LOCAL NOTES

A meeting of Chautauqua guarantors will be held at Kent County Savings Bank next Friday evening at 8 o'clock. All urged to be present.

A Base Ball meeting will be held in Court House Monday evening, Aug. 9th. All interested will please attend.

Chestertown has one of the best all-around base ball teams in its history. Capt. Kibler and his mates are to be congratulated.

Capt. Jim Willson lost four sheep and five lambs last week by dogs.

The straw stacks on Handy Point farm and Sudler Loller's place in Worton were destroyed by fire Saturday night during the storm.

Over 500 persons witnessed the Chestertown and Centreville base ball game on Washington Field last Saturday.

Thieves stole two and a half dozen fine frying chickens from the roosts of Mrs. Charles J. Reiche, on Kentmere farm, near Chestertown, one night last week. Mrs. Reiche had penned the chickens for shipment the next morning.

Robert Kennedy, on the Cochran farm, near Kennedyville, has threshed one of the best crops in Kent. He got 3065 bushels from 102 acres. From a 2-acre asparagus patch he threshed 86 bushels.

While threshing wheat on Friday, Henry Hughes, of Chestertown, had the misfortune to get his forefinger of his right hand caught in the gearing of the machine and cut off at the first joint. Mr. Hughes is getting along all right.

A delegation comprising Senator Russell, M. W. Thomas, S. S. Beck, H. F. and C. N. Jefferson, and Fred. G. Usilton went before the Board of County Commissioners Tuesday and asked for use of Court House lot for Chautauqua. An answer will be given Tuesday.

The following appointments were made by the Kent County School Board Tuesday: Mrs. James Brice, assistant at Betterton High School; Miss Madge Wilmer, assistant at Betterton Elementary School; Miss Elizabeth Lusby was transferred from Locust Grove to assistant at Millington Elementary School.

The following delegates from Washington Camp No. 34, P. O. S. of A. attended the State Camp at Sudlersville this week: Joseph Dwyer, Chas. F. Wheatley, W. F. Malin, A. E. Culver and Ricard Duyer, John C. Davis, District President, and J. Waters Russell, State Master of Forms.

J. W. Russell was elected vice-president.

..The creditors' suit instituted in Baltimore on July 9 for the appoint of a receiver for the Sandy Beach Amusement Company, conducting an amusement park near Bay Shore, was dismissed Tuesday by Judge Heuisler without hearing testimony for the defense, their clients' claims having been settled. Upon the testimony Judge Heuisler held there was no evidence that the company was insolvent. Harry B. Wolf and Eugene Frederick were attorneys for the company.

John Page, assistant keeper of the Love Point Lighthouse, has been transferred to Roamer Shoals Light Station, near New York. W. W. Bozman, of Upper Cedar Point light, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Page.

A. P. Emerson, Wednesday, in avoiding colliding with a truck, ran his car into the side of the road and upset. Mr. Emerson severed an artery in his wrist and lost considerable blood. He was glad to escape more serious injury.

The Rena Stock Company, who are playing a week's engagement at Rising Sun under a tent, had a near tragedy a few nights ago when one of the actors shot at an escaped prisoner in the drama. The gun used was supposed to have a blank shell, but the scene proved a little too realistic to the actors than was comfortable. The gun was fired just as the escaped prisoner disappeared behind the scenes, when it developed that his escape was narrow, as it was a loaded shell and the charge passed over his head, tearing a hole in the tent, narrowly missing the ticket seller and striking the Cameron dwelling, across the street. No one was injured, but the performers had the scare of their lives and there were no more shooting scenes during the rest of the week.

Struck By Ball.—While playing a practice game of baseball at Laurel Wednesday afternoon, John H. Tobin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Tobin, of Millington, was struck on the spine by a thrown ball, and rendered blind for five hours. He has now recovered his sight, however, and is believed to be on the road to recovery. Young Tobin is catcher for the Laurel club, and was running to first base when the ball, which was intended to reach the first-sacker, struck him on the spine at the second joint from the neck. He was well enough to be removed to his home in Millington Sunday. The player named Gordy who threw the ball, is not the pitcher on the Chestertown team.

