That is not the issue. The issue is which man will make the better governor, Ritchie or Nice. Each man's record is an open book.

Read it. Then decide which man will make the better governor Observers from other States are unanimous that Maryland has been the best governed commonwealth in the Union. They look with green eyed envy at the Maryland record through the depression. And they give Ritchie the credit for that record. That is quite convincing. That is one reason why those of ernment rather than in politics unqualifiedly endorse Ritchie as against Nice, But as we have said before, it will take more than endorsement to do any good. It will take more than sound argument. It will take hard work with the voters themselves. That can accomplish much.

THERE is a definite and positive drift throughout the State to the re-election of Governor Ritchie and election of the Democratic ticket. In the interest of both our State and County. "LET'S CARRY ON." The welfare of the people as a opinions or prejudices of those of us who before the Primary thought there should be a change in State

From the above figures it is evident man on the Democratic ticket in Kent. It has been a quiet and dispassionate campaign with church suppers furnishing the center for political activities. With excellent turkey, duck and pig menus it made everybody happy so that peace among the "brethren" reigned supperse. The justice of the claim of every candidate on the Democratic ticket of the vote of every Democrat in Kent cannot be disputed, bigh school building, on the basis of the county should take its place.
