The high cost of deliveries is really a myth

Lots of people have been telling you that all grocery deliveries are expensive. That they greatly increase the cost of your food.

That you ought to save this cost by carrying your groceries home.

On the contrary our customers find our delivery system really economical.

It doesn't add to the cost of their groceries and provisions.

It saves their time and energy—which they can more profitably devote to their homes or to various outside interests.

We feel that it is part of a grocer's business to make deliveries. Our whole organization is built to serve you in this, and other ways.

For example, we maintain a telephone for your convenience. We We carry the highest quality groceries we can buy. And we suggest to you various things we know to be especially good.

We take an interest in what you buy—when we sell you the ingredients for a cake, we like to know how it's going to turn out.

That's why we recommend to you Ryzon, the Perfect Baking Powder. There's no uncertainty about Ryzon—success is a foregone conclusion, for it is thoroughly dependable and at 40c per pound it is downright economy.

Ask us about the Ryzon Baking Powder if you haven't already. You'll wonder how you ever got olong without it.

A Ford Starter, including Battery, for $19

Mr. Ford owner, let me tell you why you should own and use the "PEERLESS FORD STARTER"—

FIRST—To avoid conscription into that vast army of thousands who have been injured by cranking.

SECOND—To save high price gas and oils. Why let your engine run when your car is standing? Why get out into the mud and crank up when you stall?

THIRD—To avoid carbon accumulation warping of valve seats and stems, due to over-heating of your engine while running idle—this is a big item.

FOURTH—To feel the sense of satisfaction and pride that comes from starting your Ford from the seat, the same as the highest priced car made. Any lady can run a Ford equipped with one of these starters.

That's worth more to you in a week than the Peerless costs.

Names of people who are using starters on appplication.

Demonstration Saturday afternoon and evening in front of Lofland & Culp's store.

DR. BACCHUS DIES AT SAG HARBOR

Well-Known Brooklyn Rector Was Member Of Prominent Eastern Shore Family.

Funeral services for Rev. Dr. John G. Bacchus, rector emeritus of the Church of the Incarnation, Brooklyn, N. Y., and honorary canon of the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Garden City, L. I., were held Monday afternoon in Brooklyn. Dr. Bacchus died suddenly at Sag Harbor on Friday while on his way to visit his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Truslow, at West Hampton Beach.

Dr. Bacchus was a member of a widely known Eastern Shore family, J. D. and D. A. Bacchus, Mrs. Alice McFeely and Miss Hattie I. Bacchus are members who live in Chestertown where Dr. Bacchus was born in 1849. A brother, Rev. George Q. Bacchus of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, is now stationed at Centreville. Dr. Bacchus spent his youth in Chestertown and graduated in 1870 from Kenyon College, Ohio, afterward studying theology at the Episcopal College at Cambridge. The University of North Carolina conferred the degree of doctor of divinity on him. He was ordained in Brooklyn and for 46 years was rector of the Church of the Incarnation, retiring in 1914. He married Miss Josephine Maria Stockbridge, of Brooklyn, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Truslow and Mrs. Frederick H. Danker, of Worcester, Mass., and one son, Stockbridge Bacchus, of Philadelphia.

Bishop Burgess, of Long Island, and Rev. Frederick H. Danker, Dr. Bacchus' son-in-law, conducted the services, interment in Greenwood Cemetery, L. I.

Dr. Bacchus was a notable figure in the Episcopal Church and was conspicuous for his strong opinions on divorce, holding that death alone could sever the martial tie. He has been rector of this church 40 years and rector Emeritus six years, a record unequaled in the East.

NURSES HIT BY AUTO

While returning to Cambridge in an automobile Saturday night, James N. Sherman ran into Mrs. Lillie Hastings, of Salisbury, and Miss Ida Dickerson, of Chestertown, nurses at the Eastern Shore State Hospital, who were walking along the State road. The accident was due to Mr. Sherman's failing to see them because of the light of a car coming in the opposite direction and their confusion at the approach of the two machines. Mrs. Hastings sustained a broken ankle and colarbone and numerous abrasions. Miss Dickerson's injuries consisted of a broken ankle, a cut on the head and numerous burises. They were taken to the Cambridge Hospital and attended by Dr. Guy Steele.

