Program Of Photo-Plays To Be Shown At The

Lyceum Theatre

CHESTERTOWN

Tonight — Associated First National Pictures presents Marshall Neilan't super-production—"THE RIVER'S END" by James Oliver Curwood.—A wonderful story of God's great out-of-doors a red-blooded story of strong men, good and bad, in a terrific conflict of both good and evil forces. A stirring tale of the Royal Mounted Police. Added attraction Saturday — BABY PEGGY IN "GET RICH QUICK PEGGY," also SELZNICK NEWS.

Monday and Tuesday, March 6 and 7—Hodgkinson special production, "LAVENDER and OLD LACE"—A picturization of Myrtle Reed's story. Here is one of the sweetest and cleanest stories that has been filmed in some time. None of the beauty of the story has been lost and those who liked the book will certainly enjoy the picture. Also International News.

Wednesday and Thursday — March 8 and 9—First National Pictures presents Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven in "TWIN BEDS." Carter DeHaven, the little Italian Tenor singer, who gets all mixed up as to whose bed he gets into when too much of a mixture of drinks makes him tipsy, is at his best as a comedian, while Mrs. DeHaven as Blanche Hawkins, the petite wife of a husky, irate husband, adds to the fun in her desperate efforts to evict from her boudoir the worried intruder. It's clean, but it's a riot. Don't miss it. Also SELZNICK NEWS.

Friday and Saturday, March 10 and 11—D. W. Griffith Service, presents "THE FALL OF BABLYON." A purple romance of Another Day.

A Super-Spectacle by the man hwo produced "The Birth of a Nation," "Hearts of the World," and "Way Down East."

See 125,000 men and women —4000 dancing girls at Feast of Belshazzar—1700 horses and charioteers in sensational chariot races—the Walls of Babylon, 300 feet high—fountains sparking with perfume and wine—the Virgins of the Sacred Fires.

Throbing with the precious ferment of love, devotion, loyalty, adoration, heroism and sacrifice.

Enlightening with its Vivid Truths, the Thundering of Historic Fact, the Knowledge of Another Day.

Majestic in its Massive Grandeur, its Colossal Theme, its Inspiring Romance, its Sumptuous Settings.

The Story of a Lovable Little Mountain Girl wha adored a King and Might Have Saved an Empire.

A Mighty Production, Alive with Laughter and Love, with Feasting and Wine, with Romance and Madness, with Mighty men of Valor and Women of Charm and Beauty.

HAND OF DEATH

Obe Mason died at his home, near Crumpton, Friday, of paralysis, aged 51 years. Funeral services were held at his late residence Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. J. T. Rowlenson officiating. Interment in the family lot at the M. E. Church. The bearers were Herbert Bowers, Lambert Bowers, Harry Robinson, Leonard Crew, Charles Snitcher and Spencer Coleman. He is well-known in Chestertown where he regularly visited with vegetables, etc.

Rev. George T. Conway, 86 years old, a retired minister of the Wilmington Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died at his home in Smyrna Saturday. He retired from the ministry in 1906, after serving 44 years wtih the Wilmington Conference.

Rev. Zach H. Webster, who was a member of the Wilmington Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 35 years, died at Denton, Md., Friday night, after a protracted illness. Mr. Webster joined the conference in 1887, The conference changed his relation to retired in 1920. Five daughters of Mr. Webster survive him—Mrs. E. M. Fowler, of Laurel, Mrs. L. J. Harrington, of Moore, Pa., and Mrs. F. B. Freeny, Mrs. H. A. Conwell and Miss Helen H. Webster, of Delmar.

Rev. James Webster Fogle, retired member of Wilmington Conference of the M. E. Church, died Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at his home on Poplar street, Seaford, of dropsy. He was 61 years of age, and was born on a farm near Harrisonville, Baltimore county, Md., the son of Joseph and Mary Ann Fogle, his father during his life being a well-known contractor and builder of that section.

Walter T. Newsome, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Newsome, died at the home of his parents, near town, Friday evening of heart trouble, following an attack of pneumonia, aged 14 years. Funeral services were held on Monday at eleven o'clock, conducted by Rev. Omar E. Jones, pastor of the M. E. Church; interment in Still Pond Cemetery. The pall bearers were John, Homer and Wm. Smith, Clifford and Elmer Newsome and Edw. Smith. Wm. T. Hicks, undertaker.

