LOWER KENT

Mr. Janner is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mr. Clarence Thompson has gone on a two week's vacation.

Mrs. Hyson Dill has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Rodney.

Mr. Sterling Downey spent a few days in Baltimore this week on business.

Mrs. S. P. Fithian went to Baltimore last week for special treatment for bronchitis.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Pearson Biglow has been ill with cholera infantum.

Mr. Marion Rodney and Miss Johnson, of Baltimore, spent Sunday the guest of relatives here.

Ralph, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Coleman, is critically ill at the home of his parents, in Wharf Lane.

On account of the illness of her nephew, Weldon, Mrs. Ella Reiche has been spending the past week with her brother, Mr. Will Davis.

The severe electrical storm on Saturday night did considerable damage. A fine horse belonging to Mr. Will Carter was killed, while Mr. George Burger lost about sixteen tons of hay.

Weldon, the fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Davis, was severely injured last Wednesday afternoon by being thrown from his horse. The boy was bringing the horse up to water, and having neither halter or bridle the horse started to run and threw him. Dr. Selby was quickly summoned, but could not arouse him. Dr. Frank Smith was called in for consultation, but did not think an operation necessary. After lying in this comatose state for several days, he finally has begun to mend. As no bones were broken, Dr. Selby thinks that unless complications arise he will now recover.

Rain prevented the racing Tuesday and also yesterday.

DEATHS

Mr. Edward H. Beck, a well-known real estate agent, died at the Delaware Hospital Friday morning, aged 62.

Mrs. Harrietta Augusta Smith Emory, wife of Mr. Frank A. Emory, died last Sunday morning at 4 15 a. m. in the eighty-first year of her age.

Mrs. Emory was born at Millington, Kent county, Md., August 24th, 1835, and was the daughter of Wm. S. and Anna Spencer Smith. She remained a resident of Millington until July 27th, 1875, on which date she married Mr. Emory and since then they have rsided on Mr. Emory's home farm on Chester river.

Mrs. Emory was a member of the Episcopal Church and a devout christian during her long and useful life.

The funeral took place Tuesday at 2.20 p. m. and interment in family burying ground on the farm. Rev. J Derickson Cummins, of St. Paul's P. E. Church officated.

The following gentlemen served as bearers: Pere T. Forman, Thomas J. Keating, William McKenney, James Brown, J, Fletcher Rolph and Walter T. Wright.

Mr. Charlie Davis, of Philadelphia, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. John M. Poore, in Millington, on Thursday morning of last week, of tuberculosis of the throat. The funeral was held at his mother's home on Sunday afternoon. Rev. G P. Smith officiated Mr. J. L. Smith was the undertaker; interment in Millington cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. E. A. Wilson, James Moore, Glenn Anthony, O. D. Price, Fred. Lee and John Anthony. Besides his wife, he leaves one son about 11 years old.
