WEDDING NOTES

Morris C. Smith and Mrs. Lillian M. Legg, both of Kent county, were married on Wednesday evening, Nov. 3rd, by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett.

The wedding of Miss Kathryn Myers, daughter of Mrs. Philip Myers, and Walter A. Hurlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hurlock, of Kennedyville, took place at the home of the bride's mother on Saturday last at 1 o'clock. The bride was becomingly dressed in blue coat suit with large black picture hat and carried shower bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Mildred Melvin, who was bridesmaid. Little Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Baker, of Chestertown, was ring bearer and Elizabeth Baldwin, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin, was flower girrl.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hurlock, of Bridgeville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Clark, to L. Robert Hopkins, of Wilmington, Saturday afternoon in the M. E. Church at Bridgeville. Miss Hurlock has a host of friends here and for three years, was connected with the personal department of the du Pont Co. Mr. Hopkins is connected with the Hercules Powder Co. in Wilmington. Mrs. Charles F. Wheatley, of Chestertown, Mr. and Mrs. J. Leonard Price and two daughters, of near Still Pond, attended the wedding.

One of the most interesting of the autumn weddings is that of Miss Jane Parker Cochran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cochran, to Merritt Merritt Lockwood, of Middletown, which took place October 18th. The ceremony was performed at 4.30 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents on Lanier place by the Rev. George Fiske Dudley. A profusion of palms, autumn leaves and chrysanthemums formed the decoration for the entire first floor, with bride roses mingled with the chrysanthemums in the drawing room, where the ceremony took place. An orchestra played the wedding music. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white Georgette combined with chiffon heavily embroidered in seed pearls, and made over a foundation of white silk. Her wedding veil and the orang blossoms were worn by her mother. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and orchids and her only ornament was a beautiful string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Sue Clara Cochran, who was her sister' only attendant, wore a dainty costume of peach colored georgette over silk of the same shade with a picture hat to match, and carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. Lockwood and his bride left for a wedding trip. They will be at home on their return at The Hadleigh. The bride is a great granddaughter of the late Governor John P. Cochran, of Delaware, and a great granddaughter of Col. Joshua Parker, who served on Gen. Washington's staff.

St. Paul's P. E. Church, Centreville, was the scene Saturday evening at six o'clock of one of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized in Queen Anne's county, when Miss Susan Binney Mitchel, of Centreville, became the bride of Justin Boardman Powell, of Macon, Ga.

The edifice was elaborately decorated for the occasion with banked evergreens and yellow chrysanthemums, and lighted with the soft glow of myriads of candles.

The wedding party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal march, played by Mrs. Mammond Cromwell, of Baltimore, in the following order: The ushers, followed by the bride's maid; Matron of Honor, flower girl, and the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, James Archibald Mitchell, of Yale University, by whom she was given in marriage. She was met at the chancel steps by the bride-groom, where the bethrothal service was read by Rev. G. Peyton Craighill, of Leesburg, Va. John McKenney Mitchell, also of Yale University, a brother of the bride, was best man. The bride and bride-groom proceeded to the altar, where Rev. Robert F. Gibson, of Scarsdale, New York, an uncle of the bride, performed the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. Clayton Wright, sister of the bride, was Matron of Honor, and was attired in a gown of turquoise blue Georgette, trimmed with silver lace, and wore a small hat of tulle to match. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Eleanor Gibson, of Scarsdale New York, a cousin of the bride, was the bride's maid, and wore salmon yellow Georgette and tulle, and carried a shower bouquet of violets.

The flower girl was little Miss Elizabeth Wistar Craighill, of Leesburg,

The bride, who is one of Centreville's most beautiful and charming young women, wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with Duchess lace, tulle and orange blossoms, with court train. Her veil was of tulle with coronet of Duchess lace and orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bride's roses and fern.

The ushers were Clayton Wright, of Centreville, brother-in-law of the bride; William L. Holton, Jr., J. Kent H. Jacobs, William McKenney, Jr., of Centreville, cousins of the bride; Jas. P. Keating, of Centreville, and John McKenney, of Princeton, a cousin of the bride.

Miss Mitchell is a daughter of the Rev. James A. Mitchell and Mrs. Ella McKenney Mitchell, of Centreville. Her father for many years was rector of St. Paul's Church, where the ceremony was performed. Mr. Powell is manager of a large plantation near Macon, where they will reside after a wedding journey in the North.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wright. The out-of-town guests were:

Chestertown—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Hynson Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Emory, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kibler and Miss Isabel Perry.
