THE KENT NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

renewanie SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4, 1855.

was arrested and committed to jail on Tuesday last.

DEATH OF JUDGE FRICK.—We regret would reduce the death of Hon. William to announce the death of Hon. William Frick, Judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore city. He died at the Warm Baltimore city. He died at the Warm Baltimore city. He died at the warm regret to announce the death of Hon. William to announce the death of Hon. William we say to these Anti-American newspapers and these Anti-American newspapers and these Anti-American newspapers to announce the death of Hon. William the paid a glowing and just tribute to the material of the American party—a party office, that, if what they say about Henry which had sprung from humble private in which you mention my past conduct to the point.

Clay and the old Whig party is just and citizens, not from politicians, and the equally claims the expression of my gratery and the congratulation on my appointment to the material of the American newspapers and these Anti-American newspapers to announce the death of Hon. William the paid a glowing and just tribute to the material of the American party—a party which had sprung from humble private in which you mention my past conduct to the paid a glowing and just tribute to the material of the American newspapers and these Anti-American newspapers and these Anti-American newspapers and these Anti-American newspapers and the paid a glowing and just tribute to the material of the American newspapers and the paid a glowing and just tribute to the material of the American newspapers and the paid a glowing and just tribute to the material of the American newspapers and the paid a glowing and just tribute to the material of the American newspapers and the paid a glowing and just tribute to the paid a glowing and just tribut last, aged 65 years.

Nominations .- The Democrats of Bal-

them, unable to grind, from the scarcity their accursed pens and lips, lied away ple may determine. The charge of Free have placed my signature to it; and if I however, that shipments of all descriptions the lives of both Henry Clay and the Whigh th olina held their annual elections on Thurs- support to the Anti-American or Sag Nicht day last. In Tennessee a Governor, ten cause, are now so loud and rapturous in clared that he was utterly hostile to impomembers of Congress and members of the their praise of Henry Clay and the old members of Congress and members of the Whig party. But the editor of the Shelby Legislature were to be elected. In North News has saved us the trouble of an exbers of Congress and the State Legisla- or three of the most infamous of their

On Monday next elections will be held in Kentucky, Alabama and Texas, for publication, which is said to have originated teachers in the church, as Mr. Brown-dictates of his own conscience. Governor, members of Congress and the gust 28, 1844, and which was paraded as lies did owe supreme allegiance to the nominations having been made.

our worthy Post Master, sowed a small you about the proud and glorious Whig tion of the American party was simply lot in Wheat in the autuma of 1853. A party. short time before harvest in 1854, the celebrated hail storm destroyed the en- gust 28, 1844. crop. Mr. Stam very soon ploughed the ground and sowed it in buck-wheat. In the autumn he reaped a crop-soon after a volunteer growth of wheat made its appearance and a few weeks ago he reaped 21 bushels. The land has now sprung up in buck-wheat, without fresh seeding, and the crops seem to be alternating.

Wentworth Seminary.

The young ladies attached to this school of which A. E. Bassford, Esq., is Principal, had their aunual exhibition at the Court House in Chester Town, on Tuesday evening last. Betwee the hour of eight, the house was almost liter lly crowded; a number of persons among om Ladies, had to stand during the exercises, which lasted about 21 hours. It is scarcely necessary to say that the young ladies | ted and children of the Institution acquitted ni themselves handsomely. We believe not hea one missed her part or faltered in the de- lars livery of a speech, or in the execution of music. Their parts were admirably committed and well delivered. It was an interesting occasion, and the singing, singly and in concert, gave general satisfac-

Foreign News .- The Steamship Asia arrived at Halifax Wednesday morning, bringing six days later dates from Europe, but no important news,

Affairs before Sebastopol remain un-

In the English Parliament Mr. Roebuck's motion of censure upon Government conduct of the war, was rejected by offe hundred majority. The Palmerston ministry therefore remain in office. The vacancy created by the retirement of Lord John Russell, has not yet been filled .-Sir William Walsworth will most probably succeed him.

demnity to the amount of 1,000,000

Corn has declined three shillings .- breath. Wheat and flour unchanged.

