YOUTHFUL MEMORIES. My youthful dreams are fading fast, Their brightness wanes away, Like evanescent beams that gild The golden close of day; But like such radiant prospects, They leave a ray behind, To brighten cherished memories, And soothe the care-worn mind.

Through all the changing years that cast Their shadows on my heart, The brightness of youth's joyous hour Can never all depart; Nor would I wish to drop one link Within life's lengthening chain; For memory, while it gilds the joys,

Still softens all the pain.
