DEVOTED TO MORALITY, AGRICULTURE, AND THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COUNTY.

VOL. 35.-NO. 46.

DENTON, MD., THURSDAY, JULY 7th 1892.

$1.00 PER ANNUM.

GIRLS IN SECRET DEBATE.

The Sylvania young ladies determined a few days ago that in the and at last, the deacon's wonderful ing and was terrified to discover course of human events the times one-horse shay, there was a grand Charley floating on the surface of the were mellow for a secret organization, it was to be a kind of secret debating the same intant dropped panting to the cistern feet foremost and his club, and boys of all ages were of from the ranks. course excluded. They said it was to be a "girls' secret" society, and minute one of the girls got up to re- The frantic grandparent called to they solemnly declared they were go- mark that she thought it perfectly him, and he responded bravely. She ing to have it that way or not at all. disgusting for all the other girls to besought him to raise his head a lit-For about an hour the young ladies commence talking when she started tle, and then called out to the gardsat and conversed, yet no one had the to speak, to which there followed an ner to come to the rescue. Peter hascourage to propose an organization. excited chorus of voices which said tened to the spot, and in his perplex- was a pretty universal prejudice a- A Little Girl's Experience in a At last, however, one of them sug- plainly, although the words were ity could not devise an immediate gainst Alfalfa as food for horses. gested that they get to work. They not distinguishable, that each one plan of action. Mrs. Burdon realiz- While it is thought excellent for catknew they ought to have a Presi- was under the same impression. dent, but how to elect one was the By a powerful use of the gavel question.

to be elected by a popular vote. So Warsaw again. The armistice, how- the while the grandmother was urg- ready formed from my own experi- her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, they selected a young lady who ever, was of short duration. The ing Charley to keep up courage and ence. Regarding the effect of this until she was a mere "handful of bones" they selected a young lady who ever, was of short duration. The uttering words of loving solicitude, over-secretion of saliva, I cannot say covery and after the use of two and a the latter of the la she declared which one of their num- the Chair. Each one was sure she in the Chair. ber should be presiding officer, and had made the best points, and felt lisping assurances. Finally the han- jury from it. It is quite unpleasant say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth thus the President was elected by a her brow warming to the laurel. popular vote. Next a Secretary was The President arose and in a few chosen by the voice of the whole as- words stated that she could not desembly. It tickled the girls im- cide the question from the fact that mensely to vote, and after they said she had not been able to distinguish "Yes!" or "No!" they would all laugh a single word that was said. for the space of about five minutes. That was enough. The last sylstored the Presid announced that a when pandemonium broke loose question was open for discussion. again. Cries of "Treason" rent the The words had hardly had time to air, and in a great throng they made escape her lips before sixteen girls for the President and brought her leaped from their chairs and sixteen down from the chair with force of simultaneous voises shouted, "Mr. arms. The scene was undescribable. President!"

making a speech on the same sub- the reporter made good his escape, in the water. ject at the same time. The Presi- and once more in the open air falterdent rapped and rerapped on the ta- ed thanks to heaven for life. was evident the debaters were well Telephone. prepared for the discussion, for as time wore on they warmed up to the queston, and their sixteen impassioner advanced nearer to the front.

arms in unceasing gesticulations con- ing circumstances even to one of How can a horse's feet keep sound Majorie Richardson, and "The Story age outfit, with prices to suit the times." fused and dazzled the eye like the re- maturer years. ed but direr confusion to the babel don on Greenwitch street a few days When a horse has been perspiring attractive, and altogether there seems prices. that fell upon the ear. Occassionally two opposing arms would become yard, accompanied by his grandmoth- and dirt, if the roads be dusty. by The Curtis Publishing Company entwined as they aspired together to the ceiling. Then there was an in- ten feet in depth, about eight feet in accumulation should be brushed out, number, and One Dollar per year. stant pause in that locality, and eyes circumference and containing seven or the hair and skin will get into a would gaze back on the eyes that feet of water. It is supplied with an unhealthy state. Too few farmers' glared with the fire of debate.

