DEATHS

Mrs. Walter S. Trew, aged 57, died Tuesday at noon after a long illness at the Union Protestant Infirmary, Baltimore. Besides her husband she is survived by four brothers, Senator Brown Wm. T. and Cornelius C. Brown, of Kent, and Comegys Brown, of Baltimore. The body was brought home Wednesday and burial took place Thursday, Presiding Elder Mowbray officiating interment in Chester Cemetery, C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were the four brothers and nephews. The funeral was largely attended evincing the universal esteem in which she was held.

There was not a person in Quaker Neck more beloved than Mrs. Walter Trew, known to many as Miss Bessie Brown. She was so gentle and refined in all her ways, so thoughtful and kind in all her acts and so devoted and loving to those she held dear. In Bond M. E. Church she was a strong supporter giving her time and talents to the Master while in the home and social circles her person was like a ray of sunshine. Her character was ideal and called forth from her faithful husband all that was in him to pay her homage and their devotion to each other was simply matchless. To know her was to love her and to be in her presence was joy.

Mrs. Susan Elizabeth Sutton, widow of the late John Carville Sutton, died at the home of her son, H. Gilpin Sutton, Seattle, Washington, on Sunday Aug 27. Mrs. Sutton is survived by three children, Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, New York; Mrs. D. B. Hiner, Los Angeles; H. G. Sutton, Seattle; one grand-child, John Sutton Hiner and six step-children. The remains are expected to reach the home of her son, George W. Sutton, on the Tuesday evening train. Interment at Shewsbury, Wednesday at 2 p. m.

Mr. William L. Bowers died at the home of his cousin in Wilmington, Del., last Wednesday, after a short illness of ptomaine poison, aged 55 years. The remains were brought to Kent on Friday morning and interment took place in the Friends burying ground, near Lynch, at 11 o'clock. Undertaker William H. Krusen in charge.

Doris Asher Rasin, the ten-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lotan Rasin, died at her parents home at Betterton on Thursday morning of meningitis, after a short illness of three days. Funeral will take place to-morrow (Sunday) at half-past one o'clock, Rev. Hanson P. Nichols officiating. Interment will be in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

Mr. John H. Harding, who has tenanted the Dr. Maxwell farm near Betterton for years, died at his home very suddenly on last Saturday at one o'clock aged 71 years. He leaves a wife who was before marriage Miss Caroline Scotten, and three daughters, Mrs. Daniel Potts, of Queen Annes, Mrs. Edward Schofield, of Betterton, and Miss Cora, at home. Funeral was held on last Tuesday morning at ten o'clock and was strictly private, Rev. R. P. Nichols, of Still Pond, officiating; Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge. Interment was in Still Pond cemetery. The bearers were Albert Jervis, Spencer Boulden, Nathaniel Scotten, Jr., Daniel Potts, Edward Schofield and John C. Boulden.

Word was received in Chestertown on Thursday that Charles Perry had died in Baltimore suddenly. He formerly lived in Chestertown and worked with the Marvil Package Co. He leaves a widow and two sons.

MRS THOS H. CASEY.

After a long, peaceful life, Mrs Sarah J. Casey, nee Jeffers, wife of Thomas H. Casey, passed to the life eternal on Aug. 26, 1916. Her husband and sister, Mrs. Etta Leaverton, with many loving relatives and friends sorrow that they must miss her gentle smile and sincere voice. The ripened sheaf has been gathered Nearer, O God, to Thee, through Jesus, Lover of the Soul. The funeral was held at her late home in Rock Hall on Tuesday morning at 10 30 o'clock. Rev. A. C. Smith of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, where she held membership, assisted by Rev. J. W. Prettyman, of Rock Hall M. E. Church, where she was frequently an attendant, conducted the services. The family thank their neighbors and friends for kindly assistance and sympathy and the many beautiful floral tributes; also Mr. C. L. Dodd for the courtesy of professional services. She was borne to the grave in Wesley Chapel cemetery by the hands of long-time friends: Wm. Wagner, Sr., John E. Hadaway, Joseph Downey, James L. Leary, James B. Willson and Dr. W. H. Schwatka.

KILLED BY A HORSE

Gustav Dalske, aged 65, employed at Mr. Wm. Hendrix, near town, was kicked by a horse Thursday at noon and killed. He was in the stable when the accident occurred and someone happened to see him stumble out of the stable door, reel and fall. Dr. Hines was sent for but thought that his death was almost instantaneous. He was a Polish Russian and has a brother teaching in Warsaw University. He was a faithful and industrious employe.

FELL OFF A TRAIN

A Crumptonian Kicks The Window Out of a Pullman Car And Falls Out While Asleep.

A short time ago Mr. Godwin, who is making his home in the far South, was returning to Miami from a visit to his relatives in Crumpton when he met with a most remarkable incident. He had taken a berth on a Pullman for the long trip and realizing his propensity to walk in his sleep, fastened the window and curtains securely. This precaution, however, availed nothing, for during the night he had an old-time nightmare, and while the train was going at a good rate kicked the window to pieces and out he went!

The sudden bump on the soft earth awoke him and there he was all alone in a far country with nothing on but B V D's and not knowing what had happened. Presently a freight train came thundering along and seeing a queer-looking object waving his arms as if he was crazy, the train stopped. Mr. Godwin told his story and got aboard the freight feeling somewhat chilly.

A telegram was sent ahead to the Pullman train telling them they had lost a passenger and to wait for him, which they did and Mr. Godwin proceeded safely to his home in Miami.

IT now looks as if there will be no strike.

A COLLISION occured on Wednesday night in Chester river, near Rogues Island, between the power-boat Kent and the schooner Maggie Shea. The collision occurred at 9.30 P. M., and resulted in slight damage to the pilot-house of the Kent. No one was injured.

All Chautauqua Tickets at Jefferson's Store The Last Two Days

The ticket selling committee will place on sale Saturday morning at Jefferson's store all Chautauqua tickets unsold. You should be sure to procure tickets before 2 o'clock Monday as contract calls for sale of season tickets to cease at that hour. No season ticket can be bought at the gate, and besides the single admissions sold there do not benefit the local guarantors on their guarantee.

The motto this year is "No Tickets Unsold," and this will be realized if all friends of Chautauqua boost it in earnest. Write, phone or call at Jefferson's Store at once before all season tickets are sold. They are limited.
