LOCAL & PERSONAL.

WEDNESDAY,.....Feb. 7, 1872.

☞The Editor has been in Annapolis during the past week, attending to several cases in the Court of Appeals, and will not be home until the last of the week.

Navigation has been closed for a week past, the ice extending down the Bay as for as the Patuxent There is no probability of a Steamer for some time to come.

On Saturday night we were visited by a severe hail storm, which before morning turned to a snow storm, and covered the ground to the depth of six inches.

THE DOG LAW.—A bill has been introduced in the House of Delegates, to repeal this law. By its second section, it is provided, that the Commissioners shall place to the credit of the respective districts, whatever amount may have been collected, to be applied to the use of the public schools, in such districts, subject to the control of the School Commissioners.

Railroad Meeting.

At Vienna Feb. 10th at 2 o'clock P. M everybody in favor of building a Rail Road from this place (Vienna) to connect with the Dor. & Del. Rail Road, are most respectfully invited to attend. MANY CITIZENS.

Vienna, Feb. 5th 1872.

SLEIGHING.—An incessant gingle of Bells all day long! The young gallants of the town are vying with each other in dashing their sweet-hearts through the Streets. 'Tis a pleasant sight to see so many bright faces and merry hearts enjoying the sport.

It delights us to behold such a scene.

"Gather the rose-buds while you may,
Old time is still a flying;
And that same flower that blooms to-day,
To morrow shall be dying."

SCHOONER CHARLES SAMUEL.—We are pleased to Chronicle the safety of Capt. Roberts and Mister, who were supposed to have been murdered by the crew, who ran their vessel ashore on Sycamore Point, opposite Annapolis on the 30th ult.

Capt. Roberts came to town on Monday morning last, and took the train for Baltimore, in search of his vessel.

The "Amateur Dramatic Corps" of Cambridge, will give their second private entertainment this evening The last plays reflected great credit upon the entire Corps, and we are sorry to announce that this evening's performance will conclude the Theatricals, until after Lent.

The Amatuers are indebted to Dr. Baird for their existence, to whom praise is due.

It's a great pity that there are not a host of Dr. Bairds, for if there were, many an undertaking, doomed to defeat, would be crowned with success.

SKATING.—The Cambridge Creek has been crowded during the last freeze, with the lovers of this charming sport. Ladies decked in bright costumes, have lent their charms and graces to the gay scene. Couples, pierced by Cupid's unerring darts, could be seen to separate from the crowd, and engage in earnest tete-a-tetes. A general hilarity of spirits seemed to possess the immense throng, who daily availed themselves of the pleasure, until night warned them home.

ESTABLISHED IN 1858.—The firm of Sherman & Co., dealers in seeds and agricultural implements, at 67 Sixth Street, between Main and Market, was established in 1858. It is one of the oldest and most reliable firms in that business in the city. They have ready for free distribution, a catalogue of seeds and agricultural implements.—Any one can obtain it upon application by letter or in person. This catalogue is a price list also, and contains a great deal of valuable information. Send for it. The firm has made changes of such a character that its expenses have been materially reduced, and it is now prepared to offer superior inducements.—Their garden seed department is supplied with fresh supplies every season from D. Landreth & Co. They have Landreth's Rural Register and Almanac for 1872 ready for free distribution. Louisville Dem.

MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA BOUNDARY.—J. Aydelott, Esq., a member of the Maryland joint committee to adjust the Eastern Shore boundary between Maryland and Virginia, has made a report to the Legislature, from which it appears that, after great labor to effect a satisfactory adjustment, all work by the joint commission was suddenly closed for the season, from the absence of a full commission on one or the other side. Mr. Aydelott, and Mr. H. A. Wise, of the Virginia commission, met at Crisfield in October, and made personal explorations, and if a full commission on both sides could have been had, it is thought that a satisfactory adjustment could have been arrived at. Mr. Aydelott recommanded that the commission be continued, and spring or early summer be availed of to resume the work. Thus all future "oyster wars," between citizens of the two States might be avoided.

☞"Your dress," said a husband to his fashionable wife, "will never please the men. "I don't dress to please men," was the reply, "but to worry other woman."

Book Notices.

Wood's Household Magazine.

The February number of this Magazine excels any of its predecessors that has fallen under our notice. Its first article, "Thy will be done, Amen," is not only neatly written but contains a most excellent lesson. Its author "blushes unseen" under the nom de plume of "Tenoroon." Whether male or female, the reader is left to conjecture, but is at no loss to conclude that the writer takes even rank with the best of those who are less unpresuming. "Washington and his Lady Loves," contributed by the Rev. J. B. Wakeley, though to many an old story, is not the less well told James Parton tells all about "Catherine M. Sedgwick," and "J. L. G.," contributes an interesting sketch of "Clara Louia Kellogg." "The Cost of a Cure," and "Guy's Mistake," are stories of more than the usual merit; while Chas. A. Dickinson, who gave us the Santa Claus story in the December number, poetizes the story of the "Kitten."—We have not room to notice all the articles, but may add that if the knowledge which Rev. Thomas K. Beecher imparts about "Blo-Guns," don't set the boys at work it will be because their parents have a wholesome respect for the cost of window-glass. Altogether, Wood gives us stories for all ages and sexes; history, biography and poetry; a little humor that might be fresher; domestic receipts, etc, etc., all for One Dollar—the cheapest, the best, and the best-looking for the money, of any Magazine on our table. And it is to be better than it is, for GAIL HAMILTON will hereafter add her pen to the management. Address S. S. WOOD & Co., Newburgh, N. Y.

