A CAR FOR 56 CENTS!

Byron Wood, of Galena, Wins Metz Car in Chestertown With No. 23—Awarded Tuesday.

Mr. Frank V. Simpers, as agent for Mr. Pratt, delivered to Byron Wood, of Galena, on Wednesday the Metz car which was awarded him at a drawing in front of the Voshell House Tuesday. Mr. Wm. S. Culp drew the tickets, and on the third drawing ticket numbered 23 in series 24 was drawn, and it was declared the winning number.

It was soon claimed by Mr. Byron Wood, son of Mr. Wm. A. Wood, of Galena, who came to town and drove away with his prize as happy as a prince. His chances cost him 11, 22 and 23 cents. This car sells for about $400.

TREATS IN STORE.

Music lovers of Chestertown and vicinity will not lack for appetizing programs this winter if plans now on foot materialize.

The Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church, desiring to give to the public wholesome amusement, have signed a contract for four splendid features to be given during the winter. They do not hope to realize a penny from the venture but feel that they will be rendering the community a service in bringing good talent here such as the Chautauqua brought in the summer.

The first number will be a big ladies orchestra on Saturday evening, Nov. 28, followed in January, February and March by two fine lectures and a lady cartoonist and lecturer. Full particulars as to dates, prices, etc., will be given next week.

Mr. T. Kemp Bordley is making an effort to secure a series of five fine Peabody recitals to be held in the Lyceum this fall and winter. This should also receive the help of all.

Deckhand Drowned.—Jas. W. Johnson, colored, 21 years old, of Quaker Neck, fell off Pier 9, Light street, Monday afternoon and was drowned a few minutes after he had jumped from the steamer B. S. Ford. The boat was just docking and Johnson, who was employed on her as a deckhand, jumped to the pier with a hawser. In swinging around a pile his foot slipped and he plunged between the boat and the wharf. Ropes were thrown and one of the ship's boats was lowered, but the body did not come to the surface. The police boat Lannan recovered the body and took it to the morgue.

Don't Fail To Register!

Next Tuesday and Wednesday, October 6 and 7, are the last days in which you have to get registered. No Democrat should fail to go to the registration office in his precinct and register.

LOCAL NOTES

A. C. LOUD and other farmers are feeding their pigs on peaches and cream to produce ham of fine flavor. As men are what their diet makes them, according to some theorists, he might advertise these hams as fine complexion food.

A NEW and additional elevator for storing grain is being erected at Price's mill, near St. Paul's church. It is said to hold 6,000 bushels.

J. WATERS RUSSELL has sold for J. D. Clark his 104 acre farm near Starkey's Corner, in Queen Anne's county, to Edward Crowding, of near Kennedyville.

IT is reported that Mr. H. P. Skipper, President of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, will erect a home on the State road near Chester bridge and rent his farm.

THE best fishing record this week was that made Tuesday by Capt. Edw. W. Emory, Edw. Wilkins and H. C. Brown. They caught 110 fine rock and trout off Swan Point.

J. T. DECORSE has sold to George Camp, of Wilmington, his stock of goods, etc., on High street and the new merchant is now in charge. Mr. DeCorse will remove to a small place and go to farming on a small scale.

THE Chestertown Auto Club, numbering about 50, left on a run to Wilmington yesterday afternoon. They expected to take dinner at the Hotel Dupont, attend an entertainment and return at night.

THE Town Relief at a special meeting held Wednesday evening reluctantly accepted the resignation of Mrs. H. B. Rote as president. These officers were elected: President, Mrs. Frank Clark; vice, Mrs. W. H. McKee: secretary, Miss Mamie Thompson; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Copper.

G. W. COPPER has about finished Geo. T. Williams' new house at Worton and it is a fine home evidencing Mr. Copper's good workmanship and Mrs. Williams' taste.

THE Ford goes into every place but society. Now that President Wilson has purchased one of the "road lice" machines, society folk are sitting up and taking notice.—Caroline Sun.

A HORSE was missed from Mr. Will Cleaver's stable Monday night but he was afterward found in the back field. It seems that some one stole the horse, used him and then turned him out in the field.

MR OWEN C. SMITH has sold his farm, consisting of residence, outbuildings and five acres of land, in Queen Annes, on the river front, near town, to Judge Herbert E. Skipper. Possession will be given October 10.

WHILE at work in the old Kent House near Kent Square a few weeks ago Mr. Bertie Crouch discovered this date and name on one of the joice upstaire: "Nov. 6, 1845, J. B. Sappington." This house is among the oldest in town.

THE hour has produced the man. He hails from South Dakota, and he is an agricultural expert who makes plants grow with potatoes on their roots and tomatoes on their tops. If he does not succeed in reducing the high cost of living, then experiment in that direction is an utter failure.

AN important meeting of Chester Lodge A. F. & A. M., will be called for Tuesday, October 20th, 10 a. m., to meet Grand Master Thomas J. Shryock, of Baltimore. This distinguished gentleman will make a tour of the Shore this month visiting the Lodges. He has held this high position for 29 years and this will be his first visit to Chester Lodge.

THE work on the State Road between Centreville and Wye Mills, is practically completed and the heavy wagons and machinery of Contractor B. B. Gonder, have already been moved away. This makes a straight stretch of finished State Road from Easton to Chestertown, a distance of thirty-seven miles.

SHORTLY before nine o'clock Monday morning, Mr. J. B. Reed, of Wilmington, had his leg broken between the knee and ankle in front of the Voshell House. Mr. Reed, accompanied by several friends made the trip to Chestertown Sunday. Upon leaving Monday morning Mr. Reed cranked the car, a back-fire causing the hand grip to slip, breaking his leg. Dr. H. Benge Simmons set the broken limb and he returned home same day.

WM. E. DENNEY, County Commissioner of Queen Anne's, was the victim of a peculiar accident last week while running his automobile on Kent Island. In some manner a bumble bee got up his trouser's leg and stung him so severely that he forgot about his auto, and in his efforts to get away from the bee let go of the steering wheel, with the result that the machine collided violently with a telephone pole and was damaged to the extent of about one hundred dollars. Mr. Denney says, "The little things of life sometimes cause a world of trouble."

THERE was quite a large and enthusiastic meeting of friends and patrons of Kennedyville public school held in the school house on Friday last at 2 p. m. Prof. J. L. Smith, Superintendent of Schools for Kent county, was present and presided. He also gave a splendid outline of the school work, and spoke of the necessity of a new school house not only in Kennedyville, but the other points where they are seeking for them. Rev. S. S. Hepburn was present and he also made an address on education, as also Mr. John Medders, who is working continuously for the school's best interest. The decision of the meeting was not simply to work for their own school house, but to work for the whole number where ever needed, and they appeal to the voters of Kent county, regardless of politics or party feeling, to help in this struggle for school houses where ever needed.
