WALL PAPER REDUCTION.

The Wm. K Grauer Wall Paper Co. had a shipment of wall coverings delayed in transit from their factory until too late for their fall trade. Same shipment has now been delivered to them by the Railroad Company, and hey have placed same in their agents hands to be sold by them at about one half the original price. I, as an agent for these people, have received my share of these goods and will sell same at one-half price. This is truly a good buy even though you don't need the papers until spring. I will be pleased to show the line of samples to any one wishing to see them. I am also giving my annual discount of 10 per cent. on all work done in the months of January and February.

Thanking my many friends for the volume of work given me through the past year and asking for a share of same in 1922, and wishing you all a happy and prosperous New Year.

NINTH ANNUAL BANQUET

Christ M. P. Sunday School Room The Scene Of A Brilliant Affair Given By The Young Men's Club—Music And Addresses.

The ninth annual banquet of the Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church was held Thursday evening in the lecture room of the church. It was the best attended of any yet held and up to the standard in every other respect. There were 86 ladies and gentlemen who sat about the beautiful banqueting tables and partook of the menu consisting of roast turkey, salad, hominy, jelly, pickles, biscuits, rolls, ice cream, coffee, etc., etc. Beautiful music, well rendered by Arthur Bacon, cornet, Jos. N. Wheatley and Norman Graves, violinists, Misses Clara Usilton and Louise Russell, pianists, added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening.

The faithful president, Rollison Baxter, introduced C. N. Satterfield as toastmaster and the speakers were Rev. N. O. Gibson, Willard Culp and Chas. F. Wheatley, each of whom made appropriate remarks. The committee on arrangements for the banquet were Harry B. Nicholson, Philip Sewell, C. N. Satterfield and Ellsworth Newcomb besides a corp of ladies. The fact that Mr. and Mrs. George Bacon had been married 40 years was brought to the attention of the diners and the banquet closed in a reception to this popular couple.

The following new officers of the club were elected previous to the banquet: President, Charles F. Wheatley; Vice-President, Harry W. Fallowfield, Secretary, Barber Bartley; treasurer, George W. French.

WEDDING BELLS RING FOR MANY COUPLES

Miss Susie Elsie Vansant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. P. Vansant, of Chestertown, and Mr. Walker Ball Lamb, son of Mrs. Mollie Lamb, of near Chestertown, were married at the home of the bride's parents, on Kent Circle, on Saturday last at 1 p. m. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. Omar E. Jones was witnessed only by the immediate families and a few friends.

The wedding march was played by Miss Estelle Jarvis, of Blacks, and little Miss Elizabeth Jarvis, was flower girl and carried a basket of sweet peas. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of Taupe broadcloth, and black nat, and carried bride's roses. A reception followed the ceremony, after which the happy couple left by way of Middletown for Philadelphia. After a short wedding trip they will reside near Millington.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Macpherson announce the marriage of their daughter, Mildred Elizabeth, to Mr. Joseph D. Martin, Thursday, December 22, 1921, at Takoma Park, Md. Mr. Martin is employed by the Review and Herald Publishing Association, Takoma Park. Mrs. Martin is teacher of the Seventh Day Adventist Church School at Rock Hall and will continue to occupy that position until the end of the school year.

Miss Esther May Dowling, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs. John R. Dowling, Sr., of Rock Hall and Mr. Solomon J. T. Jones, of Piney Neck, were married at eight o'clock in the evening of December 20th, by the Rev. F. L. Hicks at the M. E. Parsonage near Rock Hall. The bride wore a gown of tan crepe de chine. Mrs. Henry Jones and Mrs. Carroll Shriver, mother and aunt of the groom, were with the happy couple during the ceremony, which was followed by a reception for the immediate families at the home of the groom's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are making their home with the bride's parents.

St. Andrew's Chapel, Sudlersville, was the scene Wednesday at 12 o'clock of one of the prettiest weddings solemnized at that place in recent years, when Miss Esther Johnson Gillespie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Edward Gillespie, was married to John Palmer Smith, of Centreville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Insley, rector of the Parish.

Paul Boone Smith, brother of the groom, of Centreville, was best man, and the ushers were Victor Gillespie, brother of the bride; Lawrence Ensor, of Towson, and J. Paul Brown, of Centreville.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Helen Yarnall, of Philadelphia, and Miss Miriam Palmer Chambers, of Centreville, a cousin of the groom. The flower girls were Miss Helen Gillespie, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Virginia Jarvis, cousin of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette and lace over white satin, with a tulle veil, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and sweet peas. Miss Yarnall wore blue tulle and lace over silver cloth, with a short veil of blue tulle, and carried tea roses. Miss Chambers was attired in pink tulle and lace over pink satin, and wore a short veil of pink tulle. Her bouquet was of pink roses. The little flower girls wore frocks of white organdie, and carried baskets of flowers, which they scattered in the pathway of the bride.

They will be "at home" after January 10th at their handsome new home in Centreville.

Mr. Smith is the eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. George C. Smith, of Centreville. The bride is a graduate of Sudlersville High School.

Bryan—Peterson

Many Queen Anne's and Kent county persons will be interested in a marriage which took place Tuesday at noon at Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, Port Republic, Calvert county, when Miss Jeannette D. Peterson, of that place, became the bride of Emmett B. Bryan, of near Queenstown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph E. Williams, rector of the church.

