-The first annual fair for Caroline, Dumb institute at Frederick city. Dorchester, Talbot and Sussex counties, will be held at Federalsburg, the first and second days of October. We hope the public may give this enterprise the encouragement it merits.

-Henry Vanderford, formerly of the Eastern Shore, but now residing at Westminster, Carroll county, Md., has been nominated as a candidate for the Legislature. Mr. Vanderford is an editor of long standing, and has been an able leader in the Democratic ranks for the past thirty years.

-Philetus Allen, H. W. McColly and Geo. M. Russum have been appointed State Central Committee for Caroline county. We learn that but one of the WARNER-TURNER.-In Caroline, three is a colored gentleman. This is hardly fair, as two-thirds if not threefourths of their voters in this county are of that race.

REPAIRING .- Mr. Cooper, who recently purchased of Mr. Garey his store house on Main street, near the postoffice, is having it thoroughly repaired, and when completed will open in one supply of part a confectionary and in another a harness shop. The repairs will soon be
