THE GUITEAU TRIAL.

When the criminal Court opened on Saturday last, Mr. Scoville asked for, bnt was refused an extension ot the time allowed under the law for filing a motion and reasons for a new trial. This being the last day of grace, he filed the necessary motions before sunset. One motion will be heard by the Court which tried the case, and the other will be passed upon by the Court in banc on appeal. Under the rules of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia a new trial may be granted for the following reasons: for errors made by the presiding judge in construing the law; because of the insufficiency of evidence; for want of notice of trial; for misconduct of the jury; for uncertainty in the verdict; for a verdict gotten by surprise, and for newly discovered evidence. The motion upon which Judge Cox will be called to pass alleges: that the verdict, "guilty as indicted" is uncertain, as the indictment contained three counts inconsistent with each other; that the trial began in the June and expired in the December term; that the District Court had no jurisdiction; that the Court erred in refusing to instruct the jury in accordance with the prayers of the defence; that competent evidence was excluded, and incompetent evidence admitted; that the Court commented improperly during the progress of the trial upon the conduct of the prisoner; that the Court, without the knowledge of the defence, entered into an arrangement with the District Attorney, whereby the jury and expert witnesses for the prosecution might observe the conduct of the prisoner to promote the purposes of the prosecution, without the restraining power of the Court being exercised, until those purposes were accomplished, to the prejudice of the defendant; that the jury read, or heard, newspaper reports of the case; that new testimony has been discovered by the defence, and that the verdict is not in accordance with the law and the evidence. This motion will be heard to-day, and, in all probability, overruled by Judge Cox, whose decision will be final.

The second motion, which will be decided by the Court in banc, raises the same questions so far as they are cognizable by that Court. The allegation that one of the Washington City papers—the Critic—containing a report of the trial proceedings, and comments unfavorable to the prisoner, had been read by the jury, we believe, has been fabricated.—The paper produced in evidence bears on the margin what purports to be the signatures of four jurors, who deny positively that they either saw or read any newspapers during the progress of the trial. The District Attorney claims that he will show the Court that this is a clever attempt at forgery by a professional forger, who had obtained the signatures and traced them; and, furthermore, that he had already been bound over for forgery in the District. The affidavit as to the improper use of newspapers by the jurors is made by Fred. H. Snyder, of Jersey City, who is in Washington in connection with the Christiancy case, and occupied a room in the National Hotel near that in which the jury was confined. Mr. Corkhill will file the counter-affidavits of the jurors denying the charge originating with Snyder.

This newly developed feature of the case makes it appear as though the defence, after being worsted in every legitimate effort to secure an acquittal, has resorted to trickery and perjury.

—The President having made the Maryland appointments, the White House will no longer be besieged by political delegations from the State. On Thursday last the following nominations were sent to the Senate: For Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Col. Edwin H. Webster, and for Naval Officer, Dr. Wilmer.—Archibald Stirling, Jr., was re-commissioned as United States Attorney, and John McClintock as United States Marshal.

—The practice of resurrecting recently buried bodies for the dissecting rooms of medical colleges is receiving the attention of our lawmakers at Annapolis. A bill now before the Judiciary Committee provides "that any person, his aiders, abettors and counsellors, who shall be convicted of removing or attempting to remove from any graveyard, burial ground or vault in the State of Maryland any dead body which has been buried in such graveyard, burial ground or vault, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than five nor more than fifteen years, unless such person or persons shall have been authorized by the State's Attorney for Baltimore city, or for the county in which such grave, burial ground or vault may be situated, to remove such dead body, for the purpose of ascertaining the cause of the death of the body so removed."

For Pensioners

There being a large number of pensioners, or applicants for pensions, in this community, we publish for their benefit the following recent rulings of the Commissioner of Pensions: "When it is shown that a soldier was captured in the line of duty, and it appears that he was afterwards an inmate of a rebel prison, and has not since been heard from, his death shall be presumed to have occurred in the service and line of duty, and the day after he was last seen or heard from may be accepted as the date of death."

"When it appears that the soldier was sound at the date of his capture in the line of duty, and that he was disabled as alleged at the date of his release from rebel prison, the origin of said disability may be assumed to have been in the service and in line of duty, provided said disease was incident to the service or to such imprisonment."

A $20.00 Bible Prize.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly in the prize puzzle department of their Monthly for February offer the following easy way for some one to make $20.00:

To the person telling us which is the shortest verse in the Old Testament Scriptures by February 10th, 1882, we will give $20,00 in gold as a prize. The money will be forwarded to the winner February 15th, 1882. Those who try for the prize must send 20 cts. in silver (no postage stamp taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the March number of the Monthly, in which will be published the name and address of the winner of the prize, with the correct answer thereto. Cut this out; it may be worth $20,00 to you. Address, RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Pa.

OFFICE OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

HAGERSTOWN, MD., Jan. 17, 1882.

