Chairman Vickers Appeals To The Government.

Complaint Made Against Destruction Of Fish In Bay Off Kent County By Bombing Airplanes.

The Kent News' articles calling attention to the destruction of fish by experimental bombs dropped in the bay off the Aberdeen proving grounds by army aviators were carried to Washington Monday by Chairman Harrison W. Vickers of Maryland Conservation Commission, and James T. Crew, a fisherman, of Betterton.

Complaint was lodged with Col. F. A. Ruggles, chief of the Ordinance Department. Colonel Ruggles pointed to the need for the experiments and the necessity for making them in deep water. Suggestions to swamp lands for the purpose had to be discarded, he said, because many of the experimental bombs dropped were timed to explode at certain depths under water.

Colonel Ruggles suggested that Mr. Vickers take the matter up with the United States Bureau of Fisheries. Dr. Hugh L. Smith, head of the bureau, declared that the tests had proved that the bombs did little damage to the fish.

He said the establishment of the proving grounds had made those waters one of the finest fish preserves in the country. This, he said, is because the waters are closed to fishermen except on Sundays and legal holidays.

Colonel Ruggles was asked to have the War Department grant permission to fish at night during March, April and May in the restricted waters opposite the proving ground. April and May are the shad seasons, and it will mean much to the Maryland fishermen, it is said.

CARDINAL GIBBONS BURIED

With all the splendor of a ceremony centuries old, the Roman Catholic church Thursday laid to rest one of its oldest and most faithful servants —James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore and the second American to be elevated to the Cardinalate.

Archbishop John Bonzano, apostolic delegate at Washington, celebrated a pontifical requiem mass in the Cathedral of the Blessed Virgin Mary, with seminarians chanting Gregorian music never before heard outside the Sistine chapel in Rome during a funeral of a Pope.

Archbishop John J. Glennon, of St. Louis, delivered the funeral sermon. The service was like a scene from the middle ages, like an altar piece come to life. Numberless priests in a seemingly endless procession filed into the church and in their stately robes of the varied colors of their orders, moved forward to the catafalque on which rested the late Cardinal in his archbishop's vestments of purple.

The crowds which surrounded the cathedral remained through occasional showers which drenched the streets. So numerous were these mourners that the police had to rope off several streets.

EASTER IN M. P. CHURCH

Sunday was a great day in the church life of the whole country, and, we are pleased to note, especially in Chestertown. This article, however, has to do with the celebrations in Sunday school. Other events are noted in another column.

Rev. N. O. Gibson began the day with an appropriate sermon on Easter and a talk on church affiliation. He received into church membership fifteen upon confession of faith and two by letters, many of whom were heads of families. It was an inspiring scene which sent a thrill of joy in all believers' hearts and made rejoicing in heaven. After the preaching the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bringman was baptised. Mrs. Mark Perkins and Mrs. C. N. Satterfield stood up with them. The music of the morning was specially fine, the following anthems being rendered:

O, Death, Where is Thy Sting, Ira B. Wilson; I Know that My Redeemer Lives, H. Wildemere; He Lives Who Once Was Slain, E. S. Lorenz. The choir was composed of Mrs. J. H. Sides, Mrs. G. H. Cannan, Mrs. Robt. Harris, Misses Amye Wheat and Flora Wheatley, soprano; Mrs. T. D. Bowers, Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Miss Minnie Hudson, altos; J. H. Thompson, Philip Sewell, tenors; A. L. Sparks, Fred. G. Usilton, bassos; Miss Clara B. Usilton, organist.

At the close of the Sunday school session in the afternoon the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sewell and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gill were baptised by Rev. N. O. Gibson before quite a large company.