From the Louisville Journal. Henry Clay & the Anti-Americans

THEN AND Now .- We must acknowldates and orators in relation to Henry Clay. In every Anti-American paper and from every Anti-American candidate; we culogies upon the man whom they now call the immortal statesman of Ashland. They talk of him as a man of proud and honorable principles; they denominate him "the glorious Clay," they speak of him as being too lofty in all his feelings and im-In Jail. -The negro Tom Mander, pulses and sentiments ever to stoop to who killed another negro in a fight, near | concealment or deception; they tell us that Swantown Mills, a few weeks since, and while he was the leader of the Whig parwho was desperately wounded himself, ty, it was a noble and bold and generous and patriotic party; and they invoke his name in every assault upon the American organization and ask how his pure and high and haughty soul, if he were alive, DEATH OF JUDGE FRICK.—We regret would regard such an organization. Now as they were-would and could not do.— Sulphur Springs, Virginia, on Sunday true, if it has one particle of justice and members of which were all native sons of it do truth in it, they themselves have been the soil-men born in the land, who had itude. throughout nearly the whole of their polithers the vilest and basest and most here the homes of their childhood and the Providence on our exertion, obtained the or two. As the receipts increase the out- of Georgetown X Roads, and not one ical lives, the vilest and basest and most infamous liars and slanderers that ever their country was inborn, pure and strong timore city have nomincted the following disgraced their kind. By the declarations, and in whose hands, if anywhere the destant my country would be safe.

The sake of securing Anti-Wright, Robt. M. McLane, John V. L. Know-Nothing votes they are now putting Mr. C. then took up the slavery ques-Mright, Robt. M. McLane, John V. L. forth as to Henry Clay and the old whig lice life; but when the exigencies of my purchase of breadstuffs and provisions duneighborhood, and is watered by a never form. The lice life; but when the exigencies of my purchase of breadstuffs and provisions duneighborhood, and is watered by a never form. McMahon, Hugh A. Cooper, Algernon party, they proclaim themselves to have —even the most ultra pro-slavery man—been, through nearly all the years of their could ask, than the position of the Amer-George Evans, Wilson C. N. Carr, Wm. existence, a set of calumniators fit for ican party on that subject? What could nothing better than to have their tongues be more national, more safe, more peacecut or pulled out of mouths or bored thro' ful? There is to be no more action on RAINS.—Since our last issue we have and through with red-hot irons. If Henry the subject in Congress; the people of the adopted. If I could have ascertained the September 1, 1854) and very inconsideration of fine water convenience. had several very heavy rains, which has life of the Whig parimproved the appearance of all kinds of two was proud and glorious, what sort of when the territories with the convention where I had ving been only 140,000 barrels of flour ent to the dwelling—a thriving young improved the appearance of all kinds of ty was proud and glorious, what sort of when the territory is ready for admission as a State she is to come into the Union as a State she is to come into the Union danger the religious rights of any ecclewas very dry, the grist mills, some of and demagogues have been, who, with with or without slavery as her own peoted in the Illinois State Register of Au- son, for example, who taught that Catho-Legislature. In all these States the po- prominently as possible in the Louisville Pope in things temporal as well as relilitical lines are drawn between the Amer- Democrat, and, so far as we remember, in gious, and while he would trust native ican and Democratic parties, no other every other Locofoco paper in the country. Kentuckians to repudiate such doctrines, Whigs! look at this infernal picture, he could not say as much for the European painted little more than ten years ago, Catholics who were coming here in such H—n, Mississippi, assembled at a church by those, who, to wheedle you into the immense numbers. Upon this whole Wonderful Crop. - J. L. Stam, Esq., support of their candidates, now talk to Catholic aspect of the question, the posi-

THE ELECTIONS.—Tennessee and N. Car- Democratic editors, who, to win Whig used against it.

Clay, the living personification and embodiment of Whig principles, Whig address. In 1777, 1805 quarrelled with Col. Davis, of Kentucky, which led to his first duel; in 1808 he challenged Humphrey Marshall, and fired three times at his heart; 1825, he challenged the great Jo ndolph, and fired once at his he without effect; in 1838 he plan CILLEY DUEL, by wh foul murder was perpe da wife made a ded, is under 5,000 BONDS TO KEEP EACE! At the age or e PERJURED himself t ecure a SMAT in the Unite S tates Senate! In 1824 be mad an infamous bargain with J. Quin co Adams, by which he sold our for a 6-thousand a year office; he is also well kn own as a gam bath breaker. bler and Sab principles are His political and exactly Hartford con eralists; opvention fed posed to e qual rights, equal priv ileges, and s & char ivileges tered pr sustains ines in

Constitution and Laws.

