WE desire to express our gratification at the generous response made by the people of Kent county to our country's call for help in the Liberty Loan just closed. It was only by the united efforts of all, that the splendid showing of $391,700 was obtained. As the quota for the county was $254,400, we over-subscribed our allotment by $137,300.

The interest on the Second Liberty Bonds was due Wednesday, May 15th, and is now payable. We will be glad to cash any coupons of this series.

A Simple, Sensible System

LET a check book assist you in details of household and personal accounting. Put yourself and your home on a profitable basis. Substitute a neat check book for your wallet. Pay the butcher and the baker with checks instead of coins or currency. It's the safe and business-like way. Every check returns to you as an indisputable receipt.

While we want customers to build their balances in bank as large as possible, we cheerfully carry small accounts. Do not hesitate because you do not handle large sums. Deposit whatever you have.

A MEMORABLE OCCASION

Another Big Gap Made In Kent's Young Residents Who Cheerfully Answer Their Call To Duty—A Great Gathering On Court House Green Sunday Afternoon.

The scene enacted on the Court House green in Chestertown Sunday afternoon will live long in the memory of our people. The occasion was the God-speed given to the 45 young men named in the "News" last week who have been called to defend their country. Every section of old Kent was well represented by patriotic and loyal citizens, with the steps of the court house as the rostrum and with old Glory waving over the heads of the speakers the addresses were delivered. Wm. W. Beck, Esq., chairman of the Defense Council, presided and introduced the speakers in a most happy manner. Hon. Carville D. Benson, that intrepid and learned speaker from Baltimore county, was the first tn address the drafted men and their friends. He spoke in a short, concise and appropriate manner. Then came the grand chorus "America" by the audience lead by C. Arthur Bacon with his cornet. Hon. Andrew D. Cummings, of Montgomery county, followed with an address that was full of good sense and sound advice.

At this juncture two soldiers from Canada appeared on the scene after a busy day in Rock Hall and Fairlee and were prevailed upon to speak. There was only time for one, however, as they had to leave by train for their homes in Canada.

Private Lambert spoke for half an hour of the terrific conflict "over there" and of the sure victory ahead now that Uncle Sam had gotten into the fight. He had lost a leg, besides other injuries, received in the battle on the Somme and was an eloquent speaker. He is a minister of the Gospel and with 25 of his parishioners joined the Canadian army at the beginning of the war. His pal was a Scotchman who had been a prisoner in German camp for 15 months. He was exchanged and returned home some months ago. He also received a number of serious injuries.

After the speaking the 45 young men were entertained at the Chapter House on Queen street. They were each provided with sweaters, comfort kits, bibles, etc.

A large crowd was at the boat Monday morning to see them off including the College Cadets.

HAND OF DEATH

John Bedwell died at his home on the E. W. Hepburn farm near Still Pond on Wednesday afternoon after a short illness of heart trouble, aged 65 years. He was one of the prominent farmers of the second district, and was a man who had a good word for every one, a good neighbor and kind friend in every respect. He leaves a wifeand six children, Mrs. Harry Hill, Mrs. Nickerson, Miss Elsie Bedwell, and three sons, John A., Charles and Wilson. Funeral services will take place at his late home today at 2.30, Rev. Mr. Shower, assisted by Rev. S. S. Hepburn, officiating. Interment will be in Chester Cemetery, Undertaker Krusen in charge. The bearers will be Lewis Price, William Webb, George Sutton, Charles Ivens, George Rash, Harper Carter, William and Edw. Hepburn.

Mrs. Mary M. Price, widow of late Thomas Price, died Thursday in Piney Neck, aged 61. She leaves 8 children. The funeral will take place at her home Sunday 2 p. m., interment at Wesley Cemetery, Rev. T. C. Smoot, officiating; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

For the commencement exercises this year, which will be held June 19, Washington College will use the newly rebuilt William Smith Hall, which was burned in 1916 and which has been completed within the last three months. Eighteen students will be graduated, several of whom are already in the service of their country and will receive their diplomas in uniform. A feature of the commencement day program will be the hanging of the college flag, which will contain more than 100 stars. C. W. Perkins, Esq., will make the address on commencement morning.

The graduates follow:

Charles Samuel Adkins, Newark; Edward Cain, Chestertown; William Sterner Campbell, North East; Clinton W. Corbin, Tylerton; George R. Crowther, Jr., Smithburg; Mark S. Dolbey, White Haven; Gladys T. Hatcherson, Chestertown; Emily F. Howard, Chestertown; Edgar A. McGinnes, Millington; Nicholas H. Metzger, Frostburg; Martha R. Pennington, Millington; Harry J. Rouse, Chestertown; Charles L. Shelberg, Queenstown; Susan Roberts Stam, Chestertown; C. Merritt Twilley, Pollie Westcott, and Albert J. Wilmer, Chestertown.

Honorary degrees will be conferred upon the following: Doctor of divinity, the Rev. Sewell Norris Pilchard, Georgetown, Del.; master of science, William C. Miles, Washington.

Real Estate Sales—Among the deals in real estate this week we note the following: John E. Barnes, representing the Russell Realty Company, has sold the Harry W. Moore farm of 30 Acres at Sandy Bottom to Mrs. Mabelle Wright, of Point Marion, Pa., price $3,600. This property was sold during the past winter to other parties who refused to live up to their contract claiming that the snow was on the ground thus hiding the land.

He has also sold the Jas. H. Rowe property on Greys Inn Creek consisting of dwelling and 7 acres of land to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elmer, of Baltimore county. Price $1,400.

Enoch Pleasanton has purchased from Mrs. H. S. Raynor the four brick dwellings Corner High street and College avenue.

Edw. Clothier has purchased of W. W. Beck, attorney, the R. M. Bryan property for $585.

Tomato Contracts—Downey's cannery at Rock Hall is offering $30 per ton for tomatoes.

Baldwin at Chestertown and Kennedyville is offering $27.50, and more if possible.

Tomato growers of Broad neck who ship from Leary's wharf signed up for 42½ cents with J. J. Langrill & Co., of Baltimore, for the 1918 crop.

Capt H. U. Fletcher secured for the farmers at Lankford a contract from Torsch Packing Co., of Baltimore, of 42½ cents per basket or $22.50 per ton.

Morgan Browne has secured for his patrons a price of 45 cents per ⅝ basket, the contract being made with the Louis Grebbs Co., of Baltimore.

Roberts & Bro. through their representative, Elwood Burgess, has contracted with the growers within the vicinity of Edesville, at 42½ cents per basket.

A CARD.

We take this method of thanking the many friends who came to our help in our recent bereavement.
MRS. MARY BURGESS and CHILDREN.

A CARD

TO my friends and loyal patrons I take this method to put to the right my situation. While it is a fact I have this 29th day of May, 1918, assumed a fresh obligation—the management of Bohemia Farm, located in Cecil county, Md., owned by Miss Catherine M. McLane, of Baltimore, Md.—it shall not conflict with my present field of labor. Ample arrangements are made for the working out of this new enterprise.

Every obligation made in my present field of work shall always have my full moral and financial support. For to me there is more even in this life to a business transaction than simply the glint of gold that flows through a proposition.

I take this method to place just where a bunch of gab-a-slab critics belong, and ascribe the only plausible reason, which is a large per cent. pure envy and the remaining per cent an absence of gray matter, which to those who honestly wist and try to succeed does not matter a whole big lot.

Yours truly,
W. R. McINTYRE,
it Galena, Md.
