ABANDON BUCK NECK WHARF

Permission to abandon the Buck Neck wharf, near Melitota, was granted Wednesday to the Tolchester Improvement Company, of Kent county, by the Public Service Commission.

The improvement company stated that in winter the ice made the landing difficult and dangerous, and that as there were two other landings, which were safe and easy in the immediate vicinity, the Buck Neck wharf was not a public necessity. The request was unopposed.

DEATHS

Mrs. Mary C. Kendall, widow of the late Joseph C. Kendall, died at the home of her son, Justice Virgil W. Kendall, in Chestertown, about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The deceased had been in excellent health, her only sickness of any kind recently being several slight attacks of indigestion, the slightest of which causing her to pay little attention to them. A few minutes after asking her son, Mr. Virgil Kendall, for a drink of water Sunday afternoon, however, Mrs. Kendall was dead. She was 83 years of age and up to her death retained all her faculties. She had a large circle of friends especially at Rock Hall where she spent nearly her whole life. She has made her home with her son since the death of her husband and found it a restful abiding place where her every wish was met and every need satisfied.

She leaves four sons, Virgil W., of Chestertown; Elwood, of Worton; Joseph, of Baltimore; Newton, Rock Hall; and two daughters, Miss Luella Kendall and Mrs. L. Bates Russell, of Chestertown.

The funeral was held Tuesday at 10 o'clock, Rev. L. E. Barrett officiating, and interment at Wesley cemetery; undertaker, C. L. Dodd. The bearers were Virgil, Newton and Elwood Kendall, L. B. Russell, Jos. S Trew, John C. Davis, M. T. Miller, Frank C. Wilkins.

Mrs. Sarah Weller, widow of Silas Weller, died at her home near Pomona, Wednesday, after a long illness, age 75. She leaves the following children: James and Louis H., at home; Jacob in Queen Annes; Charles, of Dover; Mrs. May Palmatory, of Chestertown. The funeral took place yesterday, Revs. McCann and Hudson officiating, interment in Chester Cemetery. The bearers were Thos. W. Toulson, J. Chairs, W. Faulkner, Geo. M. Hadaway, J. P. Crossley, Chas J. Reiche; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

PLAN TO SAVE THE BAY SERVICE

In an effort to prevent the isolation of the city from Easton Shore points a special committee of the merchants and Manufacturers' Association will ask W. H. Myers, of Philadelphia, president of the M., D. & V. and the B., C. & A. railway companies, to request a rehearing by the Interstate Commerce Commission on its order effective April 1.

Key Compton, chairman of the committee, told the members that to him there were but two matters to be considered; first, possible sale of the property, and second, if the first were not possible a rehearing on the case before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

A general discussion followed and it was recommended to the executive committee that a petition be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission to reopen the case and postpone the order of the commission for at least one year. It was also recommended that a committee be appointed to wait on President Myers, with a view of securing his co-operation in having a petition filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission asking a rehearing, and that efforts to secure the co-operation of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce and the Eastern Shore Produce Exchange and the Baltimore Fruit and Produce Association be made.

MR. MALLORY'S BODY FOUND

Capt. Amos Scoon, of Rock Hall, Gets the $500 Reward For Finding the Body—Lost Nov. 19, 1915, 12 miles from Swan Point

Capt. Amos Scoone, well-known waterman of Rock Hall, was paid $500 Wednesday, the reward offered by Col. Arthur D. Foster for the finding of the body of Dwight F. Mallory. The finding of the body brings to an end a search that at one time was countrywide, and anxiety of long duration.

Although the body had been in the water since November 19 last, when Mallory was caught in a storm in the upper waters of the Chesapeake, it was well preserved. It was about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning when Scoone, putting off in his motor-boat saw the body in about two feet of water on Swan Point bar. He manoeuvred his boat, until he was close enough to fasten a rope to it, and then towed it to Rock Hall, where he enlisted the aid of Eugene Downey, also of Rock Hall, and Rev. A. P. Prettyman, of the Rock Hall Methodist Episcopal Church, in getting it ashore. Coroner Frank Smith summoned a jury of inquest, with Mr. Richard B. Wilson, foreman, and this body rendered a verdict of death due to accidental drowning.

The clothing of Mallory was searched and in his trousers was found a gold pocket knife bearing the name Dwight F. Mallory. In another pocket was found his gold watch, with the monogram D F M. The hands pointed to 3 30 o'clock giving the first idea as to what time he was plunged into the water when his motor scow foundered between Poole's and Millers islands. At that time the storm was raging its hardest on the Bay. Mallory was an athlete and a sportsman and it is not believed that he gave up against the elements until he was exhausted.

The body was found at a point about 12 miles from where his boat and belongings were recovered by searchers who scoured the Bay and its tributaries, and about five miles from where it was sighted three weeks ago by oyster dredgers and the captain of a tugboat.

When found the body was clothed in the hunting trousers worn by Mallory when he set out on his trip for the Susquehana Flats on a ducking expedition. His shirt was torn to shreds. Around his neck was his collar and black silk tie.

Col Foster came over on a special tug and after paying Capt. Scoone the $500 reward returned to Baltimore with the body.

P. T. BRAMBLE lost 150 ten-days-old chicks Wednesday night. The rats got into his house and caused the loss.

WALTER M. KENLY, a farmer, near Rock Hall, applied for the benefit of the bankruptcy law Wednesday with liabilities of $7 135 and assets of $2.320.

Planting Seeds of Success

As the farmer plants seed in the springtime for the harvest in the fall, so the person who would achieve success in any undertaking must prepare far in advance.

Starting a bank account, no matter how small, is one of the first steps toward success. To plant the seeds of success, save SYSTEMATICALLY and PERSISTENTLY.

The very habit of saving, however small the visible results at first, leads to independence and aids in attaining success.

The Officers of this Institution are at all times gad to talk persons about "planting the seeds of success."
