

VOL 65

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1900.

10 PAGES

TESTIVAL!

CTILL POND M. E. CHURCH

in the HALL, the large building nearly op-Friday and Saturday Eve's, Oct. 19th & 20th. All are cordially invited.

TESTIVAL & SUIPER! At Union M. E. Church.

old M. E. Church building on FRIDAY and SATURDAY EVENINGS, Nov. 2nd and 3rd. Everybody is invited.

TESTIVAL AND SUPPER

hold a Festival and Supper at the church on FRIDAY and SATURDAY, October 26th and 27th. Supper each evening. Everybody welcome. Come and enjoy a good time.

DESTIVAL AND SUPPER.

BENEFIT of NEW M. E. CHURCH. I. O. O. F., Chesapeake and K. of P. and Rock Hall Camp, P. O. S of A., and others will LEARY'S Lawn at Rock Hall on FRIDA and SATURDAY Evenings, Oct. 19 and 20th, for benefit of new Rock Hall M. E. Church. Supper 40 cents.

CHARLES

TUESDAY

MUSICAL RURAL COMEDY DRAMA

---IN THE--

IN THREE ACTS written by C. W. Hancock. Supported by a Talented Company. A Metropoliton Production.

The Celebrated HAYSEED Quartet. 150 LAUGHS in 150 MINUTES.

Squashtown Band and Orchestra. Street Parade in Afternoon.

Seats now on sale at Stam's Drug Store.

MUSIC!

Queen Street, or the home of the pupil in Town. TERMS $5.00 PER QUARTER.

—ON THE OLD SITE OF—

MILLER BROS. FOR RENT: ROCK HALL

WILL COMMENCE BUSINESS AGAIN

the fact that I expect to be ready for business GHAS. L. PETTIS & CO. I especially desire to call your attention to on the above date and will certainly be pleased to see all our friends and patrons of the past and endeavor earnestly to make you feel at home. I shall be in a position to sell as cheap as first class goods can be sold, having made arrangements through the help of some kind friends to buy goods for cash, therefore getting them as low as they can be bought and will endeavor to exercise such judgment in my selections of stock as shall prove beneficial to you as well as myself. My stock will not be large at first, but I shall do my best to make and keep it fresh and new by rapid selling and buying.

Remember, circumstances of the past compel me to make my terms cash, but I shall try to make it to your interest to bring your cash. Please remember I will be ready for you on and after Wednesday next, Oct. 24th, and extend to each and every one of you a kind in vitation to come and see me at the Old Stand in Rock Hall. Yours sincerely.

MARION T. MILLER.

with us with You will have a $1.00 sense of independence and luxury in the possession

A Savings Bank Account,

Interest paid on deposits.

Kent County Savings Bank OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Open every business day from 9 a.m. to 3 p m. Your account is respectfully solicited. JOHN K. ALDRIDGE, President. WM. F. RUSSELL, Cashier.

RESPASSING FORBIDDEN.

ALL PERSONS are forbidden against the Almshouse farm. By order of Trustees. o20-3t. J.THOS. BLACKISTON, Tenant.

TOTICE TO GUNNERS.

W. E. DEFORD, HORACE CONSTABLE

MAUTION NOTICE.

oct.20-3t.

THOMAS SKIPPER.

MAUTION TO GUNNERS.

ALL PERSONS are hereby forewarned against trespassing with dewise upon the farm occupied of the under GUNNERS AND OTHERS are hereby cautioned against trespassing with dog, gun Members and friends of Maxwell Lodge, the undersigned as we shall prosecute all such after this date. JOHN G. WESTCOTT, WALTER S. TREW.

All persons indebted to the undersigned will please pay immediately. Otherwise I shall proceed to collect according to law. B. FRANK PORTER, ROCK HALL. oct. 20-3t.

TAMILIES WANTED.

MILLS. Boarders unless experienced Cotton Mills need not apply.

DLANTS

hinese Sacred Lillies, now in stock. For sale by oct13-3t.

A. C. HURLOCK. Apply for terms to C. H. HURLOCK, Chestertown, Md.

next year. Apply to JAMES. H. BAKER,

TOR RENT FOR 1901.

sary Out-Buildings at Pomona, Md., for rent. Inquire on premises or address, 816 Aisquith Lt., Baltimore, Md

and every convenience

H. MEETEER WALLIS.

Georgetown, Kent county, Md. A. P. PRETTYMAN.

