A new milinery store will be opened next week in the Pyle Building on High street by Miss Gussie Cannan. Trimmed hats will be her specialty.

The parade by Chautauqua Boosters under Miss Myra Wheat was a success. Prizes were awarded Allen Barnes and Gladys Aldridge for having most striking costume.

Under a recent ruling of the State Board of Health regarding the sanitary condition of Chestertown, every owner is required to tap the town sewers for the disposal of refuse from outside toilets.

The price of tomatoes has taken a decided jump here during the past few days and dealers are offering as high as 40 cents a basket for tomatoes on the railroad. The contract price is 25 cents a basket.

Edgar S. Davis, of Locust Grove, is certainly the champion amateur dahlia raiser, if the samples he brought to the News office are a criterion. He has seventeen different varieties in his garden and brought to us six varieties that were simply magnificent. One lavender colored dahlia was nine inches in diameter and was a beauty.

Weather prophets are predicting an unusually cold winter. George Brown, of Phoenixville, Pa., says: "This winter will be the record-breaker since 1900. There will be 28 heavy snows. The first will be on Nov. 9 and there will be sleighing for Thanksgiving day. It will continue warm until about Oct. 15, however." Our opinion is that this prophet nor any other knows what kind of weather is to occur this winter.

The homes of R. Goldey Warren and Percy Lee on Washington avenue extended are nearing completion. Mr. Lee has moved into his bungalow and opened his garage for business. Mr. Warren will move in a few weeks. W. T. Pippin was the contractor of the latter and Ellsworth Newcomb builder of the Lee home.

—Mr. John A. Jacquette has purchased from Mrs. A. M. Crozier, the "Page" farm located near Edesville. Price not stated.

—Charlie Chaplin in the "Kid" is coming to the Lyceum Theatre, Friday and Saturday of next week, September 9th and 10th. Don't Miss It.

—The improvement to the Kent Mutual Insurance Bldg. by a new coat of paint by W. L. Fowler is quite marked.

Republican leaders are trying to persuade Mrs. Wm. T. Dixon to be a candidate for legislature on their ticket.

The garbage contract undertaken by Leon Brown has been a great success. Mr. Brown, however, finds it impossible to continue at the present rate of $500 year and a change will likely be made Oct. 1. It is one of the best movements ever inaugurated in town and some way will be found to continue it.

Charles E. Haddaway has sold the place at Rock Hall owned by Tuerke & Dietz, to Chas. E. Hopps, of Baltimore. Price $2,000.

Elwin Ford, of Locust Grove, will tenant the Boyer and Faulkner farms, owned by Mrs. C. L. Jarrell, next year.

BASE BALL NOTES

More than 500 persons attended the ball game at the College this week and enjoyed the contest. The visitors were the New Yory Bloomer girls and were defeated by our boys by score of 11 to 7. Home battery was Robinson Usilton and Blakway, each three innings with L. Robinson, catch; visitors —Mabel Peterson and Youngstrow. The girls threw a scare into the locals by obtaining a two-run lead in the seventh inning and held it until the eighth, when three errors, a single and a pass and Seigenfuse's homer scored six runs. Stella Friss and Toots Andra starred for the girls, the former playing an exceptionally good game on first base. Miss Roth also played a good game at short.

Salisbury disbands next Tuesday.

A game will be played here next Monday afternoon.

Other notes in this issue.

CATTLE TESTED IN KENT

Last week's News noted the importances of pure cattle and referred to the visit here of an inspector. During the past week returns have been received from other herds and are alarming. One man had 27 turned down, another 18, another 16 while others had from 4 to 6. Across in Queen Anne's the same conditions exist. Over in Baltimore county a dairyman had to dispose of his herd of 50 Jerseys pure bred. The Government allows $50 per head for rejected amount is received from butchers who utilize the cattle for various purposes.

Every farmer wants to keep nothing but healthy cattle and welcomes the visit of the veterinarian, but when a man has his contested and gets rid of even all suspects then his product, should bring a price that will compensate him for all this care.

WEDDING EVENTS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell, in Galena, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday when the eldest daughter, Emily E., became the bride of W. C. Barnard Jones, of Wilmington. Rev. A. P. Prettyman performed the ceremony. They will reside at 111 North Harrison street, Wilmington.

Miss Olevia Plummer, of Rock Hall, and John A. Perkins, of Baltimore, were married at Elkton Wednesday, August 24, by Rev. R. T. Westren. After a short honeymoon at Rock Hall, they went to their new home in the city.

Mrs. Martha J. McKevitt, of Rock Hall, announces the marriage of her grand-daughter, Anna Katherine Legg, to Benjamin Durding, of Baltimore. The marriage took place Saturday afternoon, August 27, at 1.30 o'clock, in Baltimore, Rev. E. A. Soxsmith officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Durding will reside in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Peebles announce the marriage of their daughter, Mildred, to George Biddle on Thursday, August 18, in Seattle, Washington. Mr. Biddle is a son of George S. Biddle, of Rock Hall, and has been practising law in the hustling city of Seattle for some years.

Mrs. Ethel Cochran Price, daughter of the late Dan M. Cochran, of Middletown, and Herbert Raymond Price, of near Cecilton, surprised their friends by going to Elkton, Monday afternoon, where they were married at the Episcopal Church, by the rector, Rev. Mr. Dickson. Mr. and Mrs. Price will make their home on his farm in Maryland.

CHAUTAUQUA IS HERE

A week of splendid music and lecturers begun here under the big tent. Thursday. A union religious meeting will be held Sunday evening at 7.30. The opening program was up to the standard.

A banner and certificate was presented Chestertown as one of the original Chautauqua towns ten years ago. This banner was accepted by the first ticket selling committee. C. C. Jones, L. B. Russell, H. F. Jefferson and A. L. Sparks. T. Kemp Bordley was the other members. It is thought that there will be enough money to pay all debts without any assessment.

Senator Wm. F. Russell, President, Secretary, W. M. Thomas and ticket sellers sold 519 adult tickets and 124 children's. Everybody has worked hard to make Chautauqua a success especially at this time.
