Hubbard's Fertilizers!

After a successful experience of 60 seasons in the manufacture of Fertilizers, we confidently refer you to our record, and earnestly solicit your patronage, and the fact we do more business all the time certainly ought to convince the most skeptical that our goods have superior quality and absolute uniformity and purity.

Are you going to grow Potatoes? Well, we manufacture a Special Potato goods that has been used in New Jersey for 20 years in competition with Mapes' and goods that cost $10.00 more per ton. This goods runs 10 per cent. Potash, and there is no better made, and one man from New Jersey has his orders in already for over 60 tons. Try it.

To Top Dress Your Hay this month. We have a cheap goods for this that works wonders.

There Are Your Peach Trees that should be helped, and you should use our FRUIT GROWER. We have told you before of its merits, and so can those who have used it. Just think, two cents per tree to dress them.

Asparagus—Are you going to do anything to it this spring? If so, we have a specially made goods for this purpose. Such men as James Bell, H. H. Klinefeter, C. H. Crew, John P. Nicholson and scores of others can tell you what it has done for them. It has Nitrate and fish as the source of ammonia, and runs high in Potash and Phosphoric Acid.

For Corn, use our Special CORN PHOSPHATE. Corn is a good price! You fertilize your wheat, why not your corn? it will pay. Mr. Ham. Crew says our Corn Phosphate beats them all. We sell hundreds of farmers this goods every year. Mr. I. R. Leaverton used last year several hundred dollars worth with the greatest success and buys again this year.

FOR TOMATOES

Well, you have heard of our PEERLESS TOMATO goods. It is a wonder. We confidently believe that we sell more Tomato goods than any concern in the country. Don't mean we sell more Phosphate, but more Tomato Fertilizer. Mr. C. R. Atkinson says Numsen claimed best tomatoes brought to his cannery was grown with this goods. He paid him $287.00 from 4 acres. Mr. D. F. Louse says one ton of this goods alongside an $18.00 brought him $96.00 more. Smith, Rouse and Webster, the large canners of Belair, heard of its merits, and bought of us.

We sold Baker & Morgan on one occasion $1200.00. We have several $1,000 customers in Delaware. Mr. J. R. Leager says he got 13 tons to the acre. Mr. Benj. Moore says he got nearly 13 tons, and that you could stand off a hundred yards and see the difference. Mr. G. W. Collins has bought as high as 50 tons per year, says his men on the choice farms got from 12 to 16 tons per acre. Mr. W. T. Money, unsolicited, said to us some time ago: I would like to know how Peerless is made, for I honestly think it is the best Phosphate I ever saw.

Now if you want to sow OATS, or top dress your STRAWBERRIES, plant SWEET POTATOES or need a goods for TRUCK or want anything in the FERTILIZER line please call on or correspond with us before making your purchase.

FOR THE CHILDREN

An Astonishing Egg.

Take a raw egg and empty it by means of pin holes. As soon as the inside of it is dry fill it quarter full of fine sand and then with a little wax seal up the holes. It now looks like an ordinary egg.

The next time you have boiled eggs for breakfast take your prepared egg and substitute it for the one that is given you.

Then you may safely announce that your egg is ready to obey your commands.

You can place it at will in any position you desire. It will stand on the edge of a knife or on the rim of a glass, no matter whether you put it endways or sideways.

In the last case you will cause more astonishment because it will seem to trespass against the laws of gravity. The only precaution you need observe is to tap the egg gently, so as to cause the sand it contains to settle each time at the bottom, and thus it will assume any position you wish.

A Cat of the Snows.

In the highland of Tibet and in the cold and snowy steppes between the country north of Himalaya and south of Siberia there is a beautiful cat with a silvery fur and a glorious bushy tail that is marked with many coal black rings. Exquisite shadings of chocolate and yellow are drawn in fine lines over her here and there, making her probably the prettiest of the small cat animals.

In general appearance and size she is like our pussies, but she is a savage little thing, and so far the only specimens that have been brought into Europe or America have been dead ones, for no hunter has been able to take any alive.

This cat is called the manul cat, and now that something is known about the Tibetan country it is probable that the pretty creatures will become residents of the big zoological gardens before long, and they may turn out not to be so hard to tame after all.

Fainting Animals.

A little gray dog tumbled headlong into the area of a house in a west end square, says the Baltimore Herald, and the maid who happened to be standing there closed the gate.

When the dog saw she was safe from her pursuers—two huge bull terriers—she toppled over in a dead faint. The other servants, who crowded out into the area to help bring the little animal to, derided the assertion, but a veterinary surgeon who finally joined the group said there was nothing preposterous about it.

"Of course she fainted," he said. "Lots of animals faint. Cats and dogs and even more stolid animals keel over in moments of fear and exhaustion."

Didn't Come Back.

A schoolmaster, says Stray Stories, has concluded that it is not safe to teach proverbs to very young children.

"Now, boys, always remember," he said one day, "that the early bird always catches the worm."

Next morning a small boy toed the line with a tear stained face.

"What's the matter, Tommy?" asked the master.

"Please, sir, you said that it was the early bird that got the worm."

"Yes."

"Well, father thrashed me!"

"What for, my boy?"

"'Cos, sir, I let our canary out early this morning and it's never come back with the worm."

Prohibited Words.

Prohibited words is a game in which the use of certain words is not allowed in answering questions. These words are those often used in conversation, such as yes, no, why, but or any others like them, and are agreed upon by the company before the game. One of the players is chosen to ask the questions, which may be on any subject. He asks one of each player in order, purposely framing them so that it will be difficult to answer them without using a prohibited word. When any one does so the offender pays a forfeit and takes the questioner's place.

Very Unlikely.

Ethel, aged five, had been much impressed with the arithmetic lesson when visiting a school for a day. On waking the next morning she said to her sister, aged six:

"May, I want to give you a zample. If I had five apples and you should give me six, how many would I have then?"

Not troubling to turn on her pillow, the other answered: "Oh, that isn't like me at all. If you had all those I wouldn't give you any."

A Good Top String.

For a "plugger" top select a rather heavy cotton cord about a yard long—a good many of the strings sold are too light. Tie your knot about an inch and a half from one end of the string and let the end fray out to plaster on the top before winding. An old bone button is better than a wooden mold for the other end.

Little Bird In Our House.

The oddest kind of little bird
Has come to us to stay.
It doesn't eat, it doesn't sleep;
It sings both night and day.

Its house is just the dearest house,
I'm sure, you ever saw—
All vines and leaves and hangs so high,
Quite safe from kitty's paw.

There is a tiny, curious door
Flies open like a wink;
Our bird bobs out and then bobs back
As quick as you can think.

But first from out the little throat,
Before you could cry "Boo!"
There come the sweetest notes, which sound
Exactly like "Cuckoo!"

—Sunbeam.