stop for a second at the end of a sen- Charley decided to make an investitence to catch her breath and see gation. His grandmother left for an what effect her oratory was having instant, and the child in some unexon the rest; but when she saw that plainable manner either succeeded in Medicogo satiya-White Alsike, with they all rushed heedlessly on she tilting the cover by partly raising it other clovers, for bee pasture three above the roar.

self, had at last yielded to the fear. grandmother returned to the spot when eating the Alsike Clover alone, of debate. But as time wore by na- and seeing that the cover was bottom ture's exhausted forces began to rebel, side up she removed it from the opencollapse, and the whole sixteen in water. He had probably fallen in aided by her foot the President was seized it, and it was with extreme was told by more than one ranchman en down with Measles, followed with a One girl said she had heard her able to quell the mutterings of this difficulty that the exact location of which confinite salivation dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. father say that all Presidents ought second storm and declare peace in of the child could be discerned. All which confirmed the views I had al- Doctors at home and at Deiroit treated

After a fearful silence of about a he was able to float temporarily.

When order was permanently re- lable was still lingering on her lips ble and tried to bring them to order And this is how the "Girls' Sebut her voice as well as the sound of cret" Society rose, flourished, and dethe gavel was lost in the din. It cayed in a single night. - Sylvania

This Infant had Nerve.

Little Charles Lee Burdon, the 25 ed voices made the ceillng rattle. months-old grandson of Lee Burdon, The lamp begen to sway, the scrip- is being petted and caressed by the day with as a little more will suffice to rub them silver dollars. The Rev. Dr. Tal- the finest stock of tural mottoes that hung on the wall citizens of Elmwood, both as a musi- dry with an old piece of cloth that mage takes a new departure by disrose and fell, and every now and cal prodigy and more particularly in should be kept for the purpose. The cussing "The Horse and the Race then a chair would be sent furiously recognition of his wonderful presence mud and gravel ought to be cleaned meludes, besides the conclusion of across the room as an excited speak- of mind and courage in the presence out of their feet at the same time, Sarah Orne Jewetts story, "An Every of death by drowning which he re- and a clean bed of straw or other Day Girl," two excellent short stories The bending af sixteen pairs of cently displayed under the most try- material given them to stand upon. "The Byrntell Golden Wedding," by in fact everything for a first class carri-iron cover, and precautions had been horses have that bright, glossy coat Sometimes a fair debater would taken to have it securely fastened. that betokens a healthy skin. plunged once more into the madden- or else as he stepped on the edge it years ago. The growth was excellent The President a good talker her- turous infant was precipitated. The never see that the animal "slobbered' ful odds against her and sank back where she had left him, but he had yet while eating the Alfalfa he seeminto her seat wrapped in silence and dissappeared. She called out to him ed to secrete a very large surplus of despair, the secretary buried her face but no response was, heard. She saliva. I believe the Lucern in some clothing had bouyed him up, so that ed the dire peril of the situation, and tle, people object to it especially for ers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach seeing a small pitchfork near by she working horses. Upon inquiry, I Mich., and are blessed with a daughter dle of the pitchfork was thrust with- but otherwise I doubt if it works any its weight in gold, yet you may get a in reaching distance and Charley was very considerable harm.—A. J. Cook, trial bottle free at George & Redden's bidden to cling fast to it. He is a in The Rural New Yorker. vigorous, well developed boy, and he quickly clasped his hands around the termination.

Keep the Horse's Legs and Feet Clean

Clover Hay and "Slobbers." I sowed some Alfalfa or Lucern in her hands and wept, but still those made a circuit of the grounds, but way increasing the action of the salied gallantly on over the stromy wave Happily she thought of the cistern, the past winter I found that there journey is commenced.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The Ladies' Home Journal.