TATTS BOARDING HOUSE for Rent.

For the year 1901. Apply to a4-tf. THOMAS W. ELIASON,

CASH

Produce Buyers, Dressed Poultry, Game Furs,

Eggs and Butter, 204 DUANE STREET, NEW YORK.

Fall 1900. Winter 1901

READY 16 > MADE MEASURE

First in Quality, Style Workmanship and Fit.

JOHN R. ROLLISON

Representing WANAMAKER & BROWN. OF PHILADELPHIA, PA. Presents compliments and invites you to examine complete line of the newest fabric just arrived. "HESS SHOES" and Winter Styles to select Before purchasing come in and let's talk the matter over.

Very truly, yours,

JOHN R. ROLLISON, 225 High St., Chestertown, Md. Second door below Savings Bank.

AROUSED

Importance of the Great Issues!

SPLENDID SPEECHES by ABLE MEN!

AND MAKES A NOTABLE SPEECH!

Senator Bacon, of Georgia; Col. Wood, of Frederick; Col. E. H. Brown and Senator Moore Ably Discuss the Issues!

enthusiasm great, and the speaking ex- will address you this afternoon, offered a resalmost—at least for a great many years -every speaker advertised to be present was on hand.

R. D. Hynson, Esq., called the meeting to order and announced the following officers:

President-HON. JOSEPH A. WICKES. VICE-PRESIDENTS: 1st District-Capt. Andrew Woodall, Adam F. Huey, John P. Ahern. nd District - Alday Clements, Wm. Medders, John M. Comegys. 3rd District-James T. Ireland, Thos. Gale, 4th District-Samuel Vannort, John Bell, 5th District-Richard W. Jones, Jamuel Wickes, James M. Wood. 6th District-George E. Noland, W. Tylden Brice, Harry Willis.

7th District-George Beck, Wm. E. DeFord, Capt. Robert Jones. 1st District-Walter McIntyre. 2nd District-Woodland Hurtt. 3rd District-Capt. George M. Moore. th District-James W. Crouch. 5th District-Marion T. Miller.

7th District-Roland Shriver. When the distinguished ex-judge advanced to the front he was greeted with for their liberty. Already this war has cost a storm of hearty applause which con- our government two hundred millions of dollars and before those people can in splendid voice and physical condition by tourse thus put by the Presiand every word of his earnest speech was heard with breathless interest.

HON. JOSEPH A. WICKES' SPEECH.

FELLOW CITIZENS:-Having been selected by you to preside over this meeting I thank forming new States to be admitte you for the honor you have conferred upon

For thirty years my duties were of such a character that I abstained from all active participation in political affairs. Under that habit and training I ceased to be a partisan, ing to give credit to the Republican party a military government as despotic and arb for any measure which they proposed, which in my judgment was conducive to the public welfare. But my confidence in the mass of the Democratic party, and my loyalty to feat which the American people should elect him President of the United States. have controlled and directed its policy since days of Thomas Jefferson, its great upon the success of those principles depends the welfare and happiness of the American Mr. McKinley is our only means people. But when there has been a radical from the perilous policy since its foundation, and those in control of of that policy, and an encouragement to the government are pursuing a course not prosecute a war as cruel as it is unjust. Twenty-five Rooms. Electric Lighted. sanctioned by the constitution of the United States, and if persisted in must prove dan- The corrupt and oppressive Trusts, bad as gerous if not destructive to our free institutions, it becomes the duty of every citizen to great evil, which threatens the very life of do everything in his power be it much or lit. the Republic. It is not my purpose at this tle to arouse the people to a sense of their sues which are soon to be decided by the danger, that they may at the ballot box put a people, but merely in a brief manner to call stop to those measures and defeat the party to your attention, and to impress upon you. that is responsible for them. For this reason question to which I have referred, which in I am here today, to participate with you in | my opinion overshadows all others, and upon this meeting.

