BARROLL MEN NAMED IN SEVERAL OFFICES

New Officials Swon In Tuesday—Deputies Predicted By "News" Start In On Their Duties—J. Henry Thompson Unable To Be Here Because of Sickness.

The Barroll faction fared well in the distribution of offices Tuesday and the "substantial recognition" was heaped up and running over!

Mr. A. Parks Rasin, took his oath as Clerk of the Court before Judge Hopper Tuesday afternoon and with his deputy—Mr. Charles W. Kibler, Jr.—started in on his duties Wednesday morning. At Mr. Parks' request, Mr. Thomas Dixon will remain for awhile to assist the new officials in the duties of the office.

Register of Wills Robert R. Hill took charge of his office and for the present will retain Mr. Thomas Matthews.

In the Orphans' Court the Governor designated Mr. John H. Simpers as the Chief Judge, the other two members being Dr. E. A. Scott and Mr. J. Henry Thompson. All these qualified excepting Mr. Thompson who is expected here in a few weeks. He has been quite sick with rheumatism.

The new Sheriff is Mr. J. Thomas Hadaway who swore in Mr. Mark Perkins as his deputy.

The Clerk bonded for $14,000, his bondsmen being Wm. M. Slay, Esq., Capt. Dan Hill, L. B. Russell and Robt. R. Hill.

The Register bonded in the sum of $7,000, his bondsmen being Capt. Dan Hill and A. Parks Rasin.

The sheriff bonded for $15,000 in a Trust Company.

The new board of Commissioners organized by electing Mr. Carey W. Reinhert president and Mr. Samuel Hicks, clerk. The only other candidate for clerk was Mr. Fountain Crew a brother of Commissioner T. Benj. Crew. When the matter of appointment of an attorney came up, one of the members is reported to have said that he was authorized to say that Mr. Hope H. Barroll would serve as counsel free of charge. The matter was left open, however, and there may not be any formal appointment.

The Board now comprises W. Carey Reinhart, president; John N. Bennett and Olin S. Davis, Republicans; T. Benjamin Crew and John C. Wood, Barroll Democrats.

The commission of Treasarer Owens will arrive about June 1st.

DEATHS

Jesse Burton Burchinal, a well-known citizen of Chestertown, died early Monday evening of heart disease at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Merrick Clements on Kent Circle, aged 68. The deceased had been ailing for some time but fought valiantly against the malady and had at his command everything that could be desired in his endeavors to defeat the enemy of death, but in vain. Mr. Burchinal was a life-long old line Republican and was a candidate on the ticket several times. At the time of his death he was a notary public and he conducted the office in a creditable and efficient manner.

He was born at Odessa, Del., and moved from there to Millington. From that place he came to Chestertown, his father engaging in the mercantile business. For 15 years he conducted one of the laagest general stores in Kent county where the Candy Kitchen and Mr. Arlington L. Sparks do business, discontinuing it in 1885.

He leaves a wife, who was Miss Alice Lambert, a daughter, Mrs. Merrick Clements, a son, Mr. Joseph Burchinal, of Chicago, and two sisters, Mrs. Addie Smith and Mrs. Elizabeth Hines.

He was a fine citizen, a splendid neighbor, industrious and aesthetic in his tastes, highly intelligent and elegant company. He was one of the charter members of the P. O. S. of H. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating, interment in Chester Cemetery: C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were Judge J. H. Simpers, George B. Westcott, J. H. Dunbracco, John C. Davis, Arthur M. Brown and Philip G. Wilmer.

The sudden death of Mr. William E. Moody, one of the most well-known citizens of this community, occurred at his residence on Washington avenue before sunrise Monday morning. Heart trouble was the cause of his death. Mr. Moody has been in bad health for several years, but his condition had not been serious until recently. For the past week he had been in a critical condition and the end was looked for. He was 57 years of age.

Mr. Moody was born in Still Pond, and, shortly after moving here, became a salesman for the Hubbard Fertilizer Co., for which firm he worked a year or so. He engaged in the clothing business, in 1895, with Mr. Walter U. Lusby, where Brown Bros. now do business.

The firm was at this stand for about seventeen years and it was one of the most prominent firms in Chestertown.

Mr. Moody leaves a wife and one son, Prof. J. Raymond Moody; two sisters, Mrs. Cahall and Mrs. A. J. Hynson, and one brother, Mr. S. Q. Moody.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating, and the remains carried to Baltimore Wednesday and interred in Greenmount Cemetery. The bearers Capt. Curtis E. Crane, W. U. Lusby, S. Hicks, C. W. Kibler, Frank E. Duyer, W. B. Copper. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Mrs. James A. Huey, died at her home in Seaford Saturday morning after a lingering illness, aged 59 years. Services were held Monday afternoon in Mount Olive Methodist Protestant Church. Mrs Huey is survived by her husband, and two daughters, Mrs. A. H. Sloop, of Bellefonte, Pa., and Miss Pauline Huey of Seaford, and two sons, W. Robert Huey, of Chestertown, and Frank A. Huey, of Massey.

Walter Wright, of Chestertown, received a telegram Monday morning conveying the sad announcement of the death of his mother, Mrs. Samuel L. Wright, at Berkley, Cal., Sunday about midnight. Funeral was held Tuesday and the body cremated. The ashes will likely be brought East when the husband Mr. Sam'l L. Wright returns here.
