HAND OF DEATH

Prominent Men of Kent Die During the Week.

Mr. Wm. T. Edwards died at his late home in Pomona Monday afternoon at 2. 45 o'clock of Brights disease, age 62. Funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2, p. m. from his late residence conducted by Rev. W. M. McCann; Interment in Chester cemetery. The following were the pall-bearers. Messrs J. C. Loud, W. E. Loud, A. C. Loud, Henry Brown, Richard Leaverton and Wm. J. Maslin; Chas. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mr. W. T. Edwards, who died on Monday, Feb. 24th, was one of the best known men in Quaker Neck. Mr. Edwards was 62 years old and lived all of his years in Kent county. He was a life-long Democrat and for a number of years was supervisor of roads in the Neck. He is survived by a widow, three daughters, Mrs. R. C. Leaverton, of Quaker Neck; Miss Fannie Edwards, of Baltimore; Miss Lydia Edwards, of Pomona, and one son, Hines Edwards, of Baltimore. His funeral was the largest held in this section for a number of years, as he was not only well known but well liked by every one. Early in the month Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were making ready to celebrate their 38th anniversary, when one of the daughters was taken ill and it had been postponed until later; but he was taken suddenly ill and never recovered from the attack. Mr. Edwards, living next to the M. E. parsonage, was a friend of the ministers, and many of them remember him for his many kind acts. He will indeed be missed by his family, to whom he was deeply attached, as he was a home man, and by every one with whom he had come in touch during the years of his life.

Mr. Ambrose B. Frazier died at his late home on Cannon street, Monday morning at 9 o'cock after a lingering illness of a complication of diseases. Mr. Frazier had been a great sufferer for several years and had the kind and loving attention of his wife and daughters. The deceased was about 58 years of age and is survived by his widow and three children, one son Charles W. of Berwyn, Md., and two daughters Misses Susie, teacher of Piney Neck, and Lucy Frazier at home. He lived for some years at Rock Hall but removed to Chestertown and held a responsible position with the old paper mill. He has also been on the Chestertown police force, at the college as engineer and in each position he was faithful. The funeral took place Wednesday at 12.30 conducted by Rev. E. Cuppage of Harrington Del., assisted by Dr. W. R. Graham. The following are the pall-bearers: Messrs. Jas. Walbert, Theo. Walbert, Capt. T. H. Pfeffer, Geo. Peacock, Jno. W. Hirons William Vansant. Interment in Chester cemetery. J. E. Ferguson, undertaker. The deceased was a member of the P. O. S. of A. and Jr. O. U. A. M. of Chestertown and Knights of Pythias, Rock Hall. The local orders sent delegation to the funeral.

William White, the eldest son of the Rev. W. L. White, pastor of Wesley M. E. Church of Dover, formerly in Chestertown, died on Saturday afternoon. Rev. Mr. White had had a letter from his son a few days back telling of a slight operation on the throat and of his expected visit to Philadelphia on Saturday last for further treatment at one of the city hospitals. In anticipation of this visit to Philadelphia, Rev. Mr. White went to Philadelphia on Saturday expecting to see his son and bring him to Dover for a few days' recuperation. When the father visited the hospital he found that his son was not there and left the city for Dover, stopping off in Wilmington. Saturday afternoon word was received from the son's home in New Jersey that he had died suddenly from heart trouble. Mrs. White at once took the afternoon train for New Jersey. Rev. Mr. White arrived in Dover on an evening train and was not apprised of his son's death until he had reached there. In view of the death in the family there was no preaching services in Wesley Church Sunday.

Charles C. Strong, aged 75, a prominent resident and farmer of Swan Point, near Rock Hall, Kent county, Md., died of heart trouble on Saturday, Feb. 22nd, at his beautiful home overlooking Chesapeake Bay and Rock Hall harbor. With the closing of his life marks the last of one of the most kind, generous and noble-hearted men of his day, noted as he was for his hospitality, a kind neighbor and friend. Mr. Strong's life was distinctly a home life, devoted to his home, rarely ever leaving except on important business; living for those around him, and extending a kind welcome to those that visited his hospitable home.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. Julia A. Strong, and the following children: Mrs. George E. Albee, wife of Capt. Geo. E. Albee, U. S. A., of Gratitude, Kent county, Md.; Roy T. Strong and Charles C. Strong, Jr.; two brothers, Mr. James W. Strong, of Inwood, W. Va., and Earl R. Strong, of Kent county; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Maslin, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Lillie Strong, of Chestertown. Funeral services were held at 11 a. m. on Monday at his late residence, Rev. Mr. Dupuy officiating. The bearers were Messrs. T. Ringgold Jones, Walter H. Hadaway, Charles L. Miller, Lawrence Stevens, M. Wilber Thomas, Elbert Nickerson. Interment at St. Paul's; Charles L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Harriett E. Phillips, wife of Wm. W. Phillips, and mother of Wm. Phillips, of Quaker Neck, died suddenly on Monday morning on the Toulson farm, aged 74. She had arrived the previous Saturday from Massachusetts to make her home in Kent with her son, and died suddenly of appoplexy on Monday. She was a sweet, lovable character. The funeral took place Wednesday, Dr. H. B. Martin officiating; interment in Chester cemetery, J. E. Ferguson undertaker.

GRANGE NOTES.

After the business session of the Kennedyville Grange on Monday evening, a most interesting program was enjoyed. A splendid eulogy upon "Washington as a Warrior and Peacemaker" was given by W. F. Melvin. Two fine papers bearing upon the life of Miss Willard were read. Mr. M. H. Landing held the closest attention and interest of the audience in delivering his inspiring oration, "The Immortal Washington." In a few remarks Mr. T. Shafer placed a high estimate upon the service Lincoln rendered to his country. The following subjects will be discussed next Monday evening: "Preparation of Foods," "How can the farmer be brought to a realization of his opportunities," and "What is the value of a really good farm dog."

Still Pond Grange will hold a joint celebration on Saturday, March 1, celebrating their fifth anniversary as a grange and also a sort of "house warming. The new grange rooms have been very attractively fixed up by the grangers and all the members, old, young and "back-sliders," are invited to be present. The candidates receive the third and fourth degrees at the afternoon meeting. Supper at 5 and the event at 7 p. m.

The tomato growers of Buck Neck and vicinity will meet today at 2 p. m. at Fairlee Grange Hall.

ONE of Chestertown's prominent ladies joined the "hikers" at Havre de Grace.

WEDDING BELLS

THE wedding of Miss Mable Jefferson and Mr. Sylvester, of Caroline, is announced to take place today at the home of the bride's parents on High street.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the M. E. parsonage, Chesterville, last Wednesday evening, February 12th. when Miss Lillie May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Durham, became the bride of Mr. James Lesage, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lesage, both living near Millington. After the ceremony they were drove back home where a table of refreshments was served and a very delightful and enjoyable evening was spent. A number of friends were present.