Now if Henry Clay and the old Whig of Kent and Queen Ann's. party were good and patriotic and glorious, as the anti-Americans, who want with fire proof offices. The Black Warrior dispute has been Whig votes tell us they were, we ask if it definitely settled by Spain granting in- does not seem almost a pity that God per- A keeper of the square, whose duty it party holding it, however excellent be mits the authors of the fiendish slanders should be to keep the grass short, to pro- other principles held in combination, may of 1844 to polute and poison his atmost tect the yard from all four legged animals expect to pass before the conservative phere with their foul and pestiferous large and small—to protect the grass, people of the United States, especially of Writ of Habeas Corpus Refused. MAGNANIMITY.—To pursue a statesman Philadelphia, August 1.—Judge Lewis night hideous", by their noise and confuto the grave with the coarsest abuse, and of the supreme court of Pennsylvania, this sion. To prevent assemblages on Sunthe most malignant slanders, and then in- morning refused to grant a writ of habeas day morning's to the annoyance of church cais says "the new shapes are even smalvoke his spirit to assist in hunting down corpus as applied for by the counsel of going and moral and religious persons, ler that they were last spring." ne other distinguished man. This may Passmore Williamson, on the ground that and the desecration of the Sabbath. imity— every court of competent jurisdiction is A bailiff to arrest drunken and noisy D-1 the exclusive judge of contempts against persons in the streets, day and night. itself; and the respect which his court. A Steam Boat to blow a whistle and when he shaves himself, and he ought, claimed for its own jurisdiction, was cheer- remain 10 minutes at the wharf.

Hon. John J. Crittenden.

edge that it puts our patience to a severe gives the substance of a great speech in cussing the political issues of the day, I trial to read the articles and paragraphs favor of the American party, delivered by would thank you to publish the following of the Anti-American papers and to listen Mr. Crittenden, in that place, on the 24th letter from General Washington. The to the speeches of Anti-American candi- inst. We make the following extracts:

small, obscure, and weak; but scarcely did digested, and they will afford a safe, wholea summer cloud arise and overspread the some antidote to the political poison so see and hear the most highly-wrought sky more rapidly than it overspread the extensively circulated in this age of isms. whole country. It was a most remarkable This letter was addressed by General phenomenon—the history of parties show- Washington to a committee of the Baped nothing like it. It proved that the tist Church of Virginia, soon after his inpublic mind had every where been drawn auguration as President of the United to the contemplation of a common danger States, and it is one of the strongest and that a vast volume of American feel- proofs of the greatness, goodness, and ing had accumulated in the popular heart, wisdom of that great, good, and wise and needed only the electric touch which man. This little taste of his principles, the new order gave to burst forth in a will prepare the palate for another dish tremendous explosion. Of that explosion from the same abundant table, which I the American party was generated.

Mr. Crittenden demonstrated the necessity for the American party, to do what the old parties-effete and falling to pieces of water, and corn seemed to be failing rapidly.

the lives of both Henry Clay and the Whig Soilism or Abolitionism made against the party; in the face of such a platform, was an established falsehood, and neither dean established falsehood, and neither detime past to look over the files of those old served or required any argument to be Upon the Catholic question, Mr. C. de-

Carolina the election was only for mem- amination of those files by quoting two our native Catholics. He felt sure they ducting himself as a good citizen, and beacknowledged no allegiance to the Pope ing accountable to God alone for his re-And here is a most horrible atrocious qual to it. But there were men, accredthis: They would not vote for any man gentleman, coming in rather late, walked Corn, Yellow From the Illinois State Register, August 28, 1844.

