LIBERTY LOAN IN KENT

The Fourth Liberty Loan in this county was ushered in with the ringing of bells and blowing of whistles last Saturday. Quite a crowd gathered about the college campus to see the airplane but it failed to arrive nor has any word been received as to its whereabouts. Mail Driver Stafford stood by his flag on the campus for two hours hoping to get the bag of letters and convey same to the court house.

Meetings were held in the court house under Allan A. Harris' direction. Hon. Carville D. Benson, of Baltimore county, and Sargeant Noah Walker, a returned wounded soldier spoke. Sargeant Walker is a marine and was in the thick of the fight. He is intelligent and modest and gave a vivid picture of the battle of Chateau Thierry. Solos were sung by Mrs. Foster Cannan and Miss Isabelle Beck and duet by Master D. B. Ford and Catherine Ford.

The subscriptions amounted to $56,000 and too much credit cannot be given Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright who lead off in fine style while others showed their loyalty in an equally solid manner. The $50 subscriber is to be commended with equal earnestness as the thousand dollar citizen.

The total amount of subscriptions to date are over $100,000.

On Monday night Mr. Adams, proprietor of the Floating Theatre, and Allan A. Harris, addressed the audience at that play house, and secured a number of subscribers. Mr. Adams is showing his patriotism by his efforts at his Theatre and tendering the services of his splendid band while in our midst.

H. C. Willis, of Worton, and Norman C. Jefferson, of Chestertown, "Four minute men," addressed audiences at the Lyceum Theatre, Friday and Saturday night, respectively.

A number of big meetings are scheduled for this week, see adv. elsewhere.

The meeting at Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, on Thursday evening was addressed by Major Harry Grant, who made a fine speech. Music was furnished by the Liberty Chorus under the direction of A. M. Culp and solos were rendered by Misses Rouse and Boyd. Over $20,000 was subscribed at this meeting.

Announcement. — An engagement just announced is that of Miss Miriam Warren Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, Chestertown, to Lieut. George Maurice Morris, Ordnance Department United States Army. Lieut. Morris is a graduate of Dartmouth College and holds the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence from the University of Chicago. He is a member of the D. K. E. and Phi Deta Phi Fraternities and several Chicago clubs. He is at present an instructor of aerial bombs at the Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio.
