Lane Case Next Week.

The Circuit Court for Kent county will convene Monday for the trial of the J. Norman Lane case. Mr. Lane is charged with the murder of Jim Jones, a colored farm hand on the J. B. Dunn farm in Quaker Neck. The crime was committeed December 4, 1923, and Lane has been in jail ever since. He claims self defense as the reason for the death of Jones. The sheriff says Lane has made a model prisoner. He has occupied a third story room where he does his cooking and keeps house in "man fashion." He will be represented by Messrs. W. F. Russell, Jr., and W. Allen, while S. Scott Beck, Esq., will prosecute the case for the State.

Health Meeting

Kent County Public Health Meeting will be held June 11th at 2 p. m., in the Armory (which is above Gill's Ice Cream Factory.)

Every adult in Kent county is cordially invited to attend.

We all want to hear the able speakers especially The President of Baltimore County Public Health Association, Mr. Edward B. Passano, one of the busiest men in Baltimore county outside of this health work.

Kent county in organizing the Public Health work may desire to follow closely in the footsteps of Baltimore county. As it is the best Public Health work in the State, and in the U. S. A., it is point to with pride. Kent county has a large death rate. Public Health work will reduce this uneviable record of these preventable diseases.

Some of the slogans of Public Health work are "Keep well rather than be made well.

"It is cheaper for you and cheaper for your State and county."

Extension Sta., Flat	.75

There are also certain changes in rates for Private Branch Exchange service, Toll service, etc.

Automobile Club Hold Banquet at Tolchester.

The most successful and largest banquet ever held by the Automobile Club of Kent County took place on Thursday evening last at Hotel Tolchester, Tolchester Beach. 175 persons were present and there was not a dull moment from 7.30 to 11.00 o'clock. The large dining hall was most tastefully decorated with potted plants, cut flowers, evergreens and flags.

President James H. Sides presided with dignity and the toastmaster was that versatile artist in keeping things moving, H. Stockton Startt. The Collegians furnished fine music which kept the diners in a happy frame of mind and furnished lots of "pep."

W. Mason Shehan, of Easton, was the speaker of the evening. He gave a historical review of the part Kent county has played in American history and how prominent her brave sons have always acted in war and peace. His address was well prepared and most interesting and was enthusiastically received by the whole company.

The second speaker of the evening was Mr. Temple, of Baltimore, whose duty it was to make the crowd laugh. He did it to perfection. He is a past master in the art of after-dinner entertaining.

Manager Redder, of the Tolchester Hotel, gave the banqueters fine service, an appetising menu and pleasant surroundings. He served the following menu:

Crab Cocktails
Radishes Olives
Cream of Asparagus Soup
Filet of Gole, Tarare Sauce
Broiled Chicken on Toast
Fried Potatoes New Peas
Lettuce and Tomato Dressing
French Dressing
Ice Cream and Cake
Coffeee
Cigars Cigarettes

The officers of the club are James H. Sides, president; Dr. H. C.Hughes, treasurer; Howard B. Strong, secretary. The banquet committee consisted of H. C. Hughes, J. G. Beck, Howard Strong, Howard Owens and Charles H. Brice and they did their work well.

DEATHS

Miss Bessie Elizabeth Carroll, daughter of William H. and the late Mary R. Carroll, of Green Spring Valley, Baltimore Co., died at St. Josephs hospital on Monday of appendicitis, aged 21 years.

Miss Carroll was formerly of Kent County.

The deceased leaves five brothers, George A., Edward A., Frank Leroy, William Beck, and Henry Carroll; also five sisters Mrs. Adam Fowler, of Kent Co., Mrs. Frank Jones, of Rock Hall, Mrs. Ethel Buckingham, of Baltimore and Bertha and Naomi Carroll.

Funeral service was held this morning Wednesday at the grave at Union Cemetery, Worton, on arrival of Tolchester boat.

The pall bearers were her four brothers and two brothers-in-law.

Rev. W. E. Simms in charge of funeral arrangements. C. L. Dodd undertaker in charge of funeral arrangements.

