WEDDING NOTES

Warren Barker, a former employe in the News office, now residing in Washington, and Miss Mildred Leonard, of Washington, were married last Monday week. They will continue to make their home at the Capitol.

The wedding of Miss Sue Walton Dunbracco to George W. Broome, of Baltimore, formerly of Ohio, will take place today at 7 p. m. at the home of the bride on High street.

A quiet wedding took place at the rectory of St. Paul's Church, in Fairlee, Tuesday evening, Dr. Dickinson officiating. The interested parties were Miss Grace Newnam, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Newnam, of near Chestertown, and Lieut. Robert R. Ayres. Only the immediate families were present besides Thomas Massey, James Metcalf and Marion Dixon. After spending the night at the bride's parent's home the groom left for Camp Green, N. C., where he had been assigned for duty. His bride will follow in a week's time.

Marion L. Worthington and Miss Margaret D. Allen, of Philadelphia, were united in holy wedlock at the M. E. parsonage in Chestertown by Rev. J. L. Ward. Rev. T. F. Beauchamp was out of town and Mrs. B. arranged for the ceremony.

A Womans Defense Council meeting will be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Eastern Shore Inn. Owing to Chautauqua the meeting has been postponed from the first Monday to the second Monday of the month. No reports are required, but District Leaders and their Executive Committees will please be present. Liberty Loan Chairmen and their Committees are especially requested to come, as plans for the Fourth Loan must be made immediately. Mrs. Lecates, Chairman of Women in Industry is expecting to have a speaker present.

FESTIVAL AND SUPPER.

The ladies and friends of St. Paul's P. E. Church will hold their Fall Supper and Festival on the green next THURSDAY, SEPT. 12, 1918. All the good things of the season will be served. Tickets 75 cents. s7-1t.

THIEF STEALS AN AUTO

A thief walked off with Vernon D. Barnett's car in Middletown Monday night. Mr. Barnett was called up by the passenger at Worton and bargained for the trip. Upon reaching Galena the car was stopped and Mr. Barnett advised over the phone by Worton friends to collect fare as the man was believed to be a crook. The passenger paid his fare promptly. Upon reaching Middletown the man asked his driver to come with him to get a piece of machinery, and leaving the car, they proceeded down the street. The man went into a shop leaving Mr. Barnett on the outside. This was the last seen of his passengen and of his car too, for upon returning to the parking space no car was to be seen. It was learned that this man had sold a car a few days before for $350. He was also seen changing the license on the stolen car by travelers. Mr. Barnett spent several days trying to catch the thief without success.

MUST ENROLL SEPTEMBER 12

All Men In The United States Between The Ages Of 18 And 45, Inclusive, Who Have Not Already Registered, Or Who Are Not Now In The Military Or Naval Service, Must Do So On The Date Designated, Between 7 A. M. And 9 P. M. Youths In Their 18th Year Will Be Placed In A Separate Group.

Defenders Day will take on a new signiflance this year. In his proclamation issued Saturday, President Wilson fixed as the date for the registration of men under the draft law—Thursday, September 12—the day set aside this year in Baltimore to do to the memory of the men who saved Baltimore and their country in 1812. This year it will see the men who are to save their country in a new and greater war, registering their names for their country's call.

Maryland's quota as estimated by the Provost Marshall General is 162,090. This figure has been reached by the War Department by substracting from the estimated total male population for the state between the ages of 18 and 45, the number already in service. The number of men from Maryland under the registration of June 5, 1917, under the first draft law, was 121,598. The total number of men in the United States who are expected to register is 12,778,758.

In his proclamation, calling on all the men liable to be called under the new law, President Wilson impresses upon every man the solemn responsibility that confronts him.

Final Demonstration.

"This will be our final demonstration of loyalty, democracy and the will to win," he says. "Our solemn notice to all the world that we stand absolutely together in a common resolution and purpose."

He pays tribute to the eagerness of the younger men who "from the first have been ready to go," he says, adding that "they covet not only the distinction of serving in this great war, but also the inspiring memory which hundreds of thousands of them will cherish through the years to come of a great day and a great service for mankind."

The older men, he says, will accept the opportunity now open to them "with the calm resolution of those who realize to the full the deep and solemn significance of what they do." The very success that they have achieved and the responsibilities they have assumed, the very records they have made will impress upon them the fact that this new duty is the commanding duty of their lives, and "they will regard this call as the supreme call of their day and will answer it accordingly."

Registration Rules.

All men within the new ages, whether citizens of the United States or not must register, unless they are diplomatic or consular representatives of foreign nations.

In case of illness on the registration day arrangements for tardy enrollment may be made with local boards, and men who expect to be absent from their homes may register by mail, sufficiently in advance that the registration record reaches the board by September 12. If a man has no permanent residence he is to register at the place he is on September 12, and those out of the country on that day are required to enroll within five days after their return.

At least 13,000,000 men will place themselves subject to call for war service under the new registration, it is estimated, although only those without dependents, in good health and otherwise qualified for arduous duties of soldier life are to be taken first.

In A Separate Group.

Youths in their eighteenth year will be placed in a separate group, the War Department has announced, to be subject to a special educational program and will not be called until the supply of other available men in the new classes is exhausted. This does not mean that their calling will be long deferred, however, inasmuch as it has been announced that all men in the new registration accepted for general service will be under arms by June 30, 1919. The Man-power Bill makes no specific provision for separate classification of 18-year-old boys and War Department plans for their treatment have been made on executive initiative.

Although the work or fight clause, which would have affected striking workmen was taken out of the bill before passage yesterday, Provost Marshal General Crowder has planned to apply vigorously existing regulations relating to idle men or those engaged in nonessential employment to the newly registered men.

The Man-power Bill was signed by presiding officers of the House and Senate and sent to the White House for the President's signature which made the measure law. The President at once signed and issued the proclamation carrying the new draft provisions into action.

New Organizations Effected

The elevator men and millers of Kent and Queen Anne's counties met at the office of Food Administrator Edwin H. Brown, in Centreville Thursday afternoon and effected an organization for the two counties which will be known as The Millers and Elevator Men's Association of Kent and Queen Anne's Counties. R. H. L. Carter, of Centreville, was elected President; Dudley G. Roe, of Sudlersville, Vice-President, and P. M. Brooks, of Chestertown, Secretary and Treasurer. D. K. Crouse, of Ridgely; W. J. Massey, of Price; P. M. Brooks, of Chestertown; Edwin S. Valliant, of Church Hill, and John E. Higman, of Millington, were named a committee to attend any meetings of other Millers Associations at any time they should be called.

The registration Tuesday in Kent amounted to almost nothing. There were three registered at Rock Hall.