They would not vote for any man who acknowledged a divided allegiance between his country and any foreign power listened until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged listened until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged listened until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard," Adainst the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Against the incivil or ecclesiastical or who acknowledged until he heard, "Adainst the incivil or ecclesiastica civil or ecclesiastical, or who acknowledge any allegiance to any such power superior to his allegiance to his country. Beyond you to believe me, fellow-citizens, the this he would not go, nor did the order require anybody to go beyond it. He stantly awake, since history prove that of Kent county. tive Catholic for office, unless he knew ful foes of a republican government."— CHARLES H. DEFORD to Miss MARY E. DAILY or had reason to believe that he held to When this was read, he threw up his hat both of Queen Ann's county.

> say there was any proscription in this? showed the immense increase of immigration; that as many had arrived recently in ington's Farewell Address read. one year, as came in the whole of the f a State as populous as Kentucky every honse."-Sumpter Co. Whig. two years. He showed that we had already passed far beyond the limits of our ability to assimilate and Americanize them as they came; that they were now accu- of a weekly paper published in New Ormulating in groups, and claus, and coun- leans by a committee of ministers of the tra | ties, and almost States-perpetuating their | Methodist Episcopal Church South. Not- dence, ordered otherwise, and took the little teration whatever, into an inodorous and povma foreign habits, and language and preju- withstanding the wretehed bait thrown sufferer to himself. The Saviour said when on erful manure, something like Guano, but le en dices, and that thus the process of Amer- out by the national know-nothing conven- and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom It is called "Tafen," from the Chinese work icanizing them, which was expected to be tion in the shape of an anti-Catholic of heaven." The presence of children in the signifying prepared night soil, and is the only the accomplished in five years, was not even plank, the advocate repudiates the commenced. They had already come at criptive spirit of the secret order in the who shall be saved. There parents and children country. It is waranted to be 95 per cent pur the rate of half a million in a year; at the true, tolerant spirit of Christianity. That same rate of increase they would soon paper says: come by millions, and he impressed it up- "The proceedings of the convention "O, what a shadow o'er the heart is flung, on his audience, with an eloquence and lately assembled in Philadelphia were When peals the requiem of the loved and young.' For Grass in the fall. Winter Grain, or for Gar scribe, that unless the present rapid pro- tical matters were early introduced.

For the Kent News. Things Wanted.

A new and commodious Court House,

A few more trees in the public square. trees and benches from trespass and inju- the South. It cannot budge a step-it ry—to prevent boys, at night, from con- cannot stand with this millstone about its gregating in the square and "making neck."

To the Editor of the Kent News!

The Frankfort (Ky:,) Commonwealth offered your paper, as a medium for dissentiments contained in it, will not be very palatable to the leaders of the In its origin the American order was Know-Nothing party, but they are easily will hand to you next week.

> Respectfully, R. W. RINGGOLD.

accept my best acknowledgments for your try, for supplies for France, whenever worshiping the Deity, according to the

I am, gentlemen, Your most obedient servant, GEORGE WASHINGTON.

Too Good to BE Lost .- The citizens of to celebrate the 4th instant, by reading the Declaration of Independence, and Washington's Farewell Address. An old sidious wilds of foreign influence, I conjure foreign influence is one of the most bane- On Tuesday last, by Rev. Mr. Aspril, Mr. such a foreign allegiance. Who could in a passion and left the house. At the door he met some of his friends. "Gen-Mr. C. next passed to the subject of a tlemen," said he, "I came here to celereform of the naturalization laws. He brate the 4th of July, and hear the Elizabeth Frazier. Declaration of Independence and Washfirst thing I heard was that fellow in there aged 2 years, 11 months and 14 days. thirty years of our national existence; and reading a d-d Know-Nothing document, that the present rate was enough to fill up and I'll whip him as soon as he leaves the

[PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.]

"The Christian Advocate" is the power of argument which we cannot de- watched by us with interest. Ecclesiascess of conferring citizenship upon these attempt was made, principally by southcomigrants was arrested, the sons of the ern men, to throw them out. But the at the right hand of God. sor would soon be the ruled and not the "Catholic test" was affirmed and finally rulers in their own land, and the glorious reaffirmed. 'The Roman Catholic Church' trust of empire and freedom which we had is distinctly named. 'Resistance' to it is received from our fathers and our God, proponded among the things credenda would pass into the hands of those who and the things agenda. If we read corknow not hew to administer it. Upon rectly, every Catholic is proscribed.this subject Mr. C. was especially eloquent He may be an American—native, good and powerful, but want of room compels and patriotic; he may stoutly and pracin civil matters as an inference from the ecclesiastical. Yet, for his religion's sake, he is barred advancement to all political stations—executive, legislative, THE undersigned Collector of Taxes for A free bridge to connect the counties judicial, or diplomatic. This is a test to 3d Election District of Kent county, gives no which our religious principles and repub- tice that his books are now ready, and for lican instincts, the spirit of our institutions and liberty of conscience, as inter- ther notice; preted by the age, are all opposed. No cal to justice.