The bride was given away by her brother, Dr. Peterson, of Washington, D. C., and was attended by Miss Virginia Bond, as bridesmaid. Mr. Willard V. Bryan, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Arthur W. Bryan, another brother of the groom and Thomas Parran.

Following the ceremony, a luncheon was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Bond, after which Mr. and Mrs. Bryan left for a trip north.

Mr. Bryan is a son of Mrs. Fannie E. Bryan and the late Wm. V. Bryan, of Queen Anne's. He is a grandson of the late Wm. J. Price, and for several years he has been engaged in farming, and is one of the Fith District's most progressive agriculturists.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. Eben F. Perkins, of Chestertown, and has frequently been a guest of relatives and friends in Kent county.

LOSES A FOOT

Knowledge of the use of the tourniquet saved the life of Norman R. Collison in Recovery Woods, Corsica Neck, Wednesday morning, when he accidently came in contact with the swiftly revolving saw in his mill, and had his right foot severed at the ankle.

Realizing that the accident would cost him his right foot, the injured man promptly applied a tourniquet to stop the flow of blood, and one of his assistants carried him to the office of Dr. W. H. Fisher in Centreville. A few minutes later he was removed to Easton Hospital where the foot was amputated several inches above the ankle.

The injured man is married and has three small children. At the time of the accident he was sawing wood on Recovery Farm, owned by Charles Morris Howard, of Baltimore.

REAL ESATE SALES

The four brick houses on High St. and College avenue, Chestertown, known as the Vannort property, was purchased this week by Mr. and Mrs. James Bramble from John E. Barnes. Price private.

Stevens R. Collins, representative of the Strout Farm Agency, has sold the Savinggton place across the river from Chestertown to Herbert T. Hartman, of Philadelphia. The purchaser is a brother to Hugh Hartman who bought a property last year nearly adjacent. The acreage is 15 and the price $10,000. We welcome Mr. Hartman and hope he will be pleased with our town and neighborhood.

J. W. Russell has sold the house on Kent Circle occupied by Mr. Redding to G. Edward Furbush who will make improvements and remove to same. Mr. Furbush in the deal disposed of his house, Corner Cannon and Prinsess streets, to Mr. Russell. Mr Reddin will occupy the Furbush house.

ORGANIZATION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Lee, Of Harford, Named For Speaker —Slate Goes Through In Entirety With But Feeble Opposition.

The two branches of the General Assembly in the Senate and House made nominations in caucus Tuesday night. The following are the caucus nominations in the Senate:

President—William I. Norris, Baltimore city. Secretary of Senate—Emerson C. Crothers, Cecil county. Journal clerk—Robert Coursey, Queen Anne's county. Reading clerk—C. E. Simpson, Talbot county. Sergeant-at-arms—William Robinson, Baltimore city. Chief page—John Wagner, of Baltimore city.

The House caucus nominated:

Speaker, John L. G. Lee, Harford county; chief clerk, Albert J. Almony, Montgomery county; journal clerk, Edgar N. Ash, Baltimore city; sergeant-at-arms, John Slowick, Baltimore city; chief page, Henry Hassenkamp, Baltimore city.

Dr. J. Hubert Wade called the Democrats together in either house, each then perfecting its organization.

Senator Walter Mitchell, of Charles was the presiding officer in the Senate and Senator W. F. Russell, of Kent was secretary. In the House, Antonio Dimarco, of Baltimore, was temporary chairman and J. Alan Coad, of St Mary's, made permanent chairman of the caucus. In the Senate, as in the House, a list prepared in advance naming each selection was presented and adopted without division.

HAND OF DEATH

Mrs. Purnell Jones, of Sassafras, died Thursday at a hospital in Wilmington where she had gone for treatment. She leaves a husband and several children. She was laid to rest on Tuesday, January 3rd, in Townsend Cemetery.

Sara L. Manlove, age 20 years, wife of Elmer H. Manlove, of Cecilton, died Thursday morning, December 29, of tubercular pneumonia, at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Merchant, near Galena. Mrs. Manlove had not been married quite a year. She had been in poor health for some months, but her death was a shock to her loved ones, as she was only ill about ten days. She was anticipating spending Christmas in her own home at Cecilton. Her suffering though so great she bore with such patience and trust in her divine Saviour asking her loved ones to meet her in heaven. Besides her husband and parents she is survived by two sisters and two brothers, Eva and Jennie May Merchant and John F. and Henry C. Merchant. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, December 31st, in Cecilton M. E. Church, interment in Cecilton Cemetery.

John Kennard Marshall

John Kennard Marshall, aged 28 years, died at his home in Towson, Baltimore county, Christmas morning, of heart trouble from which he had been ill only two weeks.

Mr. Marshall was born in Centreville, was educated in the public schools of Centreville, and when only a boy was in the employ of Holland & Thompson, Centreville. He later entered the Comegys drug store at Millington, where he was employed for some time, and a few years ago went to Towson where he was in the drug store of Louis Herganrather formerly of this county. Several years ago he left the drug business and has been connected with Acker, Merrill Conduct Co., of Baltimore.

Three years ago he was married to a Miss Hilgartner, of Towson, who survives him with one daughter. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Percy Arrington, of near Centreville, and two aunts, Mrs. John Burns, and Miss Kate Weaver, of Centreville.