For the first time in the history of our tions, and, it may be, the Liberty of the country, we find ourselves in possession of a people thousand miles from our shore; inhabited by | tives. eight or ten millions of people, a majority of that our object in prosecuting the war with take advantage of any careless or indis-Mr. McKinley had declared that the war was the right man to represent the people of not waged for the purpose of acquiring ad- this district in the 57th Congress. ditional territory, but on the contrary, that The audience heartily greeted Senator such action on our part would be "criminal Moore's strong points and gave him a aggression;" yet when the commissioners, rousing endorsement at the close of his appointed by him met the Spanish Commis- address. MADE.TO- sioners in Paris, to make a treaty of peace, he directed them to demand of Spain the surrender and cession of the Philippine one of the ablest American Senator's Islands. Spain yielded and upon the pay- and a brilliant Democratic orator, was ment of twenty millions of dollars she ceded next introduced and held his large audthose islands to the United States. By that | ience in rapt attention through his full | treaty no provision was made for the inde- hour's speech. He did not say a word pendence of those islands, or to secure the about the money question knowing this personal and political rights of the people; to be a dead issue, but pictured in glowbut they became the absolute property of the | ing colors the fearful peril to the nation | United States, not for the purpose of form- from the McKinley-Republican colonial ing new states to be admitted into the Union, policy, and the direful inroads of trusts. or to enjoy those rights or that protection of person and property which the Constitution guarantees to the humblest citizen, but as subjects of a conquered province, to be held than that of the afternoon. Stam's Hall as they are now held, taxed and governed by was crowded. Col. Edwin H. Brown the President with the army of which he is was the first speaker and for a full hour commander in chief and over which he has held the audience in close attention to supreme control.

This is shown by the platform of the party of the people in the next Congress. and his letter of acceptance, neither of

The Democratic Mass meeting in which gives any promise of independence to Chestertown last Tuesday was a grand the islands. After the treaty with Spain was the distinguished Senator from Georgia, who success. The attendance was large, the the distinguished Senator from Georgia, who cellent. For the first time in history olution, declaring that the purpose of this government was to give independence to the Philippine Islands, and that resolution was defeated by the Republican Senate. After Admiral Dewey destroyed the Spanish fleet in bay of Manila, the President through his agents, induced the leaders of the Philippine army to unite with our forces to drive the Spaniards from those Islands. army. The Spaniards were expelled and peace was declared. But those unfortunate people soon discovered that they had only not improved, but, on the contrary, that the government of this great republic was the tyranny of Spain, under which they had languished for more than three centuries. From that day to the present the President than because they ask to be let alone and that they be allowed to govern themselves We now have an army of sixty thousand men on those islends whose daily pastime seems to be to slaughter men, women and children as they would wild beasts. Sixty thousand tion of the constitution shows that the terri-

This is the great and supreme issue which is now to be decided by the American people. safety and preservation of our free institu-large foreign territory, the Philippine Isl-ands, situated in the Pacific Ocean and seven cratic party for the House of Representa-

Hon. John P. Moore, candidate for whom are Malay Indians, a dark race and Congress, followed in a masterly address totally uncivilized; and the question of first of about forty minutes. Senator Moore importance is, what disposition shall we had carefully written out his speech, make of them? and delivered it verbatim, knowing that We declared to the nations of the world the enemy would only be too glad to island independence and self government. now before the people proves him to be

THE GREAT GEORGIAN SPEAKS NEXT.

Hon. Augustus O. Bacon, of Georgia, NIGHT MEETING.

The night meeting was even larger his eloquent words. Maryland will be That such is the policy of Mr. McKinley and honored by having this able lawyer, the Republican party there can be no doubt | brilliant orator and true representative Continued on 4th Page.

JAMES D. LUCAS.

LOTHING

We open our line for the FALL 1900 and WINTER 1901 with much the same feeling of confidence that a fellow experiences when he knows he has a good thing.

many good things grouped together that it is impossible for us to tell you about them all in this column, but your attention is especially directed to our grand collection of

Men's, Boys' & Children's · · · Clothing · · ·

Which is noticeable not only for its elegance, but its cheapness in price, and great variety as well.

BIG MEN, LITTLE MEN, FAT MEN and LEAN MEN

all get fit at our store.

Our Hat, Underwear, Neckwear and Glove Departments are all filled to overflowing with good things. Anything you want in these lines, you may reasonably expect to find here.

JAMES D. LUCAS

THE CLOTHIER,

Directly Opposite Stam's Hall, Chestertown.