GIFT OF OLD GLORY.

Mr. Purnell Jefferson, one of Kent's active "young" men, has presented to Mr. James Beck, President of the Kent & Queen Anne's Fair, a splendid American flag 12x18 feet. This flag belonged to the old Worton Fair Association and when it disbanded in 1882' Mr. William Stephens turned Old Glory over to Mr. Jefferson. It has been kept in a bag in a chest and has not been out since the Fair until yesterday morning when Mr. Jefferson presented it to Mr. Beck in the KENT NEWS office in the presence of the editors, James T. Dixon and J. P. Parrott.

In 1881 the last Worton Fair was held. In 1882 a big tournment took place conducted by J. W. Bordley, J. F. Connelly and B. F. Fleming. The first Fair was held in Kent near St James Church in 1839.

STATEMENT IN BARROLL ORGAN INCORRECT.

Millington, June 24, 1913.

R. H. COLLINS,

My Dear Sir:—You have a statement in your paper of last Saturday that in part is not correct in that you quote me as saying that Howard Turner was a Republican from my personal knowledge. That is not what I said, I did say he was a Republican, but was only speaking as I have thought of the family as being Republican, but not from any knowledge as to how he voted, and do not know, as we never talked politics. I also said that he had voted for Dr. Maxwell some years ago, can not say, but think it was his first vote. Please correct this.

Very truly yours,
JOHN C. TURNER

[This letter is a copy of one sent to Transcript by J. C. Turner but never published. Dr. Maxwell ran before Mr. Turner's time and his father supported him.—EDS]

AN ABSURD CONTROVERSY.

MESSRS EDITORS:

On several occasions my attention has been called to statements in the Transcript, with reference to the Democracy of Mr. Howard Turner, and among them is one that establishes the fact beyond doubt, that he Mr. T, is a democrat and makes all their, (Dr. B. s) statements a laughing subterfuge

Several weeks ago Dr. B. made the statement (in effect) that one of his men had seen Mr. Turner's ticket and it was marked for the full Republican candidates.

Now how sad for Dr. B's reliable man's memory, and how ridiculous in Dr. B (the wise) to publish such a statement in his, (Great luminary) for the meekest and humblest and dummest of us know, that the Australian Ballott system went into effect by the time Mr. Turner was old enough to vote, and therefore, even Dr. B. (Reliable) one could not see how any one voted.

However, since the Great Doctor has taken absolute charge (of the Children Hope) he has (apparently become possessed of a (Great Wision) and can of course see many miles.

Indeed it is so strange that he has not taken up his real calling of that of Fortune telling, and assumed his proper and just title of Tomy the Wise.

Igara.

Farm Sold—Mr. Park Rasin has sold his farm advertised in the NEWS, to Mr. Leslie Carter. This farm is near St James Church and is a nice property.

ATTENTION FAIRLEE GRANGERS

There will be a special meeting at the Hall on Wednesday, July 16, at 6 p. m. Business of importance, All members are urged to attend. One of the features of the program will be a debate on the great suffrage question. Sandwiches and a light luncheon served instead of supper.

A special picnic will be held on M Harvey B. Moore's lawn at Betterton by Still Pond Grange on Thursday, July 10, at 3.30 p. m. The Anti-Dish Washing League will have charge of supper. Only fingers used, no plates. Supper at 6 p. m.

Is It Possible That Old Kent Has Got To Plead Guilty of Having An Ananias Club With 68 Members?

Rock Hall, June 25, 1913.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

Is it not a sad commentary on our old commonwealth (Kent) to be charged with having an Ananias Club with so large a membership.

Indeed we feel sorry for our friends of Still Pond, Betterton and Kennedyville, for did they not sign parchment on which there was a statement (a supposed statement of fact) and lo, did not Dr. Bowers, alias Thomas the Wise, go into Queen Anne and bring forth one lone man, (a Herald) unknown and unannounced, and prove forth with that the 68 men of Kent were falsifiers, perverts and unclean with tongue or pen, and did not Thomas the Wise pour forth his wrath and condemnation against them in public print, did he not declare that he and his Herald were men of vision and learning, and knowing, and the 68 were only triflers and unworthy of consideration or belief.

Now Messrs. Editors we love our Queen Annes friends, and are not going to say anything bad about the gentleman that Thomas the Wise quotes to us (for we know him not) but we do know the 68 (most of them personally) and we cannot believe them eligible as members of the above named Club.

Indeed if Thomas the Wise would pardon me, I would suggest he go down in Talbot or perhaps the West Indies and bring another ONE (another Herald) of knowledge, and long and sure of sight and at once proclaim him to his people as another emblem of truth; for indeed, Messrs. Editors, we cannot bring ourselves to accept this lone (Herald) statement against our own 68 good and true men of Kent. Men who have grown grey in not only fighting the battles of democracy, but in making their homes and old Kent a respected commonwealth.

B. S. G.

MASSEY ITEMS.

Toghwogh Tribe No. 169, Improved Order of Red Men, held an election of their elected Chiefs for the ensuing six months at their last council meeting. The raised Chiefs are as follows:

Sachem—Thomas C. Roe, Sr.
Senior Sagamore—F. Lester Newnam.
Junior Sagamore—Bartus Wilkens.
Prophet—John O. Shelton, Sr.
First Sannap—J. Roy Moore.
Second Sannap—Cleveland Justis.
Warriors—Walter Redman, E. M. Newnam, R. H. Darrell, Samuel T. J. Starkey.
Braves—George R. Moffett, Charles H. Hemphrey, Chas. F. Baker, L. H. Murphy.

The hold-overs, who are only elected the first of every year, are Chief of Records W. T. Medford and Keeper of Wampum E. Thos. Massey. After the election Great Sachem Walker and Past Great Sachem Townsend, from Baltimore, and Past Great Sachem McGraw and Great Sannap Sloam, from Elkton, gave the boys a very interesting talk. Say, we have a splendid Tribe and making a splendid showing, and it is now the time for all Palefaces to take the step and become one of our Tribe. May it be so. The news also has reached us that our good fellowmen of Chestertown are trying to get together a Tribe of Red Men, and we wish to take these means that they may be successful.

The ladies of Lynch Church are to build a refreshment hall for holding suppers, etc., at Lynch.

THE champion cabbage grower of this section is Mr. John Bell who has thousands of fine ones and his "Jersey wakefield" variety has given the NEWS are as perfect as any we have ever seen,
