Mayoralty Convention.

The Legislature of the State having passed an act on the 15th inst., authorizing a new Election for Mayor and City Council for the city of Baltimore on the first Wednesday of February next, the conservative voters of that city through their Delegates from the different Wards, in Convention assembled, on Saturday morning last, nominated ROBERT T. BANKS as their candidate for the Mayoralty.

The candidate is but little known in political circles. He is a merchant by occupation and is regarded as a man of integrity and intelligence. We presume he will be able to command the entire anti-radical vote; and if so we should be glad to see the negro-worshipping disunionists nominate one of their very best and most reputable leaders; and then make a fair, honest, manly contest—in which no threats, or violence or intimidation should be practiced on either side; so that we might have, for once, in six years, a full, fair and undoubted evidence of the relative strength of parties in that great city, in whose wise and just government every true Marylander must ever feel an earnest solicitude and an honest pride.

We do not suppose, that that most impertinent meddler in our local affairs—the fellow in Congress from New York named Ward, we believe—who seems willing to make a fool of himself while acting as a monkey for the big Thomas and "little Thomas" and other spoils-seeking loyalists in this State—will attempt, by congressional action to prevent this Election. In the event that the traitors in Congress, and the "loyal leagues" of Philadelphia, recognize the situation as a fixed fact, and consent, that—in pursuance of the law, the Constitution, the decisions of the Supreme Court, and the principles of common justice—the majority may rule in Baltimore, we take it for granted that the conservative candidate will be elected by a much larger majority than any man ever received at the hands of that people, for any office.

We are anxious for an election in Baltimore at which all citizens can vote. And we hope an effort will be made to bring out the full strength of both parties fairly—no more no less—in order that the real political status of Baltimore may be known North and South, East and West. Let an overwhelming vote indicate the deep interest which Baltimore feels in the immediate restoration of the Union, as it was, before the war for the Union—so called—commenced; and let it, also, express her reverence for the Constitution, as it was before it was trampled and torn by radical traitors—and, then, thatched and patched all over with the negro—whom they are seeking to destroy as well as the late masters of the negro, in order, that treacherous, hypocritical, self-righteous puritanism may possess, enjoy and rule the land.

At the beginning of the "John Brown raid" on the Constitution, the Mayor of Baltimore—Thomas Swann, our loyal Governor, and now United States Senator elect—in a message to the city Council declared, that "Baltimore was a southern city, having her trade and commerce chiefly with the South, and, that Maryland was a southern State, linked to her southern sister States by the ties of consanguinity and similarity of social institutions;" and, although, when the issue which he himself presented—came, he joined the John Brownites in making war on "our southern sister States" yet, let the world know, now, by your votes that he then, as Mayor did not more truly utter the sentiment of Baltimore, and Maryland, than he does now in opposing the present schemes of the Brownites in their efforts to rob the southern people of the last vestige of those inalienable rights, which their ancestors, under the lead of Washington, fought for through the dust and smoke, the toil and blood of a seven years war against the arbitrary assumptions of a king and parliament. Let Baltimore define her position in thunder tones in the ears of the usurpers at Washington. Millions of honest patriots will rejoice!

John Bell and his Friends,

"Hon. John Bell is ruralizing near the Cumberland Iron works, Tennessee."

If the desertion of principle by the men who voted for John Bell for President in 1860, in the States south of the Potomac had been as disgraceful and as general, as in this State, we have no doubt the bitterest thought that would follow him to his grave would be, that he had ever permitted such a set of knaves to bespatter him with their praises; knowing as he must now know, that their sole object in urging his claims to the Presidency was the spoils of office.

He saw them during his candidacy parading the fact, that he was the owner of 200 slaves, and arguing thence, that he was entirely trustworthy and reliable as an upholder and defender of the constitutional rights of the Southern States. He saw his followers in this State pointing the finger of scorn at any man in a Southern State who would vote for Lincoln, the abolitionist, and, yet, afterwards when Lincoln was elected by the vote of Northern abolitionists he saw these same pretended friends of his playing sycophant to Lincoln, intriguing for offices under him, becoming his eulogists and uniting with Lincoln and his original abolition supports in robbing him (John Bell) of his "two hundred slaves."

