HAND OF DEATH

James T. Brown died in Baltimore Thursday aged 75. The deceased tenanted the Hynson farm in Quaker Neck for 21 years and also kept store at Edesville. He leaves a widow and five children, viz., Claude, Ellston, Mrs. Wm. J. Maslin, Foster, Staunton. The funeral will take place today, interment at St. Paul's, Rev. Mr. Gardner officiating, C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Striken by apoplexy while with the moonlight excursionists of the Second English Lutheran Church on the steamer Louise Friday night, Mrs. Blank, 57 years old, 610 West Cross street, died before the steamer reached shore. Her body was removed to her home when the steamer reached the city.

Mrs. Blank and her daughter, Miss Eleanor Blank, took their supper with them when they started on the moonlight and ate as soon as they went aboard the vessel. The steamer was passing Fort McHenry when Mrs. Blank began feeling badly and a few minutes later she dropped unconscious. She was removed to a stateroom and was attended by Dr. H. L. Dodd.

She is survived by her husband, Louis Blank; one son, Reinhardt Blank, and two daughters, Misses Eleanor and Cora Blank.

Dr. Dodd had an eventful trip as on the way over he was called to attend a very sick lady.

Mrs. Ida R. Coleman, nee Kendall, wife of Charles Coleman, died at her home near Rock Hall on June 25th at 8 a. m., after an illness of a year, aged 47 years. She leaves also one daughter, Miss Lillian. The funeral was held at Wesley Chapel on Thursday morning at 10.00 o'clock conducted by Rev. A. F. T. Raum and interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. Thos. H. Casey was funeral director, and the bearers were her brother, William Kendall and Elwood Burgess, Harry Wagner, Marion T. Miller, William and Henry Donaldson.

WEDDING NOTES

A license was issued in Baltimore on Tuesday of last week for the marriage of Nicholas Sackel, of that city and Estella Newton, of Chestertown. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Newton and is a very attractive young lady. The groom is a Greek and formerly employed at the Chestertown Candy Kitchen.

William C. Boulter surprised his many friends by being married Saturday, June 29th. His bride is the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hubbard, Freemont avenue, Baltimore. The groom being the popular manager for T. F. Stine's bowling alleys, Gwynn Oak.

The Kent County School Board on Monday named Miss Frances Howard as teacher in the Chestertown High School in place of Miss Barbara T. Willis resigned to teach on the Western Shore.

CHESTERTOWN MARYLAND

A GREAT JULY FOURTH

It looked as if everybody was on the go in Kent county Thursday. There were nearly a thousand at the Kent & Queen Anne's races held at Radcliffe Park, near town, and some good sport enjoyed.

Tolchester was visited by 8,000 as many as 130 autos passing thru Fairlee per hour as noted by A. M. Kendall. It was one of the best 4th of this great resort. Betterton had its fine crowd also and the day was given up nearly entirely to pleasure.

Nationally it was a great day. Over a million soldiers are now in France while a million more are in training. 270,000 men were carried across during June while the launching of many big boats marked a new era in our country's history.

Rock Hall had a big day including speaking, parade, etc.

NEWSY TIDINGS FROM OUR BOYS

The "News" Will Be Glad To Mention Any Items of Interest You May Send About Your Soldier Lad —Let's Help Each Other In This

Mrs. William Stouffer received a letter from her son, Corporal Earle R. Stouffer. He is able to be up and around the hospital and wishes to be remembered to all his friends and thanks all of those who have sent him postals. He was wounded about the middle of March. He says he is anxious to get back to his company to the front. He is in the 26th Infantry, Company B., in France. He says he has had fine treatment.

William S. Leaverton, of the Officers' Training School, Camp Meade, has been transferred to a training school in Kentucky. He left Thursday afternoon after having a five days furlough at home.

Mrs. Howard Donnelly, of Rock Hall, has received an interesting letter from her brother, Private James A. Cannan, who has arrived in England. He says," we sure had a nice trip but I had no idea this time last year of being over here. I get mixed up on the money as the pennies are as big as half dollars but manage to get along all right. The boys are going to bed and making all sorts of noises. One fellow is asleep on this table on which I am writing and I am sure having some time. Don't worry about me as I am as well off here and maybe better than I was in "Mills." Howard is with the ammunition train Co. F. 103rd.

Among the Kent county boys stationed at Camp Meade, who were home for the week-end were: Harold B. Matthews, Wm. T. Henry, Arthur R. Cooper, Abe Hudson and Romie Sutton.

Sergeant Thomas H. Skipper, of Camp Meade, is spending a brief furlough at home with his wife.

Perkins Rolph, one of Uncle Sam's sailor boys spent Sunday at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rolph, Cross street.

Dr. Frank B. Hines and Galen Vansant, who have been located in camps in the South, are now at Camp Mills, New York.

The 115th Infantry, which contains many Kent county boys, and which has been in training at Anniston, Ala., for nearly a year, has arrived safely in France.

The Baltimore Sun of recent issue contained a good photo of Lieut. Jos. Wickes, son of the late Judge Joseph A. and Mrs. Gladys Wickes. Lieut. Wickes is now with the Marine Corps at Galveston, Texas.

Corporal Maxwell Blakeney, of the Motor Mechanics Supply Train now stationed at Camp Wadsworth, S. C., was in Chestertown Friday and Saturday. He expects to sail overseas when he returns to camp.

Arlington L. Sparks received a very pleasing letter from his son, Irving, on Monday. As noted heretofore in these columns Irving is acting as chauffer for one of the colonels on Pershing's staff, and at the time of writing the letter referred to, had just returned from a motor trip along the Swiss and Italian borders. He has been recommended for further promotion in rank, being at present a corporal.

Private Clarence Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kelly, was home last week on leave.

Joseph Elburn, who has been in training for the army the past three months, has been honorably discharged because of heart trouble and returned to his home Saturday.

Embert Harrison and Maxwell Jacobs, two of the late registrants, have decided to make application for enlistment in the Naval Reserves.

Private Abe Hudson was at his home near Tolchester last Saturday and Sunday.

Seaman Harry Gunby is at his home with Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens on a ten-day furlough from Norfolk, Va.

Second Lieutenant Maurice S. Kerr had a 24-hour leave of absence from Camp Mills, N. Y., and reached his home at 11 o'clock Thursday night. He is connected with the 104th Trench Motor Battery which is composed of 306 fighting Irishman from Morristown, N. J., and his father, Capt. Charles Kerr, is looking for great things from him.

Emory Hogan is now a private with the Depot Brigade at Camp Meade.

Private Leonard Leary spent the week-end with his mother Mrs. Jennie Leary.

Private George Kelley had a furlough over Sunday which he spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kelley.

Private Bernard Willson, of Camp Meade, spent Saturday with his parents.

Private LeRoy Crosby had a fifteen hour leave on Sunday and spent it at Rock Hall.

Joseph C. Walters has purchased from C. A. Rawleigh his house on Cannon street. Price $1,100. Mr. Walters and family moved in their new home last week. Mr. Rawleigh and family have moved with Mrs. Gardner, on Cannon street.