From the American Farmeer for August. A Significant Sign.

We learn from reliable authority, that Geo. Peabody, Esq., the eminent American Banker, of England, has given the most earnest assurances to his correspondents in the United States, that all the grain that can be spared in this country, will be required in Europe the coming year. We know not on what data Mr. quity, the subscriber, as Trustee, will of P. predicates his opinion, as the accounts latterly received are rather favorable for Hotel, in Georgetown X Roads, on the crops of England, but suppose it is based on the continuance of the war, and the troubled state of affairs growing out the 29th day of August, 1855, at 12 o'c of it. Be it what it may, however, no clock, M., all that more reliable judgment could be formed than that which emanates from the respectable source indicated, and it is an additional proof that our breadstuffs must during the year maintain good pri-

P. S.—Since the above was written, we FARM." This farm lies in Kent count find the following in the Sun of the 27th, ty, on the stage road from Chestertown which proves the correctness of the sug- to Elkton, adjoins the lands of James F. gestions of Mr. Peabody; we were aware, Woodland and others, and contains about "Gentlemen, I request that you will before that large orders were in the counmenced, several freight engagements hav- The location is desirable, being very "After we had, by the smiles of Divine ing been made at New York within a day convenient to Schools, Mills, and places object for which we contended, I retired ward movement will be large. The Tri- of Georgetown X Roads, and not over at the conclusion of the war with an idea bune learns from parties connected with twelve miles from Chester Town. There occasion for my services, and with the tions have been made by means of credits miles of the farm. The soil is naturally intention of never entering again into pub- upon European banking houses for the very good, equal perhaps to any in the country seemed to require me once more ring the coming season. The arrange- failing stream. to engage in public affairs, an honest con- ments made for purchasing we are told viction of duty superseded my former re- are larger than ever before. The shipsolution, and became my apology for deviating from the happy plan which I had and Ireland thus far this season (since adopted. If I could have acceptained the as to render the liberty of conscience in- this season show a decrease of 667,232 secure, I beg you will be persuaded, that bbls of flour, 1,007,286 bushel wheat, and no one could be more zealous than my- an increase of 3,135,942 bushels as comself, to establish effectual barriers against pared with 1853, and a decrease of 162,- proved by the Trustee. sing any penalties, proscription or disabilry species of religious persecution; for you els of wheat, and an increase of 1,150,doubtless remember, I have often expres- 000 bushels of corn as compared with

PHILADELPHIA GRAIN MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2, 1855. E. MANSFIELD, Esq. Dear Sir:-Our market in grain is firm, prices

tending upward. We quote to-day as follows: 1.92 a 2.00 New Rye Yellow Corn Yours, truly, LEFEVRE, BLACE & Co. BALTIMORE GRAIN MARKET. [Corrected from the Baltimore Sun of yesterday.] $1.88 a 1.92 jealousy of a free people ought to be con- Mr. DANIEL CUSICK to Miss MARY JANE CARR, both On the 28th inst., by Rev. George C. Stokes, MARRIAGES.

DEATHS.

In this place on Wednesday evening last, of Departed this life on 3rd day morning last, th

But the 24th of the 7th month, 1855, BARTUS TREW CLASH, This interesting little boy, so full of hope are of buoyancy; so gentle and affectionate, and by an injury received from a horse, with which. in the innocency of childhood, he attempted to play. He lingered about twelve hours after the casualty, and retained his intellect to the last .-All that parents and physicians could do, was diligently and faithfully performed, to alleviate I the night soil collected from the sinks and the suffering, and arrest the approach of Death privies of New York City, by the Lidi Manufac to the little one. But God, in his good Provi- turing Co., and manufactured without any adubetter world, will enhance the happiness of all article of the kind ever manufactured in the may meet again, and be reunited in the tender night soil; and from its case of transportation and embrace and with intenser and more refined affection, live an eternity of happiness.