How different has been the course of the Breckinridge Democracy of Maryland? They did not parade their candidate as a slave holder, in order to prove to the people of Maryland—first—that for that reason he could be trusted as a true friend of the South; nor secondly, that their candidate being a slave-holder their orthodoxy on the slavery question was beyond impeachment. No! no! the men in Maryland who voted for John C. Breckinridge did so on their well settled convictions of the principles of our constitutional government. They never went over to Lincoln, the enemy of the old constitution, adopted his principles, extolled his patriotism, nor proclaimed him "the government" and then battened on the crums which fell from his table.

But it is a grateful duty we perform in stating, for the information of the future historian, that there are thousands of true, honest incorruptible men in Maryland, who voted for John Bell—now "rualizing near the Cumberland Irons works, Tenn."—who never abandoned the faith that was in them when they voted for him for President, nor flattered Lincoln with the idea that he was "the government" and could do no wrong—for the spoils of office. Honest men who voted for John Bell are now working shoulder to shoulder with the Breckinridge Democracy for the restoration of the Union, and the preservation of all that can be saved of our republican form of government.

Gold Pens.

We are informed by the Examiner that the Legislature, at the commencement of the session, in spite of the opposition of the "radical members," passed a resolution requiring the librarian to furnish each member with a gold pen and pen-knife; and our neighbor seems surprised that we do not denounce the "rebel members" for passing such a resolution. Well, we will state our view of the question. If the members do not use quill pens, then we do not think they ought to vote themselves pen-knives; for, if these pen-knives are not used in the public service, the members ought not to make the State pay for them. If gold pens were furnished at a moderate cost, and for actual use, upon the ground of convenience and economy, then we see no objection to voting themselves gold pens instead of gray goose quills, which would necessitate the use of the pen knives. But the Examiner admits, that "when the Legislature was in the possession of Union men," they too voted themselves gold pens and pen-knives. This shows the evil effects of bad example.

The Examiner says:—"The CITIZEN was particularly loud in its denunciations of the outrage during the campaign." We do not remember. Will our neighbor please quote our denunciations, as a reminder. We assure him that we will now apply the same denunciations to the "rebel members" who have "possession of the Legislature." We fear, however, that it is the change of the political power in the Legislature, that most distresses the Examiner, and not the gold pens. But two wrongs never make a right; and, if the loyal Union men "when in possession of the Legislature"—especially as they were an "oligarchical minority," placed "in possession" by Lincoln's bayonets—did vote themselves gold pens and pen knives, that is no reason why THOSE WHO ARE REPRESENTING THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE should, even in so small a matter, follow the example of Lincoln's tools.

Publish It.

The Examiner says: "The ungentlemanly attack of the CITIZEN on our representatives in the general assembly is characteristic of the man." We respectfully submit for the consideration of the accomplished editor of the Examiner; that what is gentlemanly or ungentlemanly is a matter of taste, custom, fashion or opinion; and, as we do not consider the editor of the Examiner infallible in the premises, we appeal from his decision to the judgement of his readers, and therefore, respectfully request him to publish the "ungentlemanly attack."

The fact is we know so little of, and think so little about "our representatives," that we have not said a word about them unless the Examiner regards the 'two orators' as the only representatives from this county. The only reference we have made was to two of "our representatives"—Mr. Gorsuch and Mr. Buhrman—and we invite the Examiner to publish the "attack," so called, for the information of "the loyal citizens of the county." We have no doubt they do "represent the views and wishes of the loyal citizens of the county"—and we do not hesitate to admit that the "representatives" and their "loyal" constituents are entitled to the same amount of respect for political consistency and "loyal" patriotism—for, from being the champions of John Bell, the Tenn. slave-holder, they have become the idolatrous admirers of the ranting abolition Sumner of Massachusetts.

