The New Year

Will it bring you Prosperity and Good Luck or Poverty and Adversity?

We Know This:

That with those who keep a Bank Account prosperity has a better chance.

Why not start a Bank Account with the New Year? Be able, when the year is old, to say, with the prosperous ones: "Financially, the past year has been the best year of my life."

Don't be placed with the "quitter," who complains about "hard times and heavy taxes."

The Kent County Savings Bank has administered to the wants of its customers through good times and hard times, doing its best always to render substantial and efficient service.

You are invited to associate yourself with us as a depositor, and grow with us.

New Year Greeting

Now that New Year's is nearly on us and our thoughts are for our loved ones, we take this opportunity to call your attention to the SAVINGS DEPARTMENTS of the

where by making a deposit of one dollar or more we give you a Pass Book, made out in the name of the one to whom you wish to give it, and on New Years morning you can present it.

A most appropriate gift.

Young people who learn to save in youth form a habit that will prove beneficial through life, by encouraging them to add to it, and lay the foundation for a substantial account later on.

Our facilities are at your command.

Court Orders Murderers to Baltimore—Escorted to Boat by Soldiers Amid Jeers of Populace—To Be Tried In Elkton March 2—H. E. Perkins and Allan Goldsborough Ask For Removal.

A Scene Unprecedented in Kent County

Grand Jury In Session.

Chief Judge Albert Constable, of Elkton; Associate Judges W. T. Adkins, of Easton, and P. B. Hopper, of Centreville, arrived here on the train shortly after 11 o'clock Monday and proceeded at once to the Courthouse.

Court was called by Crier Greenwood and Judge Constable addressed the jury charging them to deal dispassionately with the matter before them. The members of the jury were as follows:

Wilbur W. Hubbard, John C. Redmile, Richard B. Willson, John N. Bennett, Samuel F. Cooper, Albert Jervis, John T. Moffett, George W. Sutton, B. I. Taylor, Harry T. Clark, George T. Williams, George W. Watts, William R Crow, Benj. F. Davis, Charles M. Hurtt, Josiah R. Jarrell, Jacob Shriley, Harry T. Rash, William B. Plummer, John Brice, John C. Jones, James E. Hurlock and Edward W. Emory.

"We the Grand Jurymen of Kent county, having been reconvened in special session to investigate the murder of our worthy citizen, James R Coleman, found,

First—That the daily papers, in giving an account of this fatal event had so exaggerated the affair as to inflame the public mind, thereby making it necessary for your Jury to be very deliberate and to try to be perfectly sane in our investigation, and it has taken more time than you can imagine to examine 34 witnesses, for we did not want to make a wrong step, and after an intelligent investigation and inquiry, we failed entirely to connect Tom Blake with the crime and the fact that Mabel and Paroway disclaimed so positively that he had anything to do with it we were unable to establish in any way Blake's connection, the only thing being he was an indolent fellow, would not work and was an undesirable citizen.

Second—We have brought in as you are aware, a true bill against Norman Mabel and James Paroway, the perpetrators of this fearful and awful crime and in order that there may not be a repetition of the tumult insurrection and threatened lynchings, we would suggest that our Honorable Court explain that the law of recent years provides for just such cases as these, or we your Jurymen are by law the servants of the people to maintain their rights, liberty and happiness.

Third—As instructed by this Honorable Court we investigated in regard to the attack made upon our county jail, Saturday night, December 27th, and from the best information we were able to obtain, we learned that the threatened riot, stated openly that our Governor, our courts and lawyers who are entrusted to safeguard our liberties, had been too lenient with our criminals, but personally we did not believe this was true, and we cannot believe that any members of our Bar would for a pecuniary reward use their influence to let a guilty man go unpunished.

We further learned that the majority of those who invaded our town, after having been assured by our State's Attorney and former Judge James Alfred Pearce that the criminals would remain in Chestertown until they could be properly indicted and tried, were satisfied and left, and that subsequently a set of young men did forcibly enter the jail, which was certainly very reprehensible and as your Honors know were presented for so doing. But later reconsidered and failed to find a True Bill

We have tried to be faithful in the discharge of our duties and we trust that our deliberations have been satisfactory to this Honorable Court. Respectfully submitted.

JOHN C. REDMILE,
Temporary Foreman.

MEN WHO FACED WOULD-BE LYNCHERS

Second Row—Detective John H. Kratz, Sheriff William E. Brown and former Sheriff L. J. Keyser.

It is remarkable that every man was promptly in his place having received notice Saturday night.

When court convened the room was packed to suffocation, the corridors and stairways outside were packed so that a person caught in the jam could not move and at least 200 men stood on the Courthouse green, unable to gain admission to the building. The crowd was entirely orderly.

This was no doubt largely due to the fact that the assurance given by former Judge James Alfred Pearce and State's Attorney Vickers were verefied and fulfilled by the prompt arrival of the judges and the opening of Court. When this was done the promise of these gentlemen was carried out and the matter taken in full control by the Court.

By 10 o'clock it was estimated that more than 500 outsiders were in Chestertown. The streets were literally black with teams and the sidewalks crowded with those who had come in them. Business was almost at a standstill, town people mingling with the countrymen and discussing the situation.

In the jail the accused negroes, still badly frightened by their narrow escape Saturday night, cowered under the protection of the local officers and the 12 members of the Baltimore City Police Department who arrived here Sunday evening under orders from Governor Goldsborough.

While the officers anticipated no trouble and no treats were heard from the crowd, there was no relaxation of the grim faithfulness with which the jail and its inmates were guarded.

Owing to the fact that State's Attorney Vickers had gotten the evidence in fine shape, the Grand Jury was enabled to get to work promptly. Besides Detectives Pumphrey and Kratz and Attorney Vickers, among the witnesses were: Dr. Frank B. Smith, who attended Coleman after the murder; Walter I., W. Frank and Grover C. Coleman, sons of the dead man; Nathan Lieberman, keeper of the store where the negroes had gathered prior to the crime; Deputy Fire Marshal William Famous, who was present when Mabley confessed; Smith Butcher, John and Montgomery Reed, Daniel Mabel and his wife, William Carter and Emma Wilson, all colored. The Wilson woman is Mabel's sister. After the crime she communicated with the authorities and told them her brother's coat was [illegible] with blood.
