AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, INFLUENZA, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INFANTILE CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country who do not possess yet some personal experience of its efficacy; and wherever the communities are where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the most able and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasant and safest remedy that can be employed by infants and young children. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unperceived. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumption it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and every cold while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the incurable cancer that, fastened on the victim, eats your life away. All know the dreadful facility of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus to give it the very best of all the best agents which our skill can furnish for their cure. It is the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure. PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass. AND SOLD BY Do you want to Save Money. WE have just published a new and very valuable work, entitled "Household Economy" which is destined to save much of the expense in families. It consists first of the Whole Art of Dyeing, simplified and adapted to general use.—This portion contains full and practical instructions for Dyeing in all its Varieties, so explicit and clear as to enable any one to bleach, and color any desirable hue a well and much cheaper than the best dyers, including beautiful scarlet, green, &c. The second part is entitled MANUFACTURERS' SECRETS! and contains genuine formulas of making all the preparations now made by city monopolists that are adapted to general use. Among these may be found recipes for the CELEBRATED PREPARED GLUE, the actual cost of which is less than ten cents a pint, one for Imitation of Cider Vinegar which does not cost six cents a gallon, does not contain sulphuric, tartaric or any other injurious acid. It is strong and pure, and cannot be told from cider vinegar—not even by chemical analysis. To any family its value is apparent. The manner of making the best Family Medicine of all kinds, Cements, Hair Dyes and Restorants, Leather Preservers and Polishers, &c., including almost everything now manufactured and advertised in the newspapers. The third part consists of MISCELLANEOUS RECIPES, a collection the names of which it is useless to attempt to enumerate. The value of the book—its originality—it is NEW. We claim a saving of $25 a year to every family owning a copy. $1500 A YEAR. This amount can be made by enterprising agents, as our terms to such are 25 per cent. more liberal than any other publisher in the Union will allow. It is sold only by subscription, and agents are wanted in every county not already taken up. A New Work by the Distinguished American Author,

MRS. F. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH. THE HAUNTED HOMESTEAD. With the Autobiography of the Author BY MRS. EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH. Authoress of The Lost Heiress, Deserted Wife, 'Missing Bride,' 'India,' 'Wife's Victory,' 'Retribution,' 'Course of Clifton,' 'Vivra,' 'The Three Beauties,' 'The Lady of the Isle,' 'The Haunted Homestead,' &c., &c. Complete in one large duodecimo volume, neatly covered in cloth, for one dollar and twenty-five cents, or in two volumes, paper cover, for one dollar.

THE Publishers take great pleasure in being able to present to the American public another new and charming work by the popular American Authoress, Mrs. Emma Southworth. She is excelled by no living female writer in the world.— Her style is free from insipidity on the one hand and bombast on the other; and though we meet with forcible we are never startled with inflated language. Her characters are rarely under his power, her incidents founded on facts, and her sentiments are characterized by a singular purity both of conception and expression. She has the rare faculty of saving it in such a manner as that her meaning cannot be misinterpreted. In short, she possesses in an eminent degree those qualifications which are the peculiar prerogatives of a writer, while she delights the reader's imagination with her descriptive beauty, she applies home truths to their understanding with the force of rational conviction. 'The Haunted Homestead' has been pronounced by those who have read it proof-sheets, to be her best work. This is sufficient to commend it to popular, and we anticipate for it a great popular success. For sale by all Booksellers. Copies of either edition of the work, will be sent to any part of the United States, free of Postage, on remitting the price of the edition they may wish, to the publishers, in a letter.
