Love Was News To A Newshawk

Tyrone Power, newshawk, is fired because every paper but his own had first news of his engagement to Loretta Young, dashing young heiress. But since Loretta merely announced the supposed troth to spite the unsuspecting reporter there was plenty of drama before the incident is straightened out. The story flimed as "Love Is News" appears at the Stevensville Opera House this week.

Obituary

MRS. MARION L. BROWN

Mrs. Anna Louise Brown, wife of Marion L. Brown, of Stevensville, died Saturday morning at Emergency Hospital, Easton, at 10 o'clock. She was 24 years old.

Mrs. Brown was a native of Kent Island, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carville Tolson. Mrs. Brown was one of Kent Island's best beloved women, and will be sadly missed by hosts of friends in the community.

Besides her husband she is survived by an infant son. Richard Lofton. She aso leaves her parents, and two sisters, Vivien and Kathleen, and one brother, Carville, Jr.

Funeral services were held at Kingsley Methodist Episcopal Church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. J. P. George, pastor of Kent Island Methodist Protestant Church assisted by the Rev. James F. Langrall, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Burial took place in Stevensville Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were: the Messrs. Herbert Jones, Gordon Tolson, John Brown, Robert Carter, Harry Benton Porter and Leonard Brown.

Police Court

Jack Robbins, operator of a beer parlor at Sandtown, was fined $25 and costs on each of two charges of assault and battery by Magistrate J. West Thompson in Police Court this week. He went to jail in default of payment.

Robbins was alleged to have swung a homemade hickory club upon Mrs. Bessie Johnson and Herman Lafferty outside his place of business July 24.

James Francis, Grasonville negro, and Joseph W. Rhyanes, Queenstown negro, were each fined $5 and costs for inadequate brakes.

Edward Garrett, Centreville, took thirty days in default of a fine of $30 and costs for operating a car without a driver's license.

On disorderly conduct charges Thomas Conyer, Grasonville negro, and William Bordley, Church Hill negro, each paid fines of $5 and costs. Otis Sampson, Wye Mills, was given a suspended sentence on the same charge.

Home Seems Strange

Ridgely—Five years old and four of them spent in various hospjitals, little Jackie Thomas returned to his parents' home for the first time since his hospital tour began, sitll in a plaster cast but ready to play happily with his seven brothers and sisters. Before he was two the boy was treated for mastoid abscess, then for tuberculosis, finally became a patient in a home for crippled children.
