Voice of Experience Signs 2-Year Contract

The Voice of Experience has signed to broadcast for two more years under his present sponsorship. At the conclusion of that contract he will have been broadcasting five years under the same sponsor.

There is one unusual feature in the contract. Frequently artists sign contracts which are announced as being for two, three or many more years. However, ordinarily, clauses in those contracts allow them to be terminated at the end of any 13-week period. The Voice's contract can be terminated only at the end of a year's broadcasting.

Political theory is coming steadily into educational practice. Everywhere there is a heightened realization of the need to make the school develop the national ideals.—Isaac Kandel.

In the last resort nothing is ridiculous except the fear of being so.—Henri Fauconnier.

Obituary

THOMAS RIDGELY HOPPER

Thomas Ridgely Hopper, youngest son of the late Daniel C. and Evalina Hopper, formerly of Centreville, died suddenly Saturday, January 25, at the Bristol Hotel in Bristol, Tennessee. He was 63 years old.

Mr. Hopper was born at "Warner Hall", Gloucester County, Va., during a seven-year period of residence by his parents in Virginia. He spent the greater part of his boyhood with his parents at Mount Pleasant, the Old Hopper home in Centreville, and in early manhood was assistant to his father during the latter's term as postmaster of Centreville.

During his life at Mount Pleasant Mr. Hopper cultivated a wide circle of friendships in Queen Anne's county. He was a brother of Charles C. Hopper of Baltimore, formerly of Centreville, and a cousin of Colonel W. Hopper Gibson.

Leaving Centreville, Mr. Hopper entered business and devoted most of his years to his occupation as a salesman with headquarters in Chicago, New York and Baltimore. He had never married.

Mr. Hopper's body was transferred from Bristol to Baltimore where interment took place in the Hopper burial plot in Greenmount cemetery on January 28.

MRS. CHARLES IRELAND

Mrs. Leonora Ireland, widow of the late Charles Ireland, died at the home of her son, W. Edgar Ireland, at Federalsburg about 5:30 Sunday morning, January 26. She had been paralyzed for two years and also suffered from heart trouble. Had she lived four days more she would have seen her 63d birthday.

Mrs. Ireland was a native of Queen Anne's county and before her marriage was Leonora Quillen. Until the death of her husband who was a highly respected farmer of this county she was a resident of Queen Anne's.

For several years Mrs. Ireland has lived with her son at Federalsburg. She was a member of Burrsville Methodist Episcopal Church in Caroline county.

She is survived by two sons, W. Edgar Ireland of Federalsburg and Charles H. Ireland of Centreville, and two daughters, Mrs. Fred C. Quimby of Centreville and Mrs. William J. Eckstorm of Stevensville. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. M. F. Blunt of Grasonville, and four brothers, William Quillen of Wilmington, Benjamin Quillen of Baltimore, Alexander Quillen of New York City, and R. L. Quillen of Centreville.

Funeral services were held from Ruthsburg Methodist Protestant Church Tuesday afternoon, January 28, at 2 o'clock with Rev. L. Colvin Randall officiating.

The bearers were William Jester, Anderson Redden, Samuel Ireland, J. R. Richardson, G. W. Morris and William Binebrink.

Interment was in Chesterfield cemetery.

At the rate people ordinarily walk it will require nearly three hours to stroll across the new San Franciso-Oakland bridge which with its approaches is to be 8¼ miles long.

AVOID UGLY PIMPLES

Does a pimply face embarrass you? Get a package of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights, if you are like thousands of others.

Help cleanse the bowels with Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and mild instead of severe and irritating.

Thousands who take Olive Tablets are never cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, dull complexion caused by constipation.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound; known by their olive color.

Dr Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with constipation and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two at bedtime for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c, 30, 60c.