REAL ESTATE SALES

The William R. Robinson farm, located in the Seventh Election District of Queen Anne's county, and advertised in the News, was sold at public auction in front of the Court House door, in Centreville, Tuesday of last week. The farm contains 80 acres and was purchased by Mrs. Ella P. Robinson, of Chestertown, for $58 per acre. The sale was made by Charles Tucker as trustee. This farm may be bought at private sale.

H. C. Stanley has sold to Frank Meeks his property in Still Pond. Price said to be around $1300.

Mrs. T. Hynson Beck, sold last week to N. A. Hudson, of Toledo, O., her property at Fairlee, containing six acres. Price $4,500. Sale was made by H. T. Jewell.

Mrs. Mable Wright, of near St. Paul's Church, has sold her property, containing 30 acres, including stock and equipment to James Greenley, of Bethlehem, Pa. Price $4,000. The sale was negotiated by H. T. Jewell.

The real estate of the late Geo. W. Hatcherson was offered at public sale on Tuesday by W. Frazier Russell, Jr., attorney for the trustee, Judge L. W. Wickes.

The farm situated in the sixth district, containing 315 acres was withdrawn at a bid of $17,000.

The store and dwelling property, Corner High tnd Kent streets, occupied by E. E. Hudson, was sold to Fred. G. Usilton at $1250. Mr. Usilton has since sold this property to E. L. Pyle, who will remove there Jan. 1. Mr. Hudson is negotiating for another site.

The dwelling occupied by Joseph Dwyer was sold to Col. Chas. Lloyd at $830.

The dwelling occupied by Earle A. Barnes was purchased by Mr. Barnes at $1200.

At the same time as above the dwelling of the late Mrs. S. E. Hatcherson, situated adjoining the M. P. Church was offered by Robt. G. Nicholson, administrator, and withdrawn at a bid of $4700.

William S. Collins has sold his "Burchinal" farm, near town, to J. T. Hoopes. Price around $27,000.

Mrs. Mary A. DeCorse has sold her house and lot at Cliff's to Charles W. Kirby. Price private.

W. Tylden Brice is reported to have sold his farm at Lankford to his son, W. T. Brice, Jr., for $40,000. The former will remove from the farm the first of January.

WILL CONTESTED

The last will and testament of Perry Wilson, colored, a former well-known resident of near Chestertown, which was admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court for Queen Anne's county on the 30th day of July, 1918, has been the basis of a legal fight before the Orphans' Court for months past, and on last Tuesday the court passed an order directing the executor to make the distribution of the estate according to the terms of the will, Judge Gibson dissenting, and it is upon this order that the case may be taken to the highest tribunal in the State, the Court of Appeals.

The will disposes of an estate of about thirty thousand dollars, and it provides that one-seventh of the estate shall go to the widow and a like amount to each of his surviving children by a former marriage.

Later the widow filed her acceptance of the provisions of the will and the executor, Clifton L. Jarrell, began the usual process of settling the estate.

On January 2nd, 1919, the widow, who lives in Chestertown, appears with another paper in which she desires to withdraw her previous acceptance of the provisions of the will and renounces the will, standing on her legal rights as the widow of the testator.

Several hearings were held, but no definite action taken until last Tuesday, when the court considered the petition of the executor, who prayed the court's instructions as to the plan under which the final distribution should be made, whether the widow was bound by her first election which was to stand by the will and receive one-seventh, or did her later renunciation entitle her to one-third of the estate.

Upon the order passed by the Court the case may be taken to the Court of Appeals. Sydney P. Townshend, Esq., of Chestertown, represented the executor and widow, and Messrs. Legg, Bright and Smith, of Centreville, represented the other heirs.

STATEMENT

In justice to ourselves as County Commissioners and to the taxpayers of Kent County, we wish to state that the tax-rate herein declared is as much deplored by us as any other taxpayer. It would have been made less if there had been any other honest way to pay the county's indebtedness. We might have piled up a big debt for the future or dealt less generously with the schools, but we do not think the parents of Kent so desired. We have played no politics and simply levied for the necessary expenses. Kent County, like individuals, feels the increased cost of everything as the itemized statement will show.

