J. F. KIMLER, EDITOR, pro tem.

WILLIAMSPORT, MD., NOVEMBER 7, 1891.

Terms: - $1.00 a Year.

The TRANSCRIPT is an independent paper, published for and in the interest of the people. All are invited to send us items of interest, but every communication must be accompanied by the writer's real name and address; not for publication, but as a private guarantee of good faith. We wish to state distinctly that the Editor is not responsible for the views expressed by correspondents.

THE JUST STEWARD.

He or she whose pleasure or task it may be to render services to another becomes the keeper of that person's trust, and it becomes him to act his part in such a manner as will contribute to the store of the one he serves. If he do not this, distrust and all the evils of its train spring into being around those two. The result is dissension and at last separation The want of the appreciation of the high trust conferred upon the servitor by the master has lead that servant to become a faithful steward only while under the eye of the master. Hence, have we the overseer and boss; the spy and informer; the rogue and rascal and many other forms of deception that show a want of confidence and respect between the master and servant. This want of confidence in each other are the foundations of the social disorders that the nineteenth century witnesseth. Can this want be filled? Yes, when each man believes that his sacred duty calls him to do for his master what he would do for himself and vice versa. When can this be? Only when our spiritual advisers and the parents of children inculcate the spirit of this teaching into the minds of their flocks. Great changes are coming over the laboring world. Nearer and nearer are we approaching that time. It is shown to be coming, if we but read the writings of the time upon the laborers character. From a serf he has sprung to manhood and gentlemanly manhood is not far off. When honor reigns supreme in each breast, labor wars will cease.

OUR DIVORCE LAWS.

Divorces are cheap; houses are expensive. And in this age, when some young man who has taken upon himself the marital obligations fully realizes what they are, he finds them so onereous that he thinks divorce much cheaper, and since so easily procured, does not make much effort to make a success of married life. This placed the home below the interests of the individual which should never be. The home is the foundation of republican institutions and once that is undermined woe unto Liberty. That divorce is sometimes a necessity we admit, but that the wholesale releases from the responsibility of voluntary vows is necessary, we deny. Let divorce be granted only when the purpose of marriage is defeated or impossible and little difficulty is presented to our judges for unraveling. As it is at present, a few years separation, a little worse behavior or anything which hurts the standing of the other party, is sufficient grounds for divorce. How enlightened the laws; how firm the social foundations that can allow the individual such liberties! But vengeance for broken divine laws will overturn even such solid bases.

THE ELECTION.

The election of last Tuesday was one of the quietest held in this place for a long time. Not a single fight broke the harmony. Opponents greeted each other with a heartiness that did the heart of the lover of his people good. To see them so quiet while the balance of power between parties was being tried, gives the strongest proof of the soundness of republican institutions. While a whole party ticket was turned down in this county, and the opposite elected, not a single demurrer from the defeated is heard. Thank God for our liberty-loving people.

THE CHILIAN TROUBLES.

When a little dog snaps the hams of a big one, the big one gets revenge by shaking the little fellow. We fear this is our position with Chili. The mob of that country has bitten the U. S. sharply and the big dog is turning slowly round to see what has happened. Will he shake the little one? We fear not, as the ministers of the U. S. have always been so much afraid of foreign complications. We are not ready for war but we never are ready, and it is feared that some excuse for making a shabby peace, will be found.

LIGHTNING COUGH DROP

OR THROAT AND LUNG BALSAM.

For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Catarrh, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, Influenza, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Pleurisy, Congestion of the Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Asthma Consumption, and all pulmonary affections

ATTEND TO YOUR COLD IN TIME.

A simple cold, if not attended to in time, may be the most dangerous enemy, and develop in Pneumonia or Consumption. By the timely use of this remedy Coughs and Colds are quickly cured.

HERB MEDICINE Co., Gentlemen:—Your Cough Drops are by far the best I have ever handled. A gentleman who lived here and used your Cough Drops has moved twenty miles away, and now lives in a town where there are drug stores and plenty of medicine, but he and his neighbors there send to me for your Cough Drops. C. T. WALLACE, Kinderhook, Ohio

If you feel no relief after using two-thirds the contents of a bottle of this medicine, return the remaining one-third to the dealer from whom you bought it and he will refund the price paid for the entire bottle. Price 25c. per bottle. 5 for $1.00. For sale generally. HERB MEDICINE Co., Weston, W. Va.

Five Stores on the Public Square.

All separate and yet all combined. From experience we all know it takes lots of goods and indeed quite a sum of money to get along nicely in this world, and so we don't wonder that people want to buy as cheap as possible. We take pleasure in inviting you to call and see our New Stock before you buy.

We bought a great many goods within the last few weeks and at very low prices, and as we are willing to sell on very short profits, surely it will pay you before you buy.

We have five separate stores as you perhaps know, and yet they are so arranged that you can pass quickly from one to the other.

No. 1, contains Sheetings, Tickings, Muslins, Blankets, Dress Goods, Men's Suitings, &c.

No. 2, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Mattings, Window Shades, Lace Curtains, Looking Glasses, Carpet Sweepers, Rugs, Mats.

No. 3, Ladies, Gents, Misses and Children's Shoes and Hats, Gent's Furnishing Good's, Trunks, Domestic Sewing Machines, &c.

Drs. STARKEY & PALEN'S

TREATMENT BY INHALATION.

1529 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

FOR CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, CATARRH, HAY FEVER, HEADACHE, DEBILITY, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, AND ALL CHRONIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

The original and only genuine Compound Oxygen Treatment, that of Drs. Starkey & Palen, is a scientific adjustment of the elements of Oxygen and Nitrogen magnetized; and the compound is so condensed and made portable that it is sent all over the world.

It has been in use for more than twenty years: thousands of patients have been treated, and over one thousand physicians have used it, and recommend it,—a very significant fact.

It does not act as most drugs do, by creating another ailment, and by curing one organ at the expense of another, often requiring a second course to eradicate the evil effects of the first, but Compound Oxygen is a revitalizer, renewing strengthening, invigorating the whole body.

These statements are confirmed by numerous testimonials, published in our book of 200 pages, only with the express permission of the patients; their names and addresses are given, and you can refer to them for further information.

The great success of our Treatment has given rise to a host of imitators, unscrupulous persons; some calling their preparations Compound Oxygen, often appropriating our testimonials and the names of our patients, to recommend worthless concoctions. But any substance made elsewhere or by others, and called Compound Oxygen, is spurious.

"Compound Oxygen—Its Mode of Action and Results," is the title of a new book of 200 pages, published by Drs. Starkey & Palen, which gives to all inquirers full information as to this remarkable curative agent, and a record of surprising cures in a wide range of chronic cases—many of them after being abandoned to die by other physicians. Will be mailed free to any address on application.

BOYS! BOYS!

"To the echo of merry music we'll tell our gladsome tale."

We have a merry tale for boy's to-day. It concerns them all. The boy who gets his first pants is just as deeply interested as the boy who gets his first frock coat, and that is a gretty good size boy. Part of our story you know. You know the part which says we sell clothes, but you don't know the part that says our BOYS' SUITS are so nobby and stylish and as one fond mamma remarked: "Your clothes make my little boy look like a little man." Well an old saying is "that the child is father of the man," and we try to carry it out in our business with the boys. We want to please the boys, and when they come for the suit don't forget to get that mouth organ we are giving away to all our boy friends.
