a resort to "pistols and coffee." The following despatch is from the Olipper till of Thursday:

WASHINGTON, March 29, 1. P. M .--The excitement relative to the difficulty between Messrs. Breckenridge and Cutting is increasing. The "Hards" in the House of Representatives, exclusive of Mike Wash, are game, and say that there shall be a fight between Mesers. Breckenridge and Cutting, or on the part of any other 'Hard', if the South want it.

Thomas II. Benton and Mr. Richardson of Illinois, have just been called in as counsellers in the case, an effort being made to settle the difficulty.

The Marshall of the District of Columbia is searching for Mr. Cutting to arrest him. It is not known where Mr Breckenridge is.
