Mrs. Marion Rogers, of Chestertown, is the guest of Miss Julia Cacy.

Miss Susie Jones, of Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md., is spending her summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, near town.

The play entitled, "Ye Village Skewl of Long Ago," which was given last Friday and Saturday nights in Comegys Hall for the benefit of Millington Academy was well attended both nights and a good sum realized.

What is the matter with the new Millington High School? Is the new building going to lie in idleness and rot down before it is occupied?

Mr. Wm. Wood, of Galena, is putting in a bath room and water works in the home of Mr. J. P. Ahern.

Messrs. George and Charlie Jones, the painters, with a force of workmen, are busy painting in the town and several houses are already being beautified by a fresh coat of paint.

Contractors Vansant and Duling are building a new bungalow for our assistant postmaster, Mr. Sudler Wiest.

Mr. B. Ross Duling, assistant cashier of Goldsboro Bank, has purchased two building lots on Hurtt's avenue where he will erect two bungalows of the latest model. Mr. Duling will commence building by July 10th. His father, Mr. B. W. Duling will have charge of the work.

Several of our business men were out on a trip of discovery and pleasure bent a few days ago, and after passing through fourteen towns and visiting three cities, they saw a good many things of interest and they met with congenial people everywhere they stopped, and while the entire party enjoyed every moment of their time and the automobile ride immensely, they all came to the conclusion that home sweet home is the ideal spot to live after all.

OBITUARY

In memory of our only child, LOUISE GALE, who went from us one month ago to-day, May 25th, 1916, aged 10 years.

Gone in the best of her days,
Blighted in childhood's bloom;
Torn from the hearts that loved her
To sleep in the silent tomb.

A tear within a father's eye,
A mother's breaking heart;
Can only tell the agony,
How hard it is to part.

When we saw our precious darling,
Whom we tended with suca care,
Slowly fading from our presence,
How our aching hearts despaired.

She will never be forgotten,
Never shall her memory fade;
Sweeter thoughts shall ever linger
'Round the grave where she is laid.

FATHER AND MOTHER.

I do not know why oft 'round me
My hopes all broken lie;
And earthly treasures oft I see
So quickly from me fly.

I do not know why Louise so dear
Death's hand from me hath torn;
Why she's not here my heart to cheer,
And I am left to mourn.

GRANDMA LEGG.

God called her home, it was His will,
But in our hearts we love her still;
Her memory is as dear to day
As in the hour she passed away.

AUNT MARY.
