WHEN YOU'RE DOWN.

What legions of "friends" always bless us When golden success lights our way! How they smile as they softly address us, So cordial, good humored, and gay ! But ah! when the sun of prosperity Hath set, then how quickly they frown, And cry out in tones of severity, "Kick the man, don't you see he's down !" What though, when you knew not a sorrow,

Your heart was as open as day, And your "friends" when they wanted to bor-You obliged, and ne'er asked them to "pay !" What though not a soul you e'er slighted, As you wandered about through the town,

Your "friends" become very near-sighted, And don't seem to see when you're down. When you're "up" you are loudly exalted, And traders all sing out your praise; When you're "down" you have greatly de-

And they "really don't fancy your ways."

Your style was "tip-top" when you'd money, So sings every sucker and clown, But now 'tis exceedingly funny-Things have altered "because you are down." Oh, give me the heart that forever Is free from this world's selfish rust, And the soul whose high, noble endeavor Is to raise fallen man from the dust: And when in adversity's ocean A victim is likely to drown, All hail to the friend whose devotion Will lift up a man when he's "down."
