KENT SENDS 21 TO CAMP

Kent's fourth contingent of boys to go to camp left by steamer Monday. A small delegation of friends and citizens were present to cheer and to bid them God speed on their mission. Sweaters and comfort bags were furnished by the local units. Encourging addresses were made Sunday afternoon in front of the Court House by State's Attorney Vickers and S. P. Townshend, Esq.

The following is the list who left here:

William Sterling Kelley, Rock Hall.
Albert L. Wheat, Chestertown.
Samuel W. Elburn, Chestertown No. 2.
Carroll O. Creighton, Rock Hall.
Norman V. Collison, Rock Hall.
Nathan Kosover, Baltimore.
Frank L. Newnam, Massey.
William E. Cornellus, Lynch.
J. Franklin Stevens, Millington.
Clarence Lulk, Betterton.
Walter Gilbert Darrell, Massey.
Charles D. Price, Chestertown No. 2.
Edw. Ellsworth Brown, Chestertown.
Albert L. Leary, Rock Hall.
Wm. H. Worden, Jr., Chestertown.
Curtis O. McClain, Chestertown.
Clarence R. Sutton, Betterton.
Nathan S. Chaires, Chestertown No. 3.
Columbus E. Beck, Rock Hall.
John Berg, Rock Hall.
Robert T. Hynson, Rock Hall.

Those who left May 3rd and who will report at a cantonment at Columbus, Ohio, are: Albert Winchester, Rock Hall; Maxwell Blakeney, Chestertown; James Bayard Parsons, Rock Hall; J. Norman Joiner, Worton, and Clarence Jenkins, Baltimore. The last named takes the place of Elmer Newton first drawn but later excused because of physical disability.

CHILD WELFARE AND HOME ECONOMICS

Next week will be given up to health conference and food demonstrations. The program will begin on Monday with a big parade in Chestertown followed at 8 o'clock by some splendid addresses in Lyceum free to the public. W. H. Maltbie, Assistant Food Administrator, A. C. Nelson, County Administration Work and Arthur Boehm will be the speakers all on important subjects.

Get in line with your car for the big parade, forming at the college, on concrete road, at 7.15, Monday evening; going down Washington avenue to Main to Water to Maple to Queen, up Main and back to Lyceum Theatre. Several towns will have representative floats, Kennedyville's "Korn is King," the Canning Club Girls, several Baby Specials and Swat the Fly, are some of the ones we have heard about.

The women of Kent are right on the job all the time and will be interested in getting all of the information they can. Miss Walton comes from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and is up to the minute on war subjects relating to foods.

Health Conferences and Food Demonstrations will be held at the following places:

Rock Hall School House, Tuesday, May 7th, at 1 p. m.

Kennedyville School House, Wednesday, May 8th, at 1 p. m.

Chestertown, Eastern Shore Inn, Thursday, May 9th, at 9 a. m.

Galena, Friday, May 10th, 1 p. m.

At all but Chestertown free moving pictures will be held in the evening at 7.30 p. m. and some good music will be heard.

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

WILLIAM W. BECK TO SUCCEED LEWIN W. WICKES.

Hon. William W. Beck, of Chestertown, will likely succeed Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., as a member of the State Tax Commission. Mr. Wickes has the reputation of having helped to put the Commission on a going basis and also to have upset the traditions of Eastern Shore—resigning a good office. Mr. Beck will make a most excellent appointment and one which is well deserved.

KENT GOES "OVER THE TOP"

Third Liberty Loan Campaign Closes Today — Everybody Who Has Aided Feel Happy Over Result—Bank Officials Have A Stupendous Task.

Liberty Loan meetings have been the talk of the county this week, the "News" having reported the meetings held up to last Friday night. On that night Rock Hall was the centre of assault and the people there simply "gave up" freely. The meeting was held in Junior Hall and addressed by Edwin H. Brown, Esq., of Centreville, and Herdman Schwatka, while Allan A. Harris and W. B. Copper took charge of the bond subscriptions. The total pledged was $35,000, of which the Smith Brothers took $14,500. The songs by W. W. Chapman, Thomas W. Perkins, A. L. Sparks and J. H. Thompson were highly appreciated as was also the music by Prof. Plock, pianist, and T. Kemp Bordley, violinist.

At Wesley Chapel Sunday morning $4,500 was subscribed.

The Liberty Loan Rally in Chestertown, at Christ M. P. Church, Sunday was largely attended and a notable event. Stirring addresses were made by A. S. Goldsborough, of Baltimore, and Ex-Congressman D. J. Lewis. Solos were rendered as follows: "When the Boys Come Home," Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell; "Uncle Sam," Prof. Charles Monzani; "Battle Hymn of the Republic," Mrs. Miriam Sheppard Davidson; "National Air," Mrs. Merrick Clements. $25,000 was subscribed.

Betterton was alive Monday night and gave the cause a hearty welcome in the Chesapeake House. Howard Turner introduced Allan A. Harris as the presiding officer who presented State's Attorney Vickers, Fred. G. Usilton and Rev. S. S. Hepburn as speakers. Messrs. Harris and Copper took charge of the bond sales assisted by Messrs. Brice, Turner, Owens, and others and the total for the night was $15,000 which entitles Betterton to an honor flag. The music on this occasion was especially fine being presented by Mrs. Davidson and niece Miss Gardner, Prof. Monzani, Prof. Plock, T. Kemp Bord- Messrs. Perkins, Chapman, Thompson and Sparks, all of Chestertown, with Mrs. C. H. Brice as pianist.

At Still Pond Tuesday night over $25,000 was raised. Prof. Richardson, of M. A. C., was the principal speaker.

Galena did herself proud Wednesday evening when $50,000 was subscribed. Dr. Burke, of Cecil, was the principal speaker. Good music was furnished by Chestertown talent.

The result of the several public meetings is as follows:

M. P. Church	$39,200
Lyceum Theatre	48,950
Kennedyville	21,100
Fairlee	17,700
Auto Club, Betterton	26,300
Rock Hall	40,000
M. P. Church (2nd)	24,800
Millington	27,000
Betterton (2nd)	15,000
Still Pond	21,450
Galena	50,000
Total	$330,050

To this is to be added various sums subscribed thru banks and others.

But there are considerable duplications of these figures, which will have to be corrected, the approximate amount will be around $300,000.

The Boy Scouts under Scout Master R. Groome Parks have sold over $50,000 of bonds.

Kent's quota was $254,400.

Postmaster T. D. Bowers reports that the total sales of War Savings and Thrift Stamps for the month of April amounts to between $18,000 and $20,000. This will probably make Kent county the leading county in the State for the month of April. A detailed statement of the sales at the various postoffices and the public schools, with every other agency in the county will be given next week.

The Kent county public schools up to yesterday had sold $9,874.63 worth of Thrift Stamps. Galena is in the lead with $1,876.50 with Chestertown High with a good second with $1,760. On page six will be found list up to last Tuesday.

The Richards shops and dwelling in Church Hill have been purchased by G. Everett Sheats, of Chestertown. Mr. Sheats will remove his family there at once. Ivins Sheats will continue the business at the Hicks shop until January 1.
