Triangle Club Banquet

The fourth annual banquet of the Ladies' Triangle Club of Christ M. P. Church was held in the lecture room Tuesday evening. The decorations were most beautiful and evidence the good taste of the banquet committee. Mrs. Vickers Bowers, the president, presided in a most graceful manner. The program included selections by the Chestertown Orchestra, vocal solos by Miss Helen Rouse and Prof. Roy Woodland, and trombone solo by Russell McMenamin. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Paul E. Titsworth and Charles N. Satterfield.

The following menu was served: Chicken Salad, Cold Ham, Parker House Rolls, Maryland Biscuit, Butter, Pickles, Olives, Ice Cream, Cake, Mints, Salted Nuts, Coffee.

The vestry of St. Clements' P. E. Church, massey, has sold to Harry Church, Massey, has sold to Harry longing to the church, for $5,500. The tract is a part of a very valuable farm bequeathed to the church by the late Stephen Boyer, a vestryman of the church and wealthy landowner. The vestry has purchased the residence of the late Isaac Gibbs, in Massey, for $3,900, and the rector, Rev. J. L. Saunders and family will occupy it.

BY-KOTA MEMBERS HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET

The second annual banquet of the By-Kota Club of the M. E. Church was held Friday evening in the lecture room of the church, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion typical of scheme being red, white and blue. Covers were laid for 125 guests at 50 cents a plate, and a fine Eastern Shore menu was served.

Mrs. Louis C. Hess, president of the club, was toastmistress, and toasts were responded to by Dr. Paul Emerson Titsworth, president of Washington College, Rev. Thomas J. Sard, pastor of the church, and G. L. Lindstedt.

The officers of the club are: President, Mrs. Louis C. Hess; vice-president, Mrs. Merrick Clements; recording secretary, Miss Mary Anderson; financial secretary, Miss Ada Schreiber; corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. C. Needles; treasurer; Mrs. Eleanor Coleman; assistant, Mrs. Anna Crew.

At the close of the speechmaking, the president was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers in appreciation of her services during the year.

At a recent physical examination of the High School girls the Misses Bernice Coleman and Ethel Shirley were found perfect.

LUCKY FEBRUARY

Some digger after facts, who evidently was born in February, has discovered that of the 63 men and women now in the Hall of Fame at N. Y. U., 12 were born in February. Included in the list are George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Mark Hopkins, William Tecumseh Sherman, Daniel Boone, Peter Cooper, George Peabody, Alice Freeman Palmer, James Russell Lowell, Emma Willard, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow and Mary Lyons. Then think of the "notables" in Kent who were born this month.

Of A Large Number Of

New Spring Coats

In FLANNEL, TWILL And TWEED

Just 2 Prices, $18.00 & $25.00

While our buyer was in New York a few weeks ago, he ran across the greatest wholesale bargain event that he had ever seen. It was in New Spring Coats. One of the best known manufacturers in America—barring none, found business slow, and to increase sales offered a number of coats to a few of his customers at the exact cost of manufacturing. We bought all that we could, and here they are offered to you at prices unequalled. Each garment is tailored in the finest possible manner and all are molded in the mannish fashion with double breasted fronts. The materials in which they come are flannel, twill and tweed. The colors are varied and beautiful in the extreme.