THE Board of County Commissioners, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Sec. 150, of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Revenue and Taxes" which reads as follows: "The County Commissioners are directed annually to correct the assessment of the property in their respective Counties, and to alter and correct the valuation of any property which may have been improperly valued, and to assess the same at its true value and to alter and correct the account of any person whose property or any part thereof may have been omitted in the former assessment, or may have been since acquired; and if real estate or other property shall from any cause have increased or diminished largely and materially in value since the last levy, they shall correct, alter and amend the assessment of the same as aforesaid, so as to conform to its present value."

Hereby give notice, that they will meet at their office, in Hagerstown, on the day named for the several Election Districts, as follows:

For Sharpsburg, Rohrersville, Sandy Hook and Keedysville, on Monday, February, 6, 1882.

For Clearspring, Hancock, Indian Spring and Boonsboro', on Tuesday, February 7.

For Cavetown, Leitersburg, Ringgold and Chewsville, on Wednesday, February 8.

For Williamsport, Tilghmanton, Beaver Creek and Downsville, on Thursday February 9.

For Hagerstown, Funkstown, Conococheague and Antietam, on Friday, Feb. 10.

No person will be heard on any other day except the one set for the district in which he or she may reside. Persons claiming an abatement must substantiate said claim by sufficient testimony to make a clear case.

By order of the Board,

LOWENSTEIN BROS.,

THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE FOR POPULAR

CLOTHIERS AND TAILORS,

—OF—

Hagerstown and Vicinity.

The undersigned being impressed by the rapid growth of Hagerstown, have determined to fill a void long felt by opening the beautiful New Store, No. 7, West Washington Street, nearly opposite the Baldwin House, with a first-class stock of

MEN'S, BOYS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING,

—AND—

Gent's Furnishing Goods,

together with a carefully selected and choice line of

Foreign and Domestic Piece Goods

for Merchant Tailoring. Our reputation of many years standing for fair and honorable dealing can be vouched for by many of the citizens of Frederick and adjoining Counties, and the firm-name and reputation will be fully maintained here; therefore our patrons can purchase of us with the full assurance of having nothing misrepresented. Our clothing is of the newest patterns, and cut in the most modern styles, and will be sold at prices to suit all. Our stock is well selected, and we can sell you from a common pair of working pants up to a suit fit to be married in. We call your attention to our Merchant Tailoring Department and ask a careful inspection of our large line of Cloths, Cassimeres, Beavers, Overcoating, Doeskins and Vestings. Being practical cutters ourselves we employ none but first-class workmen in this branch; and hence we can guarantee a perfect fit, together with the most durable workmanship. Our FURNISHING GOODS DEPARTMENT will be complete in every particular, and the variety to select from as large as any in Baltimore City. We take great pleasure in introducing "OUR PRIDE" SHIRT, the best in the market.

A Word to Business Men.

We mean to those men who imagine they cannot be suited in a ready-made garment; we mean those business men who pick up the papers and read our advertisements and never give them another thought. To those who have been paying $25, $30, $35 and $40 for a suit it seems impossible that we should fit them out for $10, $12, $14 and $16 in a good, stylish cut, well-made suit, but we can, and this class of men we invite to come to our store, to look at our goods, and bear witness to their neighbors that we prove the truth of our statement in the papers by the goods on our counters.

A Word to Workingmen.

To men whose honest toil produces values and enriches the country, and to whom more than any other class we are indebted for the tremendous magnitude of our sales; to them we return our thanks. We always pick out strong and substantial goods—goods that the workingmen buy. We are selling good working pants for 75 cts. $1.00 and $1.25; a good strong working suit for $4 or $6; a stout warm overcoat for $4 or $6; a good ulster for $6, and a good suit from $4 up to $10. Now, men give us your patronage, and we will sell you goods at lower prices than small dealers buy them.

Children's Suits.

In this branch we are in the lead at all times, not alone at selling at lower prices, but in unequaled varieties and shapes. We can show over a hundred varieties of children's suits in kilt jackets, pants, vests, and every conceivable color and design of trimming in overcoats. We have all the novelties of the season.

Boys' Suits and Overcoats.

Better bring your boy in early. We are offering special bargains in overcoats and suits for $3.50, $4.00, $4 50, $5.00 and $6 00. Overcoats for $3, $4, $5 and $6. Come and see us. Polite and attentive clerks to wait on you. No trouble to show goods.

Collars and Neckwear.

We are manufacturers' agents for collars and cuffs. One factory took the agency away from us because we would not sell their collars for 20 cts. and cuffs for 40 cts. We insisted on selling collars for 12 cts. and cuffs for 25 cts. We sell scarfs for 40 cts. that usually bring 75 cts. Remember, if you buy a suit of clothing of us and your friends don't say that you have got the worth of your money, or if you don't like the garment you can bring them back If we cannot make a fair exchange we will refund the money. Remember all our suits above ten dollars are our own make.

We are yours, &c.,