In order that the reader may see at a glance where these increased expenses occur we call attention to some of the large items.

When we began our term of office Dec. 2, 1919, we found the road levy for entire year over-spent $12,000. Also certificates to the amount of $24,063.27 issued for special road work, no part of which was provided in levy of 1919.

The Almshouse levy for entire year was overspent $427.79.

The lateral road fund of $21,525 was made necessary by recent Act of Legislature, as was $6,000 to pay for finishing Galena School.

The schools were allowed $118,996.97, an increase of $53,933.52 over last year! The law compelled a certain amount for teachers' salaries and we added an average of $2.54 per week in order that we might continue the present efficient corps of teachers.

The Betterton-Still Pond Road cost $24,063.27, the Still Pond Station Road $3,978.25, both of which have been taken over by the State.

New equipment for roads has cost $8,154.64, while the special road work near Tolchester nearly $3,000.

These few items amounting to about $200,000 will give a good idea as to where the money went. With the practice of economy we believe there can be saved the tax-payers this year thousands of dollars.

The total cash levy last year was $131,163.71.

The total cash levy this year is $236,580.42. This increase is caused by the number of debts contracted last year for which certificates were given and for which cash had to be provided this year.

Total certificate levy last year was $37,137.60.

Total certificate levy this year is $97,700.76. This increase can be easily seen in the registration and election item (Primary) $6,090.98, as compared with $1,362.35 last year. Also almshouse $5,390.14; Betterton and Still Pond Road $24,063.27; Special Road Fund $24,860.92; road equipment $8,154.64; Still Pond Station Road $3,978.25, etc., etc. By comparing the figures in two certificate levies the difference in items may be observed, making up the $60,000 increase.

We court investigation and ask for the co-operation of all in running the county on an economical and business basis.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

In an automobile accident that occurred about one and a half miles above Wye Mills, Queen Anne's county, at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, Mrs. Margaret Dixon Spiva, of Princess Anne, was instantly killed and her husband, Wm. B. Spiva, cashier of the Bank of Somerset of that town, suffered a fractured skull and his condition is considered very grave.

Dr. Harry Fisher, of Centreville, reached the scene soon after the accident and rushed Mr. Spiva to the hospital at Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. Spiva left Princess Anne in their automobile about one o'clock Monday afternoon for Atlantic City, where they were to spend a week. The accident occured at Grange Hall, just beyond Wye Mills. At this point the State road is crossed by another road, which is concealed by a corn field. Just as the Spiva car, going towards Centreville, approached the cross road another car, belonging to Ernest Kemp, came out of the cross road and the two collided.

Mr. Spiva's car was turned over. The other car had five occupants, but all escaped without injury, except a woman, who had her hand broken.

Mrs. Spiva was the daughter of Thomas Dixon and Laura Brittingham Dixon. There are no children surviving, but Mrs. Spiva is survived by a number of uncles and aunts.

Mr. and Mrs. Spiva were welknown in Chestertown, being personal friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bradford Copper.

Late reports yesterday from Mr. Spiva was that he had a good chance to recover.

Six Hurt When Auto Upsets.—Six persons were cut and bruised when the touring car in which they were riding turned turtle on the Church Hill-Chestertown road. Those in the party were Joshua McCabe, of Delaware, owner and driver of the car; Asbury Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Yeates, Miss Katherine Everett and Miss Adrienne Roe, of Centreville. They were members of a camping party at Rolph's Wharf, and were on their way to Chestertown. When they drew near the road leading to Crumpton a car approached them and to avoid striking it Mr. McCabe ran his machine into a bank. The machine was wrecked.

New Cashier for Bank.—W. Raymond Horney, formerly of Centreville who was recently appointed cashier of Millington Bank, has resigned to accept a position as accountant with the Superior Guano Company of Baltimore. His resignation will take effect August 15. Clarence M. Melvin, of Queenstown, has been appointed cashier of the bank, to succeed Mr. Horney. Mr. Melvin is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Melvin, of Queenstown. He was graduated from Centreville High School in 1915, since which time he has held a responsible position with the C. & P. Telephone Company.