At night the 49th anniversary of the Missionary Society of the Sunday school was held. As usual this was a most interesting and enjoyable event, the program being unique in its character and presentation. An illustrated Easter story taken from the Bible and also written by Miss Yale was given the large audience by Mrs. Amye McMennamin and Mrs. Ella Robinson in their scholarly manner. The pictures were in charge of Messrs. Hope B. Hudson and A. F. Culver and were interspersed with beautiful Easter carols taken from Dr. Adam Geibel's "Joyful Allelieuas." J. Hydie Thompson direceted the music which was greatly helped by an orchestra composed of Arthur Bacon, cornet; Foster Cannan, trombone; Geo. Earle Nichols baritone; Jos. N. Wheatley and David McMenamin, violinists; Miss Clara B. Usilton, pipe organ.

A pleasing number in the musical program was a trio by Miss Usilton, Messrs. Bacon and Nichols.

The address of the President of the Society, Miss Frances Howard, was delivered in a most impressive manner while the subject matter was in excellent taste and appropriate to the occasion. Miss Elizabeth Meeks acted as secretary.

The report of classes for the night made a fine showing while the yearly contributions exceeded all past records of this flourishing school. Miss Clara B. Usilton's class of young ladies won the banner which was presented by Senator Wm. F. Russell in his inimitable manner. The four highest classes for the year were those taught by Rev. N. O. Gibson, Miss Clara Usilton, Mrs. T. D. Bowers, and Mrs. Ella P. Robinson, to whom were presented books by the superintendent. The class report was as follows:

| | Night | Total |
|---|---|---|
| W. W. Hubbard | $12.00 | $60.76 |
| Jos. N. Wheatley | 2.85 | 10.72 |
| Mrs. C. N. Satterfield | 1.70 | 9.98 |
| W. R. Huey | 835 | 25.60 |
| J. F. Wheatley | 15.00 | 60.38 |
| Mrs. G. H. Cannan | 5.00 | 18.90 |
| Miss Maude Duyer | 8.40 | 28.34 |
| T. D. Bowers | 19.00 | 55.91 |
| Miss Lucie Frazier | 15.42 | 26.12 |
| Mrs. R. C. Harris | 3.21 | 20.88 |
| Miss Myra Wheat | 20.54 | 26.67 |
| Miss Clara Usilton | 35.85 | 84.05 |
| Bible Class | 19.31 | 123.99 |
| Mrs. W. R. Huey | 2.35 | 21.51 |
| Mrs. Ella P. Robinson | 14.01 | 69.25 |
| Miss Fannie Baker | 11.05 | 34.94 |
| Hope B. Hudson | | 12.60 |
| Mrs. Frances Culp | 4.00 | 9.12 |
| Mrs. N. O. Gibson | | 5.10 |
| Primary Department | 28.20 | 75.70 |
| Totals | $22.24 | $781.12 |

The total collection for the year with the night plate collection was $792.01.

The decorations of the church were simply superb the central figure within the chancel being a bed of eight or more calla lillies while in the pulpit recess was a frame work trimmed with Easter lillies and from which an anchor was suspended. The committee in charge of this work was composed of Misses Nellie Nicholson, Flora Wheatley, Emily Lusby, Evalyn Russell, Owen C. Smith and others.

A DROP FROM 84 TO 23 DEGREES

A cold wave struck this section Monday night sending the mercury from 84 to 23 degrees. In Quaker Neck some hail fell followed througout the State by a dashing rain and wind.

A. H. Covey, I. R. Leaverton and other farmers think that wheat which had made an unusual growth is hurt. The pastured wheat is unhurt. Alfalfa is also hurt.

W. F. Wiggins, of Queen Anne's, says the strawberry crop is ruined in his neighborhood.

B. F. Rash says peaches, excepting Stamen, apples, cherries, pears and other fruits are seriously hurt. Early vegetables and flowers were withered.

Reports from that section of Kent county around Dover are that practically all the fruit has been killed, including strawberries, and it is believed that grapes in that section also badly damaged. One fruit grower in the central part of Kent county, after going through his orchard declared it looked as though the trees had been struck by a fire, so black were they where the buds had been killed. Peach and pear trees in Kent county were practically all in bloom, and early apples were in blossom.
