VOL. 76 — CHESTERTOWN, MD. SATURDAY, MAY 2, 1914 — NO. 6

Your purse strings

will loosen as you pass our store and see the windows "crowded with bargains."

Let us suggest to you, Mr. Farmer, the early selection of your needs for this Spring. The time to make this selection is NOW, the place is HERE.

Note the prices—pick out the ones you like—and have them put aside for you until you are ready for them.

If you have never dealt with us, it is your fault; but if you deal with us just once and do not continue, it is our fault. So come in to see us and give us a chance.

We enjoy showing our goods just as much as you do seeing them, and we will see if we cannot show you some bargains.

We are yours for business.

A Brilliant Event.

Prominent among the Spring weddings on the Eastern Short was that of Miss Lura Ahern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ahern, of Millington, Md., and Mr. Philip H. Wood, Jr., of Wilmington, Del., which occurred Saturday evening, April 25th, at 8 o'clock in Asbury M. E. Church, Millington.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father was gowned in white satin trimmed with pearls and orange blossoms and wore a tulle veil and carried a shower of roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Clare Ahern, wore pink charmeuse draped in chiffon and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids included the Misses Ruby and Marguerite Ahern, and Miss Blanche Power of Millington, and Miss Ethel Holbrook, of Philadelphia. They were attired in satin gowns in pastel shades and carried pink and white sweet peas. The best man was Mr. William Griffith, of New York. The groomsmen included Mr. Frank Lyndale and Mr. Willard Springer of Wilmington, Mr. Howard West, of Dover, and Mr. Wethered Barroll, of Baltimore. Herberta Aldrich, of New York, and Helen Tyler, of Millington, acted as flower girls. They wore embroidered lingerie frocks and carried baskets of pink and white sweet peas.

The weddidg party proceeded to the altar to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. David Barr Ford, of Chestertown, accompanied by Mr. Warren Hurlock on the violin. Mrs. Frances Ellery Fitch, of New York, sang "O Promise Me" during the ceremony. A musical program was given before the ceremony and Mrs. Fitch sang the Bercuese from Tocelyn and O Perfect Day.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after which the bride and groom left on a honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood will reside in Wilmington and will be at home at 914 Jefferson St. after May 20th.

Many beautiful wedding presents were received. The bride's present from the groom was a handsome ring an amethyst surrounded by diamonds. The groomsmen received jeweled gold stick pins from the groom.

Mrs. J. P. Ahern, mother of the bride, wore a black charmeuse gown draped in beaded chiffon. Mrs. P. H. Wood, Sr., wore gray satin. Miss Clara Wood wore rose color charmeuse.

Sale of Constable Farms.

The public sale of the Constable farms drew quite a number to Chestertown Saturday and good prices were realized for these farms. It required about an hour to sell the 288 acre place the bids being small and quite a rivalry existed. The sales were reported as follows:

The Chas. E. Faulkner tract of 288½ acres to Mrs. Marie S. Baker, of New York, wife of Rev. Clarence Baker. She was a Miss Woodall, of Georgetown. Price $18,010.

The George C. Johnston tract of 180 acres was struck off to Mr. John H. Clendaniel for $11.050.

The 56 acre tract was held up at a bid of $2925 and the Jarvis place of 230 acres at a bid of $10.800. Both tracts combined were then offered and withdrawn at a bid of $14,000. This tract will likely be sold within a few days as $15,000 has been offered since Saturday.

LATER—This last tract has been sold to Mr. Richard Haggerty, of Kennedyville. The price is said to have been around $16,000.

The "Beach" farm in the First District, Cecil county, was sold Monday at trustees' sale to Reginald Constable for $8,100.

Hon. Albert Constable, Wm Pepper Constable, Henry L. Constable and John G. Constable, Esqs., were present at the sale.

Personal * * * * and Social

W. M. Slay, Esq., attended the funeral of his sister, Miss Martha Slay, in Camden on Monday. She died suddenly of heart trouble Saturday.

Hon. James Alfred Pearce and wife attended the wedding of Miss Value and Mr. Alfred Pearce Dennis in Baltimore Thursday.

Mrs. John G. Westcott, of near Pomona, was operated on last week for appendicitis. She is doing very well.

Mrs. Jacob Shriley, of near Edesville, is in the Church Home hospital, Baltimore, having been operated on Thursday for appendicitis.

Mr. Owen B. Crow, returned to his Chestertown home on Thursday from Western Maryland, where he has been for his health. He is very much improved.

Mr. Randolph Waddell, of Chestertown, has accepted a position with the Good Roads Commission.

Mr. Mingle and his estimable wife have decided to return to Pennsylvania after a pleasant sojourn in Chestertown of about a year. They have made many friends here who regret their departure.

Hon. Carville D. Benson, of Baltimore county, was the guest of Wm. W. Beck, Esq., last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Copper are spending several days at White Sulphur Springs.

