CELERY "DR. C. W. BENSON, a practicing physician, at 106 N. FLAGG'S

LIVER

And Stomach

PAD.

This greatly improved PAD (and the only one for which a patent has been granted), on account of its Superiority of construction, is rapidly gaining ascendancy over all others for the Prevention and Cure of Chills and all Malarial Fevers, Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Kidney Affections and all complaints resulting from a disordered Stomach and Liver or Malarial Poison in the Blood. It is greatly admired, from the fact that it requires no "Pounding Up" or "Pinching Process" [?] to make it Soft as do other "Pads." Its peculiar construction combining science and mechanism, makes it A WAYS SOFT and the wearing a luxury, while its strength may be increased tenfold by adding the fluid "ANTI-MALARIA," thereby making absolute CURES where other Pads have failed, or the money will be refunded.

Price of Full-Sized Pad only $2, including a six-ounce bottle "Anti-Malaria."

☞ Sold by druggists generally. If your druggist has none on hand, ask him to send and get it for you.

Sent free of charge to any part of the country upon receipt of price, viz. $2.

Select Poetry.

For the STAR.

I Think of Thee.

BY H. A. B.

When evening lights her silver spheres,
And slowly pales the western red,
I think of thee with painless tears,
As of the dead—the quiet dead.

Thou livest: the green earth
Still bears thy voice and feels thy tread;
But since I know thee void of mirth,
I think of thee as of the dead.

Ah! once my listening heart would bound
And thrill, if but thy name was said;
My fair ideal is discrowned—
I think of thee as of the dead.

I wove a halo for thy brow;
I deemed thee from all faults exempt;
I think upon my weakness now
With a calm smile of self contempt.

And, looking back, I thank again
The God who this my heart has led,
Albeit, through passages of pain,
To think of thee as of the dead.