Simon Deshong died at his home near Hanesville, Kent county, June 4th. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Sarah J., and eight children: Mrs. Roy M. Sipes, of Saluvia, Pa.; Mrs. P. S. Deshong, of Needmore, Pa.; Mrs. Jesse J. Hurd, Chestertown; and Mrs. Viola D. Garland, J. W., Thomas C., C. I. and N. S. Deshong, all of Wilmington, Del. His body was shipped on the 6th to Chambersburg; interment to be made at Sideling Hill, Pa.

SHALLCROSS EXPRESS

Shallcross Express will leave Chestertown at one p. m. to connect with three o'clock Ferry for Baltimore.

KENT, THE FAIREST COUNTY

If there is a more entrancing place than Kent county, we'd love to view it. Today it is a veritable Garden of Eden. Roses of exquisite texture bloom in luxuriance and climb upon walls, houses and trellis as if anxious to show themselves to the world. Iris of graceful petal and delicate shade adorn my lady's garden while the Bridal Wreath and peonies add lustre to the scene. The fields of waving grain and sweet-smelling clover send back their perfume to the locust while blades of corn push their way thru the sod as if to join its freshness to the picture. Oh, it is so beautiful! Words fail to describe the loveliness of this picture and only God's hand could make such a scene.

A PAGEANT OF HISTORY

Several hundred persons enjoyed the exhibition given on the High School Lawn Tuesday evening under the direction of Miss Rebecca Moffett. Miss Francis Clements was the announcer and took the part well. Miss Reese and Miss Jones were the accompanists. There were six scenes depicting various epochs in history, each of which was given on a platform in full view of the audience. The occasion marked another step forward in the work of the High School.

The committee of judges appointed by the Alumni Association of Washington College, M. Wilbur Thomas, of the class of 1882; W. Robert Huey, of the class of 1908 and Charles F. Wheatley, of the class of 1917, met at the college Wednesday afternoon and canvassed the votes of the alumni for members of the Board of Visitors and Governors of the college. The following were elected :— Col. Albanus Phillips, of Dorchester county; James E. Ellegood, of Wicomico county; Judge Robert F. Duer, of Somerset county; Wm. D. Cordrey, of Worcester county; J. Thos. Lyons, representing the Baltimore district, and John I. Colbourn, representing the Philadelphia district. Two of these selections, Col. Phillips and Mr. Lyons, are new men on the board, while the others are re-elections,

A variety shower was given to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Walker, Tuesday evening, at their home at 100 East Twenty-third street, Wilmington, by Mrs. Wm. H. Walker and Mrs. Rembert Robinson. Mrs. Walker before her marriage was Miss Mary P. Colgain, of Sassafras, Md. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received in cut glass and linen, etc. After an enjoyable evening in which humorous recitations were given by Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Lydia Biddle and Miss Edna Lipp, refreshments were served.

Lee C. Price, who for many years has been associated with his father in the ice cream business at Centreville, left on Thursday of last week for Orange, Texas, his future home. Mr. Price contemplates establishing a large pastureized milk station in that town. His wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, of Chestertown.

Miss Frances Stavely, daughter of Harry Stavely, of Worton, who makes her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Starcher, Grafton, W. Va., received her A. B. degree from the University of Virginia, on June 3rd. She was one of a class of 342 graduates this year from the university. She is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi, Soroity.

The Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Company have purchased a new safe thru Simon W. Westcott's agency and the old safe donated to Kent county for use in jail. It is said the safe will be used in which to store money or diamonds taken from prisoners.

The report that the General Conference of the M. P. Church took out the word "Catholic" from their creed is a mistake. The fact is the proposition was laid on the table and no such change is contemplated.

The Quaker Neck State road was completed yesterday. The Old Line Construction Co. will begin at once on the Pomona end.

The M. E. boys won by score of 10 to 6 Wednesday, the M. P.'s being ahead but one game. East says "Obey's" boys couldn't hit.

There are two more cases of scarlet fever in town.
