VOL. 76. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1915. NO 39

Entertainment Extraordinary

Lyceum Theatre

Chestertown, Maryland.

—TWO NIGHTS—

Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 9 and 10, 1915

The Chestertown Choral and Dramatic Club Presents

Queen Esther!

Beautiful Musical and Dramatic Cantata In Five Acts

More than 60 voices. Attractive Jewish and Persian costumes—rich in color, georgeous in effect.

Instructive Bible Story, set to vocal and instrumental music—classic, inspiring and entrancing.

Grand triumphal march before the King, Queen, Haman, Zeresh, Mordecai by 30 children—imposing, impressive, spectacular.

Sublime musical interpretation of the vacilations and fluctuations of human life—depicting the downfall of the proud and mighty Haman and the uplifting of the lowly and down-trodden Mordecai—deprecating the foibles and turpitude of humanity and commending that which is true and ennobling.

Splendid solos, duets, quartettes and choruses by male, female and mixed voices.

The best and most elaborate presentation of this master-piece of religious cantatas ever witnessed here.

Admission—All Seats 50 Cents

The New Year

Will It Bring You Prosperity and Good Luck or Poverty and Adversity?

We Know This:

That with those who keep a Bank Account prosperity has a better chance.

Why not start a Bank Account with the New Year? Be able when the year is old to say, with the prosperous ones: "Financially, the past year has been the best year of my life."

Don't be placed with the "quitter," who complains about "hard times and heavy taxes."

THE KENT COUNTY SAVINGS BANK has administered to the wants of its customers through good times and hard times, doing its best always to render substantial and efficient service.

You are invited to associate yourself with us as a depositor and grow with us.

KENNEDYVILLE

Several Sad And Sudden Deaths In And Around Our Town—Other Notes.

This community has been deeply stirred during the past few months. First came the shock of twelve or more persons ill with typhoid fever caused by eating something at a family dinner. All of these, however, we are glad to state, are convalescent and out of danger.

Then came the long and fatal illness of Mrs. Mannie Clendaniel, one of the most popular ladies in this community. Last Friday Mr. John M. Archibald died after a long illness, aged 56. He leaves a widow, the daughter of the late John Hurlock, and two sisters and 2 brothers. Funeral services were held from his late residence on Monday, at 1 p. m., in charge of Rev. F. X. Moore, of Still Pond, assisted by Revs. E. H. Collins, of Wilmington, Frand S. Cain and Wm. Clews, of Kennedyville; W. H. Krusen, undertaker.

Next came the sad death of Mr. Geo. Roeder, aged 55, of the firm of Roeder & Rodenhiser, commission merchants, of Baltimore. Mr. Roeder retired from business, built a home in the town, and expected to enjoy a quiet life among his home folks. He has had rather a trying time in that Mrs. Roeder fell and broke her arm a short time ago and also has had a great deal of trouble with her eyes. The death angel came Sunday at 3.30 a. m. The funeral was held Wednesday at noon, Rev. P. B. Staufer, of Shrewsbury Church, in charge; W. H. Krusen, undertaker.

Mrs. Mary F. Hurlock, aged 84, the mother of Mr. William S. Hurlock, as she sat talking to her daughter-in-law and two grand-daughters on Saturday, January 30, at 8.30 p. m., exclaimed "Oh, what a pain!" and placing her hands over her heart expired in a minute or so. Dr. Urie was hastily summoned and pronounced her dead. She usually spent most of her time near Millington and was on a visit to her son. The funeral was held from the home of her son, Wm. S. Hurlock, at 11 a. m. Tuesday, Rev. Frank S. Cain officiating, assisted by Rev. Wm. Clews. Surviving her are two sons, Wm. S. Hurlock and John B. Hurlock, of Millington. The bearers were Messrs. George R. Rasin, John C. Redmile, John Medders, Chas. S. Hill, R. Wesley Moffett and Leonard Wilson. Interment in Millington cemetery; W. H. Krusen, undertaker.

The dedication of the Presbyterian Manse was held on Friday last. Service in the morning at the manse as follows: Scripture reading, Rev. Wm. Clews; anthem; prayer, Rev. Frank S. Cain; address by Rev. Dr. Gilfillin, of Newark, Del.; anthem; address by Rev. Mr. Reed, of Dover; benediction, Rev. Mr. Candee, of Wilmington, Del. 2.10 p. m. service at the church; singing by choir; prayer, Rev. Mr. Reed; Scripture lesson, Rev. Wm. Clews; address, Rev. Mr. Candee; anthem; offering; singing by the congregation, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds"; benediction, Rev. F. S. Cain.

Misses Catherine Hessner and sister, of Philadelphia, were guests of their mother one day lest week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Riggin, of Georgetown, Md., were visitors in this town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Root. Greenhaugh spent the week-end with her son and family in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Pennington and daughter, Dorothy Bell, are spending a few days in Philadelphia.

The members of the Methodist Protestant Church are preparing to give an entertainment some time soon.

Mrs. John D. McCabe returned home Sunday from the bedside of her father, Mr. Hall, of Whaleyville, Md., and reports him to be improving.

THE DEATH ROLL

Eugene Quinn died on Monday last at the home of his father, John T. Quinn, Galena. He was 11 years of age. Interment on Thursday at St. Dennis' Cemetery.

John Daly Woodall, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Woodall, Galena, died Tuesday last at the Elkton Union Hospital. Interment at Galena Cemetery.

Mrs. Mabel Younger, wife of Mr. Romie Younger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Beck, died at her home near New Freedom, Pa., Thursday, aged 24. She leaves beside parents and husband, two children—Louise and Margaret; also two sisters who are in the Maryland Sanitarium. Mr. Beck and family removed from Kent about Xmas hoping to benefit in health. The remains were brought to Chestertown yesterday and rested at Mrs. George T. Hudson's. Funeral at 10 A. M. this morning from the home of Mrs. Hudson, Rev. H. B. Jester, officiating. The pall bearers will be: Chas. D. Wood, Harry A. Thompson, Walter H. Hadaway, Mahlon Lee, Linwood A. Sutton, J. Elwood Morris; interment at Wesley Chapel, C. L. Dodd, undertaker.