out-door fetes, make the subject of County, as examiners on the new Coun-Slowly and steadily the weight Lewis in the July Ladies' Home Jourvas lifted to the surface of the ciswas lifted to the surface of the cis- nal, the same magazine presenting wharf in Choptank and running with tern, and the wet and dripping fig- another striking feature in Mrs. Pot- the present road laid down along the rivure was clasped in the arms of his ter Palmer's exhaustive paper on er through Choptank to Main street deliverers. Charley was cool and "Women an the World's Fair." Mrs. thence with said street to the road leadself possessed, and was quickly taken Lady Managers of the World's Col- orchard on said farm, thence at right aninto the house and supplied with an umbian Commission, speaks with au- gles and with said peach orchard across outfit of dry clothing, and hot drink thority upon a subject with which the lands of E. S. Zell to the mouth of Hunting Creek or Linchester River at a The wildest excitement prevailed, was administered to him. He lisped she is familiar. An article which point opposite the wharf on the Dorches-The scene that followed beggars and amid the confusion, while bat- that he was pretty wet, but that he will likewise elicit interest is "A day ter shore and at this point to join the County C the pen. Imagine sixteen girls all the cries and shouts filled the room, was a smart boy because he swimmed in an Adirondack Camp," by Jessamy County with a ferry, bereby give notice Harte, the eldest daughter of Bert county with a ferry, hereby give notice that we will meet at Choptank on Thurs-Harte. Miss Harte makes her liter- day August 4th, at 10 o'clock a. m., to ary debut in this number of the execute our commission. Journal. Miss Fannie M. Johnson A great many farmers never think contributes a sketch, with portrait, of Mrs. Edward Bellamy, the wife of July-7-30d it necessary to clean the mud from the celebrated nationalist, and Alice their horses' legs and rub them dry after they have come in from wet and muddy roads. A pail of warm and willess Williams, the young lady water and a stable sponge will make who posed as model in 1878 for the Having purchased the harness business all clean in three minutes' time and which now adorns the face of our VanGesel building, known as Meridth's when all sorts of filth work into them and remain there, perhaps for days?

of Two Hearts," by Isabel A. Mallon and examine stock before purchasing.

The other editors fill their departation of Harness and axle and remain there, perhaps for days? Charley was visiting Grandpa Bur- and remain there, perhaps for days? ments with all that is interesting and oils, Harness carefully repaired at low ago, and clad in an ulster and tight- his hair becomes full of the exuda- no end to the good things in this isfitting bonnet, was playing in the tion, which is mixed with dead skin sue of this popular magazine. The Ladies' Home Journal is published by The Curtis Publishing Company VVOOTERS er. There is a cistern in the yard When the surface becomes dry this of Philadelphia for ten cents per > ratgic rersons and those troubled with nervousness resulting HEADOUARTER Brown's Iron Bitters. Genuine has trade mark and -- ssed red lines on wrapper.

Convention of Christain Endeavor Society.

to be held in New York Ctty July 7th Land 10th in 10th to 10th inclosive, the Pennsylvania Rail- Sliced ham and dried beet constant road Company announces that it will ing speech, and her voice was heard was raised sufficiently to make an and I have used the hay each year sell excursion tickets at one first class opening through which the adven- for my driving horse. While I could limited fare for the round trip by route travelled on continuous passage tickets. These tickets to be sold July 5th to 7th, good going only to reach New York not later than the 8th, valid returning July 10th to 15th inclusive. Tickets, however, may be extended until August 15th, if deposited with agent of committee on or before July 15th, to be held by him and sixteen richly freighted orators float- no trace of the boy was discernible. vary glands. When in California only surrended to passenger on date Lighthouse, four years old. Last April she was tak-Drug Store.

Examiners Notice.

The art of giving lawn parties, and The undersigned duly appointed by staff and clung to it with dogged de- a score of new ideas for all kinds of the County Commissioners of Caroline

ROBERT M. MESSICK, JOHN A. TRIBBITT, PERRY D. TAYLOR, Examiners.

HARNESS, WHIPS, COLLARS PADS. FLY NETS. BRUSHES, HALTERS, &c.

WM. S. REED, Manager.

GROCERYSTORE

all kinds of FRESH GROCERIES and confectionery; all kinds of kept on hand and, in fact, everything kept in a first-class GROCERY STORE.

I am constantly receiving fresh supplie of candies. Highest prices paid for

COUNTRY PRODUC!

Come and examine my stock and be co vinced for yourself. I am your obe-

> Gus Wooters. DENTON, MD.