SAVING IN ROADS.

Because of the great saving in roads the county tax-rate is cut to 94 cents on the $100. This will be gratifying to all tax-payers. The rate was made yesterday. The State tax will be 31 cents.

BIDS TOO HIGH.

The County Commissioners on Tuesday opened bids for building the Still Pond—Betterton State Aid road. The lowest bid was a concrete road at about $7,500 per mile. This means that the Betterton residents would have to raise more money and also all concerned.

Commissioner W. B. Miller was in conference here Thursday night and said the road could be built of shells for $5,000 per mile.

It is on this opinion that the work will proceed and an early meeting will be held to put Mr. Miller's idea into practical operation.

WEDDING BELLS

BARNES—SMITH

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Smith, High street, was the scene of a pretty wedding Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The principals were Miss Clara Belle Smith, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Smith, and Mr. John Elwood Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes, and an efficient member of the NEWS composing room.

The bride was tastily attired in a traveling suit of tan Bedford Cord with large picture hat and gloves to match, and carried white roses. The maid of honor was Miss Lillian Smith, the bride's sister, who was becomingly attired in pink Crepe de Chine and carried pink roses. Mr. Herman Blackway was best man. Miss Fannie Stuart played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. E. Barrett. The parlor was trimmed in cut flowers, also an arch of boxwood and daises, the color scheme being green and white. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left by Tolchester for Baltimore for a short wedding trip. On their return they will reside on Kent street. They received many useful presents, including an outfit for kitchen given by the Sunday school class of which the bride is a member, at a "kitchen shower" party held at the home of Miss Fannie Stuart last week and a handsome set of silverware from the groom's sister in Baltimore.

ADKINS—GRAHAM.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church was the centre of attraction to society Thursday evening, the occasion being the wedding of Miss Jessie Graham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter R. Graham, pastor of the church here, and E. Dale Atkins, a prominent business man of Salisbury. The church was tastily decorated and ceremony performed by Dr. Graham in the presence of a crowded edifice. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Clara Belle Usilton the party approached the altar where the nuptial knot was tied. The ushers were John Newell Graham, Chestertown; Walter S. Sheppard, Harry C. Adkins and C. Edgar Laws, of Salisbury. Fred. P. Adkins, also of Salisbury, was the best Fred. P. Adkins, of Salisbury, was best man, and the bride was accompanied by her brother, Walter M. Graham, of Washington. Two pretty daughters, Mabel and Sarah, of Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Bellingslea, of Chicago, acted as flower bearers and preceded the bride. The maid-of-honor was Miss Ann B. Smith who wore a handsome dress of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The bride wore a handsome gown of white charmeuse veiled with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lillies-of-the-valley. A reception was held at the home of the bride after which the wedded couple left by auto for an extended trip. They will reside in Salisbury.

Among the out-of-town guests were Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Billingslea and two children, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Graham, and Harold Graham, of Washington; Walter M. Graham, of Baltimore; Mrs. A. E Black, Mrs. A. H. Wentz, Mrs. Geo. W. Dexter, Thos. L. Hines, Baltimore; Mrs. E. W. Veasey, Pocomoke; Misses Caroline and Sue Billingslea, Westminister; Miss Mary Turner, Easton; Misses Wilsie and Minnie Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. P. Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sheppard, Harry Adkins, Edger Laws, of Salisbury.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Brittain Sayre, daughter of Mrs. Parker Burbank, and Mr Henry Covington Butler, of Queen Anne's county, Maryland will take place on Wednesday, June 25, at 7. 30 o'clock at the Seventh Baptist Church Baltimore and will be followed by a reception at the Stafford.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Lambert of Chestertown announce the wedding of their daughter, Ruth, to Mr. Kenneth G. Faulkner, of Norfolk, Va., on Wednesday, June 25th, at the home of the former. No cards in county.

Among the approaching June weddings will be that of Miss Marie Westcott, daughter of Mrs. Charles T. Westcott, of Washington, and Raymond S. Williams, a young lawyer of Baltimore. The wedding will take place June 21 in Washington, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs Russell Wilson, formerly Miss Eunice Westcott, 1735 New Hampshire avenue. Owing to a recent death in Mr. Williams' family, the wedding will be a very quiet one, with only members of the two families and a few intimate friends present.

ROWDYISM AT LOCUST GROVE.

The foreign element at work on the State road near Locust Grove got on a bender Saturday night and took possession of that territory. One of the men, bolder than the others, went to the home of Mrs Andrew Taylors' and demanded admittance. She was alone with her 12-year-old son and shut the door in the coward's face. He then came to the window and tried to get in the house. In the meantime the boy went out the back door and to the home of Postmaster Rutter for assistance Upon the return of Mr. Rutter the fellow left but not until he had used some foul language. Sheriff McKee and Officer Frank Lockerman arrived at a late hour and arrested four. State's Attorney Vickers conducted a hearing before Justice Pennington Monday and the Justice fined three of them $24 and sent the fourth one to House of Correction for a year.

Upon complaint and request of Locust Grove neighborhood the county commissioners authorized the employment of a special officer.

BIRD MEN SOAR OVER CHESTERTOWN

A Thrilling Sight For Residents—Four Airships Sail Over Chester River Course—Children In School Notified By Fire Alarm.

Chestertown is on the map. Tuesday, June 3, the first airship arrived over Chestertown followed by three others within a few minutes of each other. The NEWS man was notified by telephone shortly after 9 a. m. that an airship was flying toward town following the course of the river. We hurried to the wharf at foot of High street notifying the people as we went and had barely reached Water street when we heard a terrible noise overhead like a threshing outfit. We looked up and there soaring in the sky as gracefully as any bird was as hydra-aeroplane guided by an expert's hand. He turned when nearly over the old custom house and flew out of sight down the river.

Within 15 minutes two more "ships" hove in sight, coming from down the river and these were seen by hundreds whereas the first one was seen by only a few. The whirr of the engines could be plainly heard as they soared directly over High street and the NEWS BUILDING and shot off toward the South, the two being side by side for a few minutes. The men in these could be plainly seen and their altitude put at not more than 800 to 1,000 feet. The fourth ship came at 9.45 when we thought the last one had gone over and also reached Chestertown but turned before going as far as Chester bridge.

It was a beautiful and rare sight and it is to be regretted that our people did not have some notice of the flight. One of the flyers stopped at Deep Point at Mr. Jack Westcott's, got a cup of water, adjusted his engine, and soared off into the air as easily as a bird.

Prof. Smyth, in order that the school children should see the sight, gave the fire alarm and the school house was soon emptied of its precious contents. The little folks in the primary school at the wharf got a good view of the sight.

Lieut. John H. Towers, chief of navy aviators, and the corps of student officers at the aviation camp at Annapolis were the flyers. The four machines were of the hydro-aeroplane tyre and each carried one passenger. The machines left the aviation grounds shortly after 9 o'clock and covered a distance of about 50 miles. The average speed of all the craft was close to a mile a minute. The average height maintained after leaving Chestertown was about 1,000 to 1,500 feet.

Those who made the trip were Lieutenant Towers and Ensign P. N. L. Bellinger, Ensigns Chevalier and Billingsley, Lieutenant Cunningham, Marine Corps, with Private Green as mechanician, and Lieutenant Smith, Marine Corps, with Chief Machinist's Mate Daniels as passenger.

Mr. Elmer E. Leary says he was on Quaker Neck wharf and all four were in sight at one time making a beautiful view.

Come again.
