STATEHOOD BILL. Senator Quay's latest move in the Statehood fight is the introduction of the Omnibus bill, as amendments to the Agricultural and to the Sundry Civil Appropriations bills. As GROCERIES, PROVISIONS these amendments have been referred to the Committee on Organization, Conduct and Expenditures of Executive Departments, of which Mr. Quay is chairman, the report will be favorable. His idea is that the opponents of Statehood will thus be compelled to submit the question to NOTIONS AND RIBBONS a vote, or allow these appropriation bills to fail. In the latter event an extra session would be inevitable.

SECRETARY SHAW ON PROTECTION At the celebration of President McKinley's birthday in New York, Secretary Shaw paid a beautifui tribute to the memory of the martyred President. Referring to the tariff issue, of which McKinley was expounder, he said: "I am awaie that most of the text books and many of the colleges teach free trade. and I admit that free trade is thecretically correct. I a aware thanearly every statesman whose vis dom has contributed to the advance ment of industrial prosperity in the United States during the last century has taught protection, and I insist that practically speaking protection is correct.'
