TRUSTEE'S SALE.

BY virtue of a Decree of Foreclosure of the Talbot County Court as a Court of Equity, in the case of Thomas Hayward against Mary Morris, the widow, and Albert G. Morris, the heir at Law of Clement Morris, dec'd., I will sell at Public Sale on the Premises at 12 o'clock,

On Saturday, the 18th April next,

All the Lands that composed the Dwelling Plantation of the said Clement Morris, consisting of parts of the tracts of Land called 'Rich Range,' 'Holme Hill,' 'Colan,' alias 'Colerain,' and 'Smyth's Clifts,' or the resurvey thereon called 'Holme Range,' containing by estimation 318 acres of Land more or less, situate on the West side of Tuckahoe Creek in Talbot county aforesaid.

The Land is of good quality and has an abundance of fine marle on it, good Timber Land, and comfortable and suitable Buildings.—The Lands will be sold subject to the widow's dower, on the following terms:—One half of the purchase money to be paid on the day of Sale, or at the ratification thereof by the Court aforesaid, and the residue on a credit of 8 and 12 months from the day of Sale by two equal payments, with interest from the day of Sale, to be secured by bonds with such securities as the Trustee shall approve—on the payment of the whole of the purchase money, with the interest thereon, the Trustee will convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers, free from all claim of the complainant or defendants aforesaid.

JOHN GOLDSBOROUGH, Trustee.

In Caroline County Court,

March Term, 1829.

THE Commissioners named in the Commission, heretofore issued out of Caroline County Court, upon the petition of Samuel Grace of the said County, for the purpose of effecting a division, valuation, and so forth, of the lands whereof James Pearce, late of the said County, died seized and possessed, made return to Caroline County Court here, at the October Term of the said Court, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty seven, of the said Commission, with their report and return thereto annexed, to the following effect, to wit: that that the said lands would not admit of a division without loss and injury to all the parties entitled, and that they were of the value of one thousand and forty-eight dollars and fifty cents, current money of Maryland—which proceedings of the said Commissioners remained among the records of the said Court until the March Term of the said Court, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, for objections from any of the parties interested; no objections being made, the return of the Commissioners aforesaid, and all their proceedings under the said Commission, were at the said March Term, read and considered by the Court here, and mature deliberation thereupon had; and it was adjudged and determined by the said Court here, that the judgment of the Commissioners and return aforesaid, be ratified and confirmed—and the said Samuel Grace, being one of the heirs of the said James Pearce, and of lawful age, comes into Court here, and refused to take the said lands at the valuation thereof made by the said Commissioners as aforesaid; but in as much as Sarah Biddle, the wife of Spencer Biddle, James I. Pearce, Rebecca Wilson, the wife of Daniel Wilson, Serena Fleming, the wife of Samuel Fleming, Mary Mackell, the wife of Benjamin Mackell, Ann Pearce, Hester Daily, Sarah Watson and Evert Evertson, heirs at law of the said James Pearce, and of lawful age, from the time of filing the petition in this case hitherto have been, and yet are absent from Caroline County aforesaid, and out of the State of Maryland, and have not appeared, it is thereupon, at this said March Term of the said Court, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, ordered and adjudged by the said Court here, that by inserting and publishing this order in one of the newspapers published in Easton, in Talbot county, in the State of Maryland, at least four weeks successively, before the sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, notice of the return and confirmation of the Commission aforesaid, be given for the said absent heirs respectively to be and appear in Caroline County Court here, at Denton, in the said County, on the second day of October Term of the said Court, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, and make their respective election to take the said real estate of the said James Pearce, at the valuation of the said Commissioners, and to pay to the other heirs of the same James Pearce, deceased, their just proportions of the value thereof in money.