The New York Herald, speaking of Mr. Loan, and his attack upon President Johnson charging him with complicity in the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, says: "In all legislative bodies weak men are to be found who are restless under the obscure position to which they are naturally assigned, and who are prepared to go any length in order to create a sensation and bring themselves into temporary notice." One thing, however, we should think President Johnson would feel, and regret in this connection, and that his own proclamation, charging Jefferson Davis and others with the same thing with which he is now charged! He must now see the folly which in a time of public excitement, induced him to listen to the advice of those then about him, and to consent to that, one of the weakest and worst of his sins of commission, since he assumed the duties of President of the United State.—Alex. Gaz.

LOCAL NEWS.

WARD MEETING.

The conservative voters of the 6th Ward will meet at John Haups on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a suitable person to represent said Ward in the Common Council.

PUBLIC SALES.—The attention of our readers is directed to the following sales to take place:

On Saturday, (to-morrow) the 2nd inst., at 1 o'cl'k, p. m. Joseph Gaver and Samuel Dutro, exec'rs, will sell at public sale at Mr. Jos. Brown's Store in Myersville, a farm containing 111 acres, situated 3 miles west of said place, improved with a log dwelling house and all necessary out-buildings.

On the same day, at 2 o'clock, p. m., in front of Dill House, Frederick J. Nelson, Esq., Trustee, will sell a house and lot situated on E. Patrick street.

Same day and hour, at the Dill House, Mr. Jacob Nussbaum will sell a valuable little farm, situated 4 miles west of Frederick, well improved.

Same day at 10 o'clock, a. m., in front of Dill House, Wm. J. Ross, Esq., executor of Dr. Wm. B. Tyler, dec'd., will sell the late residence of said deceased.

Same day and hour, on the premises, Wm. P. Maulsby, jr., Esq., will sell the house and lot in which Mrs. Catharine Porter, dec'd., formerly resided, situated on Middle Alley next adjoining to E. Fourth street, Frederick.

Thursday, the 7th inst., at 9 o'clock, a. m., John A. Lynch, Esq., Trustee, will sell at the residence of A. P. Kessler, on the road leading from Frederick to Harper's Ferry, a mountain lot of 9 acres, together with a one-story log house, lot of live stock, farming implements, and household furniture.

"NEGRO SHOT—A CASE FOR INVESTIGATION."—The case referred to in this weeks Maryland Union, under the above caption, has duly undergone an investigation, as we are informed on the authority of one who knows. The case was heard before Justice Isaac Davis, assisted by Justice Robert Phelps. Mr. Smith was represented by F. J. Nelson, Esq. We are authorized to say, that there was not produced before the examining magistrate, one tittle of evidence tending to connect Mr. Smith with the shooting of the negro; although, against the protest of Mr. Nelson, a number of negroes were examined upon the part of the State.—The only white man examined testified that at the time of the supposed shooting of the negro, Mr. Smith was in the store. What the real merits of this case are we do not pretend to know, but certainly not one particle of evidence—if our information be correct—was adduced upon the part of the State connecting Mr. Smith with this shooting business.

ARREST OF A MAIL ROBBER.—We understand that John W. Linthicum arrested in the woods near Urbana, on Monday evening last, a man named H'y Burns, charged with having robbed the Post office at Harpers Ferry, on Friday night last. Mr. Linthicum brought his prisoner before Justice Simmons of this city, who committed the party to the county jail.

A HISTORY.—The Philadelphia National Publishing Co. announce that they are about to publish a work by Alexander H. Stephens, entitled "A History of the Late War between the States—tracing its Origin, Causes and Results."

BASE BALL CLUB.—The members of the Mountain City Base Ball Club are requested to meet at their hall on Monday evening, the 4th inst., to elect delegates to the Base Ball Convention, to be held in Baltimore, on the 20th inst.

MARKET AT 8 O'CLOCK.—On and after tomorrow morning the 2nd. inst., our City Markets will open at 8 O'clock, until the first Market day in April next.

GIVE US GOOD MEN.—We hope our friends in the different wards will make it a point to select the very best men as candidates for Common Council. If a contest is proposed, care should be taken in the selection of Candidates.

DISTRUCTFUL FIRE.—On Friday night last the Hagerstown Mail Office, the Eagle Hotel and several stores adjoining were destroyed by fire. Most of the property, however, was covered by insurance.