Arthur, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Durward Gosman, of Still Pond, died February 23, 1922.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES

With no debate on either measure, the House Thursday passed the Anti-Saloon League's State Enforcement Act by a vote of 58 to 45 and Delegate Hall's anti-racetrack gambling measure by a vote of 70 to 30. Miller voted for the enforcement measure while Bowers voted with the referendum advocates. Both delegates voted against race track gambling.

The State Education Bill was passed to its third reading in the House on Thursday. It is thought the Senate will look differently on it.

Representative from all the business organizations of Baltimore City appeared before the Finance Committee of the Senate and registered a protest to the passage of a State bonus bill for the soldiers and sailors who fought in the Great War from Maryland.

The bill to bond Queen Anne's county for thirty-three thousand dollars has passed both the house and the senate and will now go to the Governor for his signature. This bill provides for the sale of bonds to the extent of thirty-three thousand dollars for the purpose of paying deficits due by the county board of education and to place the board on a cash basis.

The Nelson "Sunday Law," introduced recently by Delegate Harry T. Nelson, of Crisfield, will now become a law.

The law provides that Somerset county shall be exempted from the provisions of the Statewide "open Sunday" law passed at the last session of the Legislature, and provides for a strict Sabbath observance in Somerset county. The law permits the sale of milk, ice, newspapers, gasoline and automobile oil, but prohibits the sale of ice cream, soft drinks, cigars, cigarettes and other things classed as luxuries.

B. F. Merchant and wife, who are in Denver, Colo., have just returned from a trip in Southern California where they spent three months visiting many places of interest.

Carring provisions that the hunting season for squirrels shall open September 1, that the upland game season shall end December 31, as at present, instead of December 24, and that dogs may be trained four months of the year, one of the game bills passed in the House Tuesday. The measure had been amended in several particulars.

TOMATO QUESTION IS DISCUSSED

MEETING OF KENT COUNTY PRODUCE EXCHANGE

About ninty Kent county farmers attended the second annual meeting of the Kent County Produce Exchange held last Tuesday, February 28th, in the Court House. The President, Dr. H. P. Copeland, in his annual address pointed out the accomplishments of the Produce Exchange during the past two years, and the important subjects to come before the meeting.

A report on the Wool Marketing Project was made by County Agent Derrick. It was reported that during 1921 4,000 pounds of wool were marketed in the form of blankets and motor robes so as to net the farmers 55 to 57½ cents per pound for their wool. This meant a saving of about $1,600. The County Agent also suggested that a sheep and wool committee be appointed to take up that phase of the work of the Exchange. This was passed in the form of a motion.

A very interesting address on tomato growing was given by Mr. Rade-Baugh, now County Agent of Cecil County and formally a very successful farmer of Harford county.

A five minute talk on the National "Canned Foods Week," March 1st to 8th, was given by Mrs. A. L. Harris.

The tomato situation on the Eastern Shore was then heard, after which a discussion of the local situation was taken up. The Produce Exchange decided to recommend 25 cents per basket as a fair price for farmers to produce tomatoes for this year. It was further recommended, and considered most important, that not more than 5 per cent of the tillable land of any farm be devoted to tomatoes this year, with a minimum acreage of 5 acres for farms of 100 acres or less. This recommendation is favorable for small farms.

The treasurer's report was received and approved. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Dr. H. P. Copeland, Vice-President, H. C. Willis, Secretary; A. L. Harris; Treasurer, D. W. Ingersoll. and the following Board of Directors in addition to the above officers: E. A. Corey, Edgar Pennington, H. S. Startt, A. W. Cochran, B. F. Rash, Albert C. Groves, Albert Jervis, John H. Clendaniel, Ralph Williams, Samuel J. Comly, J. E. Spear, John Wood and Dane E. Rianhard.

W. T. WARBURTON, OF ELKTON, IS DEAD

William T. Warburton, banker, lawyer and politician, died shortly before noon Tuesday at his home in Elkton.

He had been ill for more than three weeks, and pneumonia set in two days ago. He had been unable to retain nourishment for the last two weeks, it was said.

Mr. Warburton was a member of the Cecil county bar, and several years ago was a Republican member of the House of Delegates. For many years he had been active in Republican politics and at one time ran against O. E. Weller in a primary contest for Governor. He was defeated by Austin Crothers, whom he opposed in a contest for State Senator.

He was a member of the two National Republican Conventions that nominated Harrison and Taft, respectively.

His widow, who was Miss Matilda McFarland, daughter of Richard McFarland, and two sons, Henry A. Warburton, State's Attorney of Cecil county, and Charles E. Warburton, survive him.

Mr. Warburton was president of the Second National Bank of Elkton, which was closed several weeks ago and the affairs of which have since been under investigation.
