WEDDING NOTES

KNOX—CHAMBERS.

Miss Kitty L. Chambers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chambers, of Chestertown, and Mr. Enoch Knox, of Cliffs, was married at the home of the bride's parents on Thanksgiving day at 3 o'clock by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. The bride was gowned in blue silk trimmed in white lace. The presents were numerous and handsome. After a wedding breakfast the bride and groom left for their new home at the Cliffs where the groom is engaged in business.

SMITH—CARTER.

On last Tuesday morning, December 1, at 8 o'clock sharp, Miss Margaret E. Carter, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Carter, of near Fairlee, became the wife of Mr. Harvey England Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyland P. Smith, of Smithville.

The couple, in company with a few friends, including her father, drove to the M. E. Parsonage in Fairlee in an automobile, which was trimmed in white, giving it a bridal appearance. Rev. W. W. White met them at the door and escorted them to the parlor, where they were soon pronounced husband and wife according to the beautiful ceremony of the M. E. Church.

The bride was becomingly attired in a coat suit of green cloth, with hat to match. After the marriage the happy couple went in a 1915 Overland automobile, belonging to Mrs. Haas, the groom's sister, to Pottstown, Pa., and to other Northern cities. On their return they will make their home on the farm near Smithville. May heaven's richest blessings attend them through life.

BOULDEN—BURRIS.

Miss Reba Burris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Burris and the popular teacher of Ward's Hill school, near Cecilton, became the bride of John D. Boulden, Jr., on Tuesday evening, November 24. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. A Coale, at St. Stephen's P. E rectory. The bride was charming in a coat suit of dark brown, with large picture hat to match, flatly trimmed with plume and flowers. Miss Grace Burris attended her sister as maid of honor, while Mr. Harold Padley acted as best man. For the present they will reside with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Boulden, but after January first will be at home at "Strawberry Hill."

MORRIS—LOFTON.

Miss Sarah B. Lofton and Mr. Herbert Morris, of near Galena, were quietly married at the M. E Parsonage Saturday afternoon at 4 30 o'clock, Rev. Edwin Gardner performing the ceremony. A wedding supper was served at the home of the bride, after which the happy couple went away on the evening train for a short trip.

JOHNSTON—HULME.

A pretty home wedding took place at noon Wednesday when Miss Alice Hulme, daughter of Mrs. Thomas A. Hulme, became the bride of J. Herbert Johnston, a prominent lawyer of Baltimore and a son of Rev. Dr. Hugh Johnston, secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother, 2201 St. Paul street Baltimore, and was witnessed only by the two immediate families. Rev. Dr. Charles Fiske, rector of St. Michael and All Angels' Protestant Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony, assisted by Dr Johnston, father of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Albert Hulme. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. S. Harry Conover, of Philadelphia, as matron of honor The best man was Edward Johnston, a brother of the groom. The bride was attired in a beautiful tailored suit of blue broadcloth and carried a shower bouquet of pink bride roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She wore two handsome bracelets, gifts of the groom. A wedding breakfast was served after which the couple left for New York.

Washington College's Basketball Quint.

With the football season over the athletes of Washington College have turned their attention to basketball. Although represented by a championship team last year the local adherants find little comfort in the fact that only two of last season's regulars will don suits again. Garrett, Lewis, Madden and Pfitsch, all star players, have been lost by graduation and only Captian Biddle and Pearson have been left as a nucleus for the present season.

In Pearson, however, the Eastern Shoremen have one of the best centres in the State and Biddle has proven his ability as guard. For the remainder of the team Coach Kilber must depend upon the material offered him from the reserves and the class teams.

Among those from whom the three men must be chosen are Dwyer, Boswell, Kratzer, Enright, Walton, Young, Larmore, Leister, Spedden and C. C. White

The schedule as arrange by Manager J. Ralph Roe consists of 15 games, 12 of which will be played on the home floor. The schedule:

Dec. 11—Baltimore City College, at Chestertown.
Dec. 12—John Hopkins, at Chestertown.
Dec. 19—Pennsylvania Reserves, at Chestertown.

Jan. 16—St. John's College at Annapolis.
Jan. 23—Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, at Chestertown.

THE NEWS notes with pleasure the message from Mr. J. W. Boggs, the champion hog raiser of near Crumpton. He advertised a large pen of hogs and soon had sufficient inquiries to clean up the whole lot. Mrs. Algire recently bought two farms in the same neighborhood, known as the old Philadelphia farm and the Rowan farm, from Dr. E. H. Crawford, of Cecilton, for $18,000, and now holds about 840 acres of land, in close proximity, for $25,000. Recently she sold the Price farm, near Warwick, containing 190 acres, for $20,000. IN a proclamation issued by Governor Philips Lee Goldsborough Thanksgiving day morning, all gunning with dogs is prohibited in Queen Anne's county until the quarantine, due to the foot-and-mouth disease, is lifted. The proclamation also applies to dogs running at large. All dogs must be kept up, and any found running at large may be killed by deputies of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board. Every officer has been given strict orders to enforce the provisions of the quarantine, and persons found gunning with dogs will be arrested. The Live Stock Board insists that dogs running from one farm to another are liable to cause an epidemic, and the order will be rigidly enforced.

He will not only please you in assortment but guarantees perfect fitting garments at very reasonable prices.

Accidents.—Mr. H. S. Dempsey, of Galena, one day last week hurt his hand very seriously while oiling his windmill. Although suffering the most severe pain Mr. Dempsey retained his presence of mind, keeping his hold until he could release his hand and descend to the ground. Dr. Scott dressed the wound and did all in his power to relieve the sufferer, but on Saturday morning decided it best to remove his patient to the hospital. He accordingly took him in his auto to Union Hospital, at Elkton. At this writing there is no decided change for the better. Mrs. H. S. Dempsey and daughter, also his mother, brother and sister visited him at the hospital on Monday.

ELEVATED TANK!

Chestertown Water Board Decide To Erect a Reservoir For Water Instead of Having a Night Engineer at The Plant.

After considerable debate and investigation the Chestertown Water Board have decided and begun negotiations to erect an elevated tank on their lot near the College. This tank will be kept filled with water as a reserve supply in case of fire and its elevation will be such as to give sufficient pressure to force the water on top of any house in Chestertown.

This method was adopted in preference to the night watchman the Board believing that it was the most economical and would prove the most serviceable in case of fire.