SHOULDER DISLOCATED.—We regret to learn that our friend W. T. Preston Esq. had the misfortune to have his shoulder dislocated a few days since by being thrown from his sleigh.

RENOVATION.—How often do we come in contact with persons who are always complaining of ill health! They never feel well; are either weak, debilitated nervous, or have no appetite. We should say to this class, procure a bottle of HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS use it according to the directions, and you will soon be restored to health and vigor. For sale by all druggists. They are not a beverage.

A NEGRO BARBER MADE A CORPORATOR.—Last week, while a bill was going through the House of Representatives to incorporate the Washington Transportation and Cole Co., Mr. Wentworth, of Ill., "moved to strike out the name of Charles Knapp, Treasurer of the Johnson Committee, and to substitute for it the name of John J. Johnson, the colored barber of the House, who was well known to all the members, and who was a man of capital and respectability. [Laughter] The amendment was adopted by the House.' Mr. Knapp is a large manufacturer, and one of the prominent men of Washington.—John J. Johnson is the negro barber who shaves, curls and perfumes, the members of Congress. The Mongrels seem to have a grudge against everybody who is white who will not degrade themselves to a level with negroes.

The New York Tribune says: "It is not much to be a Republican to-day. We take with us now the drift wood and scum." Is that the name you call those Democrats of easy virtue who have assisted you to keep power? But we are glad the editor of the Tribune highly appreciates the stuff of which his party is made—drift wood and scum.

BREVITIES.

WHAT IS PROGRESSIVE AGRICULTURE?—The New York Observer answers this question in a few words, but very comprehensively, as follows:

"Under its influence spring tastely constructed and convenient dwellings, adorned with shrubs and flowers, and beautiful within with the smiles of happy wives, tidy children in the lap of thoughtful age—broad hearts and acts, as well as words of welcome. Progressive agriculture builds stables for cattle and raises roots to feed them. It grafts wild apple trees by the meadow with pipins or greening; it sets out new orchards and takes care of the old ones. It drains low lands, cuts down bushes, buys a mower, houses tools and wagons, keeps good fences and practices soiling. It makes hens lay, chickens live, and prevents swine from rooting up meadows. Progressive agriculture keeps on hand plenty of dry fuel and brings in the oven wood for the women. It plows deeply, sows plentifully, harrows evenly, and prays for the blessings of Heaven."

AN UNFORTUNATE YOUNG LADY.—Miss Jarrett, of New Jersey, has had a persevering run of ill luck. In 1863 she dislocated her knee; in 1864 a careless man punched out her right eye with an umbrellat in December, 1865, she was run over by a sleigh and badly injured. A fortnight ago her pocket was picked of $150 on a Brooklyn ferry-boat. Going back to hunt the money, a crowd of skylarking boys accidentally knocked her down, dislocating her hip and breaking a rib.

It is estimated that between four and five thousand people crossed East river to and from Brooklyn on the ice this morning. Several ladies also ventured and were successful. No accident occurred. A tug was conveniently placed for use in case of emergency.—The river was not frozen over but crossing was effected on large cakes of floating ice, which only lasted an hour, when the fun suddenly ceased. The feat had not been performed for fifteen years. The piers and house-tops of both cities were crowded with spectators witnessing the unusual spectacle.

The Secretary of the Treasury is said to favor the proposition, now before a committee of Congress, to substitute loan certificates at a lower rate of interest for the compound interest notes now held by the National Banks as a part of their reserve. It is proposed that the amount of these loan certificates to be held by the Banks in question shall be equal to half their usual reserve found, and that they shall be made convertible into legal-tenders at ten days notice.

The act of Congress requiring stamps on State legal processes has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Alabama. The same court has also decided that the representatives of Alabama are not liable to loss on Confederate investments—the State having been a de facto government under the Confederacy.

A new appropriation bill for the Negro Bureau calls for $38,000,000.—This is a tax upon the laboring whites to support idle negroes, who were self-supporting before the Abolitionists got hold of them. As this awful tax is brought upon us by a purely Republican measure, in strict justice that party ought to be made to pay it all.

The Washington Republican says that, according to the reports from 1,500 National Banks for the last quarter about half the banks have declared semi-annual dividends of five, six eight ten, and some as high as fifteen per cent., besides carrying from ten to twenty per cent, of net profit to their surplus funds.

