CONTRACT AWARDED

Baltimore And Eastern Shore Ferry Begin Construction Of Pier At Bay Shore—Two Big Boats At Steelton Being Overhauled.

The Raymond Concrete Pile Company, which has secured the contract for the erection of a large pier to be built at Bay Shore for the Baltimore and Eastern Shore Ferry Line, Friday began actual construction work, which consisted of grading the shore end of the structure. The pier will cost about $99,500. The contract for the pier at Rock Hall, which is expected to cost about $30,000, has not been let.

It was announced that Governor Harrington has promised officials of the new ferry company that suitable road approaches will be constructed by the State to connect with the good road leading into Sparrows Point, as well as the road leading from the Eastern Shore end of the ferry line to Rock Hall, where the State road now ends. City officials, it was stated have promised to make good road connections from Fifth avenue to the center of the city.

HAND OF DEATH

Miss Ida S. Stevens died Monday at the home of Mrs. Geo. W. Hatcherson, High street, after many months of suffering with cancer, aged 64 years. She is survived by two sisters and one brother, viz: Mrs. Alice Marr, of Howard county; Mrs. J. Edward Bramble, of Kent, and Geo. R. Stevens, of Philadelphia. She also leaves two neices and one nephew—Clarence S., and Misses Helen and Nannie Gale, all of Baltimore city. Funeral services held Wednesday, from her late home, conducted by the Revs. J. L. Ward and Avery Donovan. The pall-bearers were Wm. T. Nicholson, C. Frank Crow, George R. Stevens, Clarence S. Gale, Edgar P. Beck and C. Romie Skirven; interment at St. Paul's, undertaker, C. L. Dodd.

Claude W. H. Schuyler, artist painter, died September 22, 1919, at his home on the Strand, New Castle, Del., after a lingering illness of Cardiac insufficiency. Together with his wife (the sister of Chas. H. Price, Esq., of Stoneton Manor, Kent county) he had a studio of painting, wood carving and modelling for the past ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler after traveling and studying in France and Italy returned and spent some years in Betterton, Md., where they painted many scenes around the picturesque and romantic shores and banks of the beautiful Sassafras river.

Returning to New Castle which presented a larger field for their work Mr. S. had a commission from the Delaware State Committee to paint over a dozen of Delaware's celebrated historical characters, for the State house in Dover. Among them were George Read, Signer of the Declaration of Independence; William Penn, in armor copied from original in Independence Hall, Philadelphia; Peter de Vries, 1st Dutch Governor of Delaware, and several others.

Mr. Schuyler recently painted for his family the portrait of the late Lieutenant John P. Wallis, U. S. Navy, of Georgetown, Kent county, Md. Mr. S. Was universally popular his kind heart and cordial manners endeared him to all. By especial request he was interred in the I. U. Church yard, where in the seclusion and peaceful serenity of the place, loving friends laid him to rest; a part of the Episcopal Church service for the dead with a hymn choir was conducted in New Castle by Rev. Dr. Alban Richey, of St. John's Church, Wilmington, and the Rev. John Earp, of Immanuel Church, New Castle, and the remainder of the services were finished at the I. U. by the Rev. Dr. S. S. Hepburn, of that church.

Miss Elva C. Coleman, aged 26, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coleman, died Friday at the home of her parents in Crumpton.

After a faithful service in the Lord's vineyard, Rev. J. M. Mitchell was called to his reward Thursday, following an extended illness, which was borne with christian fortitude.

He had been in the active ministry of the Wilmington M. E. Conference for thirty-five years and only a few years ago ceased his labors and retired because of ill health. He located at Millington, and it was there at his home he passed away, aged 62 years. Besides his wife, he is survived by two children, Mrs. Melvin E. Wheatley, wife of the pastor of Centreville M. E. Church, and a son, Eugene Mitchell, just returned from overseas.

The remains were conveyed to Dover, Delaware, and rested at the home of W. L. Pritchett, from where the funeral took place Monday; interment was made in Silver Lake Cemetery, Dover.

Frank D. Lamb died at the home of William and Frank Lamb in Morgnec Tuesday afternoon, aged 89 years, 10 months and 10 days. He leaves a widow and four children. The deceased was one of the most remarkable healthy men in Kent. He had never been in bed but once in 89 years previous to his death illness and was widely known for his excellent appetite, his sociability and genial good humor. He lived most of his life in Quaker Neck on the Lamb farm where his home was a social center for a wide circle of friends. He was a good citizen and always had a kind word for everyone. The funeral took place Thursday, interment at Chester Cemetery, Revs. Edwin Gardner and A. H. Covey, officiating, C. L. Dodd, undertaker. A male quartette consisting of T. D. Bowers, J. H. Thompson, A. L. Sparks and Fred. G. Usilton, rendered music. The bearers were Albert B., Wm. B., J Wilson, James H., Richard B. and Arthur A. Groves, nephews of deceased.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Beaston died at her home in Locust Grove Thursday last, aged 67. She leaves two sons, George H., of Brooklyn, N. Y., and S. Hill Beaston, of Kent. She was the widow of the late George Beaston. The funeral will be held on Sunday at 2 p. m. with interment at Shrewsbury. Rev. Frank White will officiate. The bearers will be Alfred Deshane, G. W. Sutton, J. F. Newcomb, J. H. Jarvis, G. R. Rasin, Henry Rutter; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.