ARTHUR'S LADY'S HOME MAGAZINE, for February, comes laden with its usual supply of good reading for the household. A cotemporary well says of this periodical: "It is sprightly, pure, well illustrated and filled with a large quantity of original matter, especially adapted to the family; and there are few homes that would not be better and happier for its presence." It is announced that Miss Townsend will commence a sequel to her story, "A DOLLAR A DAY," in the March number. Terms $2.00 a year, with a large reduction to clubs. Address T. S. Arthur & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

BRAINARD'S MUSICAL WORLD, for February, is on our table. We notice some new features in this issue.—These are a Dramatic column, a very complete record of Music at home and abroad, and an unusual amount of spicy original matter.

The editorial management of the WORLD has recently changed, and the new editor seems determined to "sweep clean."

The Music this month is, "Remember the Poor," an appropriate song for this season of the year, and "Indian Summer," a reverie for the Piano; both good and pleasing. $1.00 a year.—S. BRAINARD'S SONS, Publishers, Cleveland, Ohio

Godey's Lady's Book for February, 1872.—The illustrations of the February number consist of two Valentine plates, a handsome fashion-plate, an alphabet of interlaced letters, a large presentation sheet of braiding patterns, and the second of the series of Miss Lolipop's Party.

In the work department the usual variety of designs for fancy work occupy a large space.

Brilliant and entertaining reading matter, by popular authors, combine to make this a spirited number.

The following is taken from the editorial columns of the LAD'S BOOK the present month:—

Take your own Home Paper.

"What tells us so readily the standard of a town or city as the appearance of its paper? And its youth or its age can as well be determined by the observing as by a personal notice The enterprise of its citizens is depicted by its advertisements, their liberality by the looks of the paper. Some papers show a good, solid, healthy foundation, plethoric purses, and a well-to-do appearance generally; others show a striving to contend with the grasping thousands around them, trying hard to wrench out an existence from the close-fisted community around them. An occasional meteoric display in its columns of telegraph or local or of editorials, show what it can do if it had the means, but it cannot continue in the expensive work until support comes, which ought to be readily granted. A newspaper is like a church; it wants fostering in the commencement, and for a few years; then, as a general thing, it can walk alone, and reflect credit upon its location. Take your home paper; it gives you more news of immediate interest than New York or other papers; it talks for you when other localities belie you; it stands up for your rights; you always have a champion in your home paper, and those who stand up for you should certainly be well sustained. Your interests are kindred and equal, and you must raise or fall together. Therefore, it is your interest to support your home paper; not grudgingly, but in a liberal spirit; as a pleasure, not as a disagreeable duty; but as an investment that will amply pay the expenditure."

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA for February will no doubt be welcomed by our Juveniles after the holidays; it has always something new, entertaining and useful—Minnie "Going to School" and the first chapters of a new story by May Mannering, entitled "Just My Luck;" the absorbing story of "Minnie and Kitty" is concluded. It is one of the very best ever put in print for juveniles, and even adults can be instructed by its perusal. We see another serial is promised from the pen of the same author, to commence next month. "Alf and Eddie" is a charming story for the season; this makes less than half the contents, which is so varied and entertaining, we advise you to get it if you have not already subscribed. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 837 Broadway, N. Y.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE for February contains its usual abundant and varied amount of good things for a family magazine. We mention in particular new music, the Highland Lancers; Poetry, Winter Winds; Marrying for Money; A Woman's Poem; Mother and Child, etc; an Excellent Story, The Professor's Wife; Jennie June's second article on The Physical Life of Women, "What Education does for Girls" and other articles; full record of the Fashions and new designs for ladies and children, profusely Illustrated, Ladies' Club, Household, Music, Drama, Literary and Art, etc., etc. $3 yearly. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL has begun the year well. In no other periodical do we find human nature so thoroughly treated. We always see something in it which instructs us, something which entertains and something amusing. It is a capital family magazine. In the February number we find illustrated articles, and sketches on the following:—James Denoon Reymert, the eminent Norwego-American; How the Faculties Combine; Protoplasm, or the Mystery of Physical Life; Expression—its Anatomy and Philosophy; Conjugal Psychology; Joshua Watson, the Philanthropic Churchman; "Follow your Nose," or, How the Nose indicates character; Rheumatism, its Causes and Cure; GREAT CRIMINALS; Plain Penmanship; Pre-Adamites Found in the Bible, a new reading of Genesis; Governor Washburn of Massachusetts; A Marvelous Conjurer; Pickles, etc. Price 30 cents, single Nos.; $3 a year. S. R. Wells, New York.

Attractive Building Lot for Sale.
THE Lot on the corner of Academy and Muir Streets in the town of Cambridge, containing about two acres and a half of ground.
This particular Lot is one of the most desirable locations in Cambridge. It is situated in the heart of the town and while from the excellence of its soil it grows fine crops of vegetables, &c., it offers a handsome site for a residence, and on account of the now constant advance of Cambridge, in material prosperity, must necessarily enhance in value. For terms apply at this office. [april 26, 1871.