But the sunlight of Hope will dispel the darkness of sorrow, and Faith, with her angel wing, cents of love says, "Weep not"-thy child liveth

"There is a world above, Where parting is unknown; A long eternity of love, Formed for the good alone; And faith beholds the dying here, Translated to that glorious sphere."

Church, Chestertown, on to-morrow (Sunus to break off even this imperfect sketch tically deny the power of the Pope F. WATERS. Subject-The inspiration and Auday) morning at half past ten o'clock, by Dr.

Pay Your Taxes!

Monday's, at Chesterville. Tnesday's, at Chester Town.

Wednesday's and Saturday's, at Millington. Chursday's, at George Town X Roads. Friday's, Head of Sassafras JESSE K. HINES, Col. 3d E. District, Kent county.

STRAYED AWAY OR STOLEN.

handsome white BARROW county, Maryland, letters Testame about the head and rump, and All persons having claims against the Ten Dollars for such information as will lead to mercy to his neighbors, surrender the ras- the recovery of the hog and the conviction of the 1855. WM. GRAVES. Aug 4, 1855 .- 3t

IN virtue of a Decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, in E. fer at public sale, at John Pennington's

WEDNESDAY.

formerly known as the "FREEMAN

The improvements are

aBRICK DWELLING HOUSE, and the usu-teen months from the day of sale, secur ed by the bonds of the purchaser, bearing interest from that day, with security are > RICH'D. HYNSON. Trustee.

Aug. 4, 1855—tds. N. B. It is the purpose of the Trustee to have this farm surveyed, and laid of in two divisions; the plat of which will be exhibited on the day of sale. He will first offer each division and then the

NO TICE.

TO RENT for the ensuing year, my Grist and Saw Mills, with the land attached, now occupied by A. S. Sappington. For terms apply to HOUSEKEEPER WANTED. One that can do plain sewing, and has been used to children. Apply to PAY UP AND BUY MORE.

accounts. 'The harvest is past and I am not 40 a 44 paid''—no further notice will be given.
Goods of all kinds in his ltne on hand sale low for cash. W. BACCHUS. Just received, Super and Family Flour, at re-W. BACCHUS. luced prices. Aug 4, 1855 .-- tf.

HARD AND FREE-BURNING

ANTHIACITE COALS.

M. JANNEY & CO., Baltimore, (Md.) deal-Les ers in every description of hard and soft coals, from the most approved Mines, would irform the residents of Chestertown, that they are prepared to answer all orders for coals best adapted for domestic purposes. These coals will be delivered at the Chestertown packets at Baltimore, screened and free from slate and impurities, by the long ton, 2240 lbs., during August, at $5.75 and $6. Persons desiring coal should address CENTRAL COAL OFFICE, Cor. Baltimore and South streets, Baltimore; Md. Aug. 4, 1855.—1m.

The Attention of Farmers IS requested to a new Fertilizer, prepared from produce the same results as heavier manures, is the cheapest manure ever offered for sale .den Vegetables, it has no equals. From 300 ! 600 lbs. per acre is all the dressing required for the poorest soils. A fair trial in col with other manures is respectfully asked. Pack-Price $35 per ton, or 13 cts. per lb.,—delivered free of cartage on board of Vessels or Railroad in the City of New York. For further particulars address THE LODI MANUFACTURING CO.

60 Cortlandt st. N. Y. Aug. 4, 1855 .- 2m

ESTATE OF JOEL G. NEWNAM. Maryland, Kent County, Orphans' Court, N the application of Elizabeth Newnam, administrator of Joel G. Newnam, late of Kent county, deceased, ORDERED, That he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that the same be successive weeks in the Kent News, P.

published in Kent county. In testimony that the foregoing is truly co SEAL of the Orphans' Court of the cou (aforesaid, I have hereunto hand and the seal of my office affixed, this 31st day of July, 1855. JACOB FISHER, About the 30th of June last, a bath obtained from the Orphans' Court of Kent

Aug. 5, 1855.-4W