THE WASTE OF WAR.—The immense amount of arms and ammunition used during the war by the Union armies are shown by a report just made from the Ordnance Bureau, at Washington. By this report it appears that from January 1st, 1861, to June 30th, 1866, there were provided for the military service 7,892 cannon; 11,787 artillery carriages; 6,333,295 artillery projectiles, shot and shell; 6,530,909 pounds of grape and canister shot; 2,862,177 pounds of fixed artillery ammunition; 3,477,655 small arms, muskets, rifles, carbines and pistols; 544,475 swords, sabres and lances, 2,146,175 complete sets of infantry accoutrements; 539,371 complete sets of cavalry accoutrements; 539,544 complete sets of horse equipments; 28,164 sets of two-horse artillery harness; 732,526 horse blankets; 1,022,176,474 cartridges for small arms 1,220,555,435 percussion caps for small arms; 10,281,305 cannon primers; 4,226,377 fuses for shell; 26,440,054 pounds of gunpowder; 6,395,152 pounds of nitre, and 90,416,296 pounds of lead in pigs and bullets, besides immense quantities of parts for repairing and making good the complete articles which were damaged, lost or destroyed in the service.

EXTRAORDINARY LONGEVITY.—The Richmond Examiner contains the following;

"Aunt Milly," a colored woman, formerly belonging to Capt. James M. Harris, residing near Rockfish Gap, in Nelson county, Va., died at the residence of that gentleman on the 7th inst., in the 135th year of her age. She was born in 1731, in the beginning of the reign of George II. She was a contemporary of Pope, Swift and Bolinbroke—though probably she never heard of them. A colored woman, named Caroline James, died in Richmond on Tuesday, at the advanced age of 130 years. She was married but once, and was the mother of thirty-five children. She was a slave until the evacuation of Richmond, and was the property at that time of Mr. C. Benjamin Pitcher.

THE PRICE OF PORK ought to recede, for the Western hog supply of the present season, down to January 12th, is announced to be 551,523 hogs shipped packed and butchered, as compared with 453,457 for the same period last year—an increase of nearly 100,000 hogs.

If you are sick, the probability is that the root of your suffering is in the stomach. From a weak stomach proceed dyspepsia, languor, oppression in the diaphragm, jaundice, headache, nausea, bodily weakness, dimness of sight, heartburn, costiveness, dysentary, and a legion of other tormenting diseases. Indigestion produces thin blood, and thereby destroys the strength and vigor of the system. To restore the tone of the stomach and enable it to throw off, and dismiss for ever, all these tormenting and dangerous complaints, nothing is necessary but a persevering use of Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, for the Proprietors Jones & Evans. There is no mistake, no failure in their sanative effects.

An important fact in connection with Hoofland's Bitters is, that they will not create a disease worse than that from which they relieve you, by fostering a taste for alcholic stimulants. Unfortunately, there is a glut of deleterious preparations in the market, composed mainly of Jersey lightning which are highly intoxicating, and therefore useless and dangerous. Beware of them. Take only Hoofland's German Bitters, which is

Notice is hereby given, that the Co-Partnership heretofore existing between RICE & BIRELY, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. Persons having claims against the late firm are requested to present the same for settlement. The business of the firm will be settled by either of the undersigned.
WILLIAM P. RICE,
Jan. 22, 1867. P. H. C. BIRELY.

The business will be conducted in all its branches, at the old stand, corner of Market and Second Streets, by the subscriber, who returns his thanks for the liberal patronage extended the firm, and hopes by strict attention to business to merit a continuance of the same.

British Periodicals.

The London Quarterly Review (Con).
The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
The Westminster Review (Radical).
The North British Review (Free Church).
AND
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

These foreign periodicals are regularly republished by us in the same style as heretofore. Those who know them and who have long subscribed to them, need no reminder; those whom the civil war of the last few years has deprived of their once welcome supply of the best periodical literature, will be glad to have them again within their reach; and those who may never yet have met with them, will assuredly be well pleased to receive accredited reports of the progress of European science and literature.