Mrs. Garrett Foxwell is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Smith at Fairlee

Messrs. Eugene Gooding and Bernard P. Wess, of Baltimore are visiting Mr. Gooding's sister, Mrs. Josiah Massey in Queen Anne's county.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ames, of Hawley, Pa., have been the guests of Prof. and Mrs. Mark Creasy.

Miss Daisy Barnes is visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Rev. Mr. Meginness, rector of St. Paul's, was operated on last week for appendicitis. He is doing nicely.

Mrs. Norman Jefferson is in Middletown, N. Y., at the home of her sister, who is critically ill.

Higher Rates on Liquor Shipments.

The Tolchester Steamboat Company Wednesday made application to the Public Service Commission for an increase in rates, to be effective Friday, on spirituous and malt liquors shipped to points reached by the company's steamers. The application is based on limit shipping liquor law which becomes operative in all the Eastern Shore counties May 1st. Under this law the transportation companies are required to limit deliveries of liquor to one gallon or of six dozen bottles of beer per month to one consignee. Because of the additional labor imposed upon the companies in keeping track of shipments and because of penalties for which they are liable for violations of the law, the increase in rates is asked.

While the Commission has as yet taken no formal action on the petition it is understood that it is inclined to view the complaint as justified and will approve the proposed increased tariff. If this is done there is little doubt that the other transportation companies will follow suit.

APPOINTEES ANNOUNCED

Fourth Class Postmasters Named as Predicted Exclusively in The News—Others Will Soon Follow—Plan of Officials to Give to High Mark.

The NEWS last week contained the probable appointments of postmasters for fourth-class postoffices. This forecast was confirmed on Wednesday when the Postoffice Department sent in for confirmation the following names:

Betterton—Katherine E. Brice.
Galena—Minnie B. Hadley.
Golts—Wm. G. Shallcross.
Kennedyville—Frank C. Miller.
Rock Hall—Ida M. Hinson.
Massey—M. P. Dunn.

The Postmaster-General, adhering to his original plan has made the appointment from the list for each postoffice in the order of their standing on said list. He has refused to change his plans so far and the only thing that Congressmen Covington can do is to accept the list. The Postmaster-General says that if for any reason, the first standing applicant is not a proper man or women for the appointment that he will then take up the second one on the list, but that there must be some good and sufficient reason why the applicants shall not be appointed in the order of their standing.

It is hinted that if the party standing first on any list has been too active as a politician on past occasions that this might militate against his appointment but if no charges are preferred the appointments are likely to be made as shown on the eligible lists. The Postmaster-General has refused absolutely to listen to any suggestion that a Democrat shall be preferred over another except as they stand on the eligible list and it is not likely that the recommendations of any State Central Committeeman would be accepted which would turn down a high man on the eligible list for one who stood a lower examination.

At Worton Station Mr. Theodore Jewell lead the list and will likely be named as postmaster.

Who They Are.

Mrs. Catherine E. Brice, the postmistress at Betterton, is the wife of Mr. Chas. E. Brice, an industrious and successful merchant, and a lady who will make a faithful official. She is a Democrat and succeeds Mr. G. W. Owens, who has served the people well.

At Galena Mrs. Boyd will be succeeded by Mrs. Minnie Brockson Hadley, a Democrat, and thoroughly fitted to give the public good service.

At Golts, Wm. G. Shallcross is the nephew of the late T. J. Shallcross, a sterling young Democrat and a hustling merchant.

At Kennedyville, the accommodating, faithful Joe Weer is succeeded by Frank C. Miller who came to Kent from Pennsylvania. He has been associated with T. Shafer in the conduct of the creamery where he made quite a favorable impression on the business men. He is fully competent and his many friends are glad he is to remain here. He is a Democrat.

At Rock Hall, Miss Ida Hinson is appointed. She is the sister-in-law of the present postmaster. She studied hard for the examination and earned her reward. We bespeak for her a successful term.

Mr. Dunn at Massey is reappointed. He makes a good official.

A SPIRITED ELECTION.

George R. Rouse Elected Commissioner—Bond Issue Carried By Big Majority—$25,000 To Be Spent On Streets And Sewers.

Mr. George R. Rouse was elected town commissioner Monday after a heated contest his opponent, being Mr. Wm. S. Carroll, who has been commissioner for nine years. Mr. Carroll has made a conscientious officer and helped to accomplish some needed improvements. The vote was 197 to 87.

The proposition to bond the town for $25,000 for sewers and streets won out by vote of 178 to 93. This means that a sewer will be built on Cannon street, College avenue and up High street from Ringgold's corner to Catholic church where the present sewer ends. It also means that a macadam street will be built at once from Voshell House to Ringgold's corner and from Bordley's corner to depot.

The proposition to change the system of electing the members of the Water Board was defeated by vote of 181 to