FIRST KAINIT CARGO HERE

Steamer Caldonier Brings It From Deposits In Alsace.

The Belgium steamer Caldonier came into port yesterday from Antwerp with the first cargo of kainit brought here or to any port in the United States since 1914, when the German potash syndicate had to give up business at this port. The cargo is consigned to H. J. Baker & Bro. It will be delivered to fertilizer manufacturers.

The kainit in the Caldonier comes from mines in Alsace, formerly controlled by the Germans. Following the Caldonier is another steamer filled with kainit. She is expected to sail from Antwerp within a few days for Baltimore for the Baker Company which expects to receive all its imports at this port. The company has been made sole agent in the United States of the Provisional Bureau of Sales in France for the sale of potash in the United States, which means that that firm hereafter will distribute all potash from the mines of Alsace.—From Baltimore Sun.

The Peerless Fertilizer Company were among the few manufacturers receiving potash on the above steamer and they have now at their plant in Chestertown a barge unloading kainit at Chestertown that came on the "Caldonier" which will be used in their fall goods and Mr. Hubbard informs us that the Peerless Company have bought to arrive between now and March 31st, 1920, eight thousand tons of various grades of potash.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear baby, H. VERNON MENCH, who departed this life one year ago, August 7, 1919.

One year ago, my little boy,
God took you away from me;
Some day we'll meet in the blessed land
And then I'll be with thee.
BY FATHER.

Thy coach is empty, little son,
My heart is aching sore,
I'm coming to thee some day
To dwell forevermore.
BY MOTHER.

Dear little brother,
Why did you die,
And go to live
In the big, blue sky?
I'm just as lonesome
As I can be
Without my brother
To play with me.
BY HIS SISTER CORA.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father, FRANKLIN T. HOGANS, who departed this life June 23, 1919.

Gone but not forgotten.

Dear is the grave where father is laid,
Sweet is the memory which never shall fade;
Roses may wither, leaves fade and die,
Others may forget you, darling father but never will I.

Friends may think I will soon forget you,
And my wounded heart be healed;
But they little know the sorrow
That's within my heart concealed.
DAUGHTER EMMA.

A happy home I once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a vacant rocker the world can never fill.
Some may think I have forgotten you, dear father,
And my wounded heart is healed,
But they little know the sorrow that's in my heart.

His memory is as dear today
As in the hour he passed away.
I did my best, God only knew,
To save his life I could not do.
SON JOHN.

Oh, how long the months have been, dear father,
Since you have been away,
And, oh, the many heartaches
Since that sorrowful day.
On you, dear father, I could always depend
And knew I had one sincere friend,
And of all the hours on earth you spent
Your heart to me was always bent.
Nobly at his post he stood,
My father, kind and true,
Beloved by all his friends so well
And kind to all he knew.
Rest on, dear father, thy labor's o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more.
A faithful father, both true and kind,
A truer father you could not find.
SON HARRY.

Oh, God, what a weight of sorrow
Must I, the lonely one, bear—
The silent room, the empty bed
And the lonely, vacant chair.
Tenderly I nursed and cared for him,
Trying in vain to restore his health.
Hour by hour I saw him fade
And slowly sink away,
Yet in my heart I often prayed
That he might longer stay.
DAUGHTER SALLIE.

In the graveyard, softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one I loved so dearly
In his lonely, silent grave.
I often sit and think of him
When I am all alone;
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
SON THOMAS.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our hearts
That never can be filled.
We do not know the pain he bore;
We did not see him die.
We only know he passed away
And could not say good-by.
SON JOSEPH.

Yes, it's toasted

YOU know how much toasting improves bread. Makes it taste good. Of course—more flavor.

Same with tobacco—especially Kentucky Burley.
