GREAT REVIVAL

Five Thousand People March Up and Down the Boardwalk Singing Hymns.

Enthusiasm in the greatest revival that this city has ever known reached its highest pitch Sunday night. Fired by the intense fervor of an inspiring meeting conducted by Evangelist Clar-Young's Pier, the congregation of nearly 3,000 at the close of the service marched and countermarched on the boardwalk and principal streets of the resort, singing the "Glory Song" and other famous evangelical hyms. Returning to the pier with numbers nearly doubled, a midnight consecration meeting was
