A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.—Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottles of this standard remedy at G. A. Wingert's drug store.

Interesting Experiences.—Hiram Cameron, Furniture Dealer, of Columbus, Ga., tells his experience thus: "For three years have tried every remedy on the market for Stomach and Kidney Disorders, but got no relief until I used Electric Bitters. Took five bottles and am now cured, and think Electric Bitters the best blood purifier in the world." Major A. B. Reed, of West Liberty, Ky., used Electric Bitters for an old standing Kidney Affection and says: "Nothing has ever done me so much good as Electric Bitters." Sold at 50 cents a bottle by G. A. Wingert.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS

Brevities.—The youngest child of John Hosken, jr., of this place, died last Sunday aged 1 year and 9 months.

The public schools will close for the year Friday, April 22, when they will have been open seven months and a half, the same as last year. The school board hope next year to keep them open nine months, which they will probably be able to do if the county appropriation is the same as this year. The policy has been to clear up the indebtedness and start next year unencumbered, rather than to keep the schools open longer and carry the debt along. It is believed there will be little or no debt remaining at the beginning of the next school year.

The drivers appear to have postponed further inquiry about an advance in wages until a more convenient season.

George Wehner has introduced a splendid new machine in his bottling house for the manufacture of temperance drinks. His son, Frederick, will start a similar business on his account about April 1 at Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

The Presbyterian suppers Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, were excellent affairs and very largely attended.

An appendix to Annan's advertisement.

A gentleman at Lonaconing sends us word that we "are too hard on the Workman," and Thursday's issue of that paper appears to agree with him.

Gus. Wm. Zeller goes on improving. He has put in another of those elegant chairs, and he tells the JOURNAL in confidence that he can beat the town in his profession.

A grand jubilee supper will be given at Moat's Opera House, Monday evening, April 11, by the Evening Star Club, of Dickerson Chapel, A. M. E. Church, Mechanic street, for the benefit of the paster, Rev. J. W Diggs.

Personal.—Henry Mayer, of Gehauf & Co., furniture dealers and undertakers, left Tuesday for Cincinnati, to purchase a fine hearse, and to take lessons in the latest and best approved methods of embalming. He expects to return shortly, well equipped for his business.

Miss Mary Dixon, of Lonaconing, is visiting Miss Helen Percy this week.

Frederick Stevens, jr., of Allegany mine, confined to his bed for a month past with rheumatism, has improved sufficiently to move about the house.

Mrs. E. A. Bishop and Miss Rose K. Percy are visiting friends in Shepherdstown, W. Va.

Mrs. John Hart, of this place, has been quite ill about two weeks.

Joseph Jandorf is in Baltimore representing Frostburg Lodge, No. 590, in the Grand Lodge, Knights of Honor.

W. G. McCulloh, formerly of Frostburg, latterly of Cumberland, has removed to Westernport.

The Lonaconing Review says "Miss May Smith, of Frostburg, has been added to the Review force. Miss May is a graduate of the JOURNAL office." And a good girl she is, too.

Eugene Grahame, an engineer of the JOURNAL press-room, is laid up with an axe-cut on one of his legs.

Correspondence.—"Mapul Sugar's" letter several weeks ago has doubtless brought out a second letter from Piney Grove, dated March 21, from which we extract briefly:

I suppose the mud trouble at Lonaconing is about ended—for the present, and the ashes and mud at your place somewhat settled also.

You speak of an earthquake shock near your place. I guess you were mistaken. Groundhog time was out about the hour you name.

I also see that yourself and others are prospecting on new plans to hold county nominating conventions, and I see from the figures named by you that No. 7 is the baby and No. 11 the Benicia Boy of the republican family, and though Heenan she be she hasn't done much blowing about this thing, and she is right. The strong ought to take care of the weak. I see there are several small boys in the family that will need looking after.

On the same slate I see that No. 1 is the Heenan of the democratic household, with no very small infant to take care for.

I hardly think this 50 votes to 1 delegate can win. When the larger districts come to think the matter over calmly they will be inclined to go slow. They will not like to kick the little fellows out.

One word more. It seems to me that it would sound better if the parties willing for and against this change would give their names. "Progress," "True Blue," "Mapul Sugar," etc., don't dry in good. Come to the front and sing it out plain.

Theatrical.—Miss Mattie Vickers, a star performer, will appear in Ravenscraft's Opera House Monday evening, April 4, in her great specialty, "Cherub." This is first-class in every particular, good as shown anywhere. The Pittsburg Chronicle speaks of a recent appearance there as follows:

Miss Mattie Vickers surprised the regular patrons of the Opera House last night with a performance so superior in an art decisive to Minnie Palmer's, that the majority will give the palm to Miss Vickers' whole, a graceful, intelligent and talented actress. She shines in the line she has chosen, and is sure to make her mark—to become a great public favorite as the sun is sure to shine to-morrow.

Don't miss this, whatever you do.

Killed.—George R. Ingles was hurt by a fall of roof in the new mine of the Georges Creek coal and iron company Monday about noon and died about eight hours later. He was about 25 years old and unmarried.

Election.—The Potomac coal company held its annual meeting in Baltimore Tuesday and elected Hon. Lloyd Lowndes president, and George Hawkins Williams, John Sheridan, H. Crawford Black, R. T. Lowndes and Lloyd Lowndes, directors.

Political.—The republicans will hold a primary convention in William Thomas' new storeroom this (Saturday) evening at 7:30 o'clock to nominate candidates for Mayor and three Councilmen.

Journalistic.—The Meyersdale Commercial mentions with pride, which the JOURNAL is ever ready to pardon, the introduction of a new power press.
