1934 TOMATO CLUB WINNERS ANNOUNCED

William H. Holmes, Cecil county; A.. R. Peterson, Dorchester county; and Walter Pugh, Talbot county, were awarded first, second and third places respectively, in the annual Ten-Ton Tomato Club Contest, held in Maryland during the past year. Of more than 150 growers competing in the contest only six were able to average the coveted number of tons per acre, according to those in charge of the contest. The contest is sponsored each year by the Tri-State Packers' Association and the University of Maryland Extension

The first three winners will be presented with gold watches, and receive certificates to that effect at the annual meeting of the Tri-State Packers' Association in Philadelphia, in December. Dr. Thomas B. Symons, will make the presenta-Age 16, of New Windsor, will]

Mr. Holmes, winner of first place, produced an average of 12.83 tons of tomatoes to the acre on 2.82 acres. Mr. Peterson, second prize winner, averaged 12.77 tons of tomatoes on 3.02 acres; and Mr. Pugh, who received third position, grew 11.94 tons on 5.06 acres. The object of the Ten-Ton Tomato Club is to stimulate interest in production of higher yields and better quality tomatoes .

INVITES YOU TO ATTEND THEIR FAMOUS CHRISTMAS

BEGINNING SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1st

The May Company believes that people should shop in their own home town---as far as possible. It's only fair that the merchants of your community should expect your support. However there are times when only a great department store with huge selections of merchandise is able to meet your requirements. This is particularly true of Christmastime, when there are many gifts to buy. In view of this fact, The May Company invites you to attend their famous Christmas Sale, known as "BIG WEEK". This event is prepared far in advance, and offers a million dollars worth of new and beautiful gift merchandise at unusually low prices. Re It begins Saturday, December 1st and continues until Saturday,

December 8th. WE REPEAT -- buy at home, if you can, but if you feel the need of coming to the big city for a day's Christmas shopping...come to The MAY ance Company's "BIG WEEK".